THE GAME.
Game tomorrow. For the championship—Vigrans vs. Natcos.

THE PLACE.
Athletic park, 2:30 p. m.

THE OFFICIALS.
Peck and Brooks, umpires. Shaw, official scorer.

BY H. M. DIDDLESOCK.
There will be some excitement at Athletic park tomorrow when the Vigrans and Natcos meet to decide the championship of the S. A. L. If everybody is present at the game who has expressed his intention of being there, the grounds will hardly be large enough to hold them.

Both managers are confident that they will win the game and from the information they hand out, there is not going to be any loser.

How They Rank.
On the dope it would appear that the Vigrans have just a shade on their rivals and the betting seems to favor them slightly, but the Natcos are stronger than many believe and they are desperate.

Vigrans have defeated Natcos twice this year, winning one game 5-1 and the other 5-2. Natcos have won one game from Vigran, 5-2, so the balance appears to be in favor of the Vigrans.

Luck will undoubtedly be a large factor and the team that gets the breaks will be the team that will win.

Natcos is figuring on Wallace to win the game for them and it would appear that without him they have abandoned hope.

It will, however, take more than a one man team to get away with this game, for the Vigrans boys are primed and ready.

Minner Will Pitch.
Minner will pitch for Vigrans and when in form there is no better man than Pete. He has been taking the best of care of himself for the past two weeks, indulging in light training only and when he takes the mound on Saturday, Natcos will have to exert themselves to reach him.

The mighty Sullivan will be behind the bat to receive Pete's twisters and this means that the men who do reach the bases will have to go some.

Hawekotte will be on the grounds ready to take his turn, and it would not be surprising if he started the game.

Hawekotte has been pitching all-right ball for the past several weeks and is in wonderful form.

Haas, behind the bat for Natco, will prove to be a tower of strength, for there is no better player in the league. He can hit like a Collier or Wagner, and his throwing to bases is marvelous.

Aside from that, he is a heady player and always keeps the boys on their toes.

Manager Puckett is also on the job every minute and puts lots of "pep" into his boys, because he is full of it himself, and he knows how to make his team fight. He is the Stallings of Richmond.

A glance at the line-up will show that both teams are out for a battle royal and there will be some baseball played.

May the best team win.

PLANS DISTANT RACE

Plans for a big, three mile cross country run or road race on Thanksgiving Day are being considered by Physical Director Roach of the Y. M. C. A. He had not decided upon any of the details but is hoping that arrangements can be made to make the event one worthy to attract general attention on this holiday. If held, the cross country run will probably begin at 9 o'clock in the morning of Thanksgiving Day.

PARTITION CASE FILED FOR $400

A partition suit in the estate of James J. Epps, who died in 1899, was filed this morning by Hayes Epps against the other heirs of the estate. It is alleged in the complaint that $400 is due the widow as her share in the estate.

Asa Bettelon, former proprietor of a saloon at 20 North Ninth street, was made defendant in another suit in circuit court today. The complaint asks the court to foreclose on a mechanic's lien. The demand is for $150.

There are about 12,000 cremations each year in the United States. The first crematory was established in 1876, and during the eight succeeding years only twenty-eight human bodies were cremated.

FOOTBALL PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHTER THAN USUAL AT YALE

Yale coaches regard the football outlook as the most encouraging which any captain has faced since Yale defeated both Harvard and Princeton. This was in the season of 1909, under Ted Coy. There is remarkable backfield material in the veterans, Captain Alcock Wilson, Harry Le Gore, Otis Guernsey, Mal Scott, Billy Easton and "Eddie" Walta. "Bunny" Burgess, the hockey team captain, who was half back two years ago, and Malcolm, substitute halfback last fall, with "Dev" Thompson, Bingham and Hutchinson, halfbacks of the freshman eleven last fall, are other candidates.

1915 FOOTBALL SEASON TO TEST OUT HAUGHTON

The 1915 football season probably will answer the three-year-old question.

Was it the wizardry of Percy Haughton, as coach, or was it the individual brilliancy of the players that made Harvard supreme in the football world?

Some there are who give the major portion of the credit for Harvard's showing in the past to Haughton. Others contend that it was Brickley, Mahan, Hardwick, Pennock and other crimson football satellites that caused Harvard to shine so brightly. They assert that with such material as Haughton had in 1912, 1913 and 1914 the dubbiest coach in America could have welded together a championship combination.

Few Veterans at Harvard.

Graduations hits Harvard a harder wallop than any other big college in the country and Haughton has left for his 1915 team only three of the men who started, against Yale last November and only ten of the 25 men who made up the varsity squad of 1914.

Brickley, the wonderful, is gone; Hardwick, the greatest all-around football player in the history of the game, has gone. Graduations, in addition to taking these two varsity regulars, also took forever from the Harvard line-up Logan, the star quarterback; Pennock, the giant all-American guard; Francke, the fullback; T. J. Coolidge, end; Trumbull, an alternate guard and tackle, and one of the greatest linemen that ever played at Harvard; Bradley, halfback; Weston, Underwood, Arthington, linemen; Sargent, substitute quarterback, and a half dozen other first substitutes.

Eddie Mahan, Soucy, center, Gilman and Cowan, linemen, are the only regulars that remain. The six other men who won their varsity letters last year and who make up the 10 that are left from the peerless 1914 squad are: C. A. Coolidge, end and linemen; Curtis and Riegel, linemen; King and McKinlock, backs; and Watson, quarterback.

In other words, Haughton must begin with only 10 men who have ever played on a varsity eleven before, and with a bunch of recruits that have come up from the freshman class of a year ago.

Enright, the spectacular fullback, comes up from the "freshies" of a year ago, and Harvard has high hopes that he will do much to plug up the void left by Brickley. Robinson is a promising looking "rookie."

Two youths—Murray and Taylor—promise to give Watson a battle for the honor of being the varsity quarterback. One of the biggest jobs before Haughton is to develop a brace of wing men to fill in—or try to fill in—the holes made by the loss of "Jeff" Coolidge and Hardwick.

Nor has Harvard a certainty for center. Soucy is a good center—but is he good enough?

HADLEY BECOMES ILL

W. B. Hadley, 85 years old, pioneer manufacturer and merchant, is critically ill at his home, 128 North Ninth street. Mr. Hadley returned from a two weeks' vacation in poor health, and his advanced age has told against a speedy recovery. Mr. Hadley at one time was connected with a chair manufacturing concern, and in early years conducted a dry goods store at Eighth and Main street.

3 Tests for Shotgun Shells

Have you made your shell test yet? You can get from us, without charge, a copy of a booklet giving directions for testing the primer speed, penetration, velocity, distribution and water-proofing of shotgun shells. What reports we have had from local tests indicate the superiority of The Black Shells, made by the United States Cartridge Company. The tests are interesting and simple. Call and get a booklet telling how. The tests take only a few minutes, but are decidedly worth while.

sult with American bankers and others as to the best means to be adopted for the regulation of exchange between New York, London and Paris, in order that the commerce and industries of these countries may suffer as little as possible during the course of the war. Mr. Blackett will act as secretary and will give out formal statements each day concerning the conferences.

The commissioners were accompanied by their wives, and immediately upon landing were taken to the Hotel Baltimore. No conferences were had during the day, but tonight the foreign bankers will meet most of the leading bankers of New York in Mr. Morgan's famous library.

Safety from submarines was assured the bankers aboard the Lupland, as the steamship left Liverpool on September 1. Two of the speediest torpedo boat destroyers of the British navy convoyed the vessel until she was well beyond the danger zone off the Irish coast.

FOR

Dandruff-Gone Campaign Now On

SCURF WILL BE ERADICATED FROM HEADS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN FREE.

Clean Scalps Make Clear Minds, Glover Declares.

Thousands of our school children suffer from dandruff. For hours they sit in a close school room scratching their scalps, distracting attention from studies, not to mention the constant irritation and loss of hair which follows. The Great Glover has offered to eradicate this scurf free.

Richmond business men, interested in the campaign being waged by Glover, have prevailed upon him to continue his demonstration at the Thistlethwaite Drug Store, Sixth and Main streets, for another month.

Hundreds of Richmond people have used Glover's Hairgro for the past month and it has been publicly recommended by Wm. C. Spanagel, the well known chemist of 117 N. W. Fifth street; Edwin C. Greene, popular linotype operator, of 121 South Third St.; Herbert C. Garrett, letter carrier, 220 South Twenty-second street; A. Irving Manson, 121 South Eleventh street; Herschel Thomas, 20 N. Twenty-second street, and scores of others.

It is Glover's custom to give the first treatment free to sufferers of the dandruff scurf, itching scalp and falling hair. His particular forte is growing hair on bald heads. Many of our former Richmond bald heads now glory in a wealth of new hair.

Glover frees the scalps of his customers of dandruff while they wait, so to speak. Have him look over your children's scalps any afternoon.
