FAIR PROVIDES RACE EVENTS FOR FIRST DAY

EATON, O., Sept. 25.—With prospects never more flattering, the annual fair of the Preble County Agricultural society will be formally opened Tuesday.

In all departments the entry lists are unusually large. This is particularly true in the display classes, and the matter of assigning space to exhibitors is causing much concern to superintendents. The art, flower and mechanical halls probably will have on display the greatest quantity of goods in the history of the agricultural society.

Diverting from a custom observed for many years, the board this year has provided good races for the opening day. Following is the race program for the other days of the fair:

Wednesday.
Gentleman's road race	Purse $100
2:30 trot	Purse $200
2:25 pace	Purse $300
Thursday.
2:11 pace	Purse $200
2:18 trot	Purse $300
2:16 pace	Purse $300
Friday.
2:14 trot	Purse $200
2:20 pace	Purse $300
2:24 trot	Purse $300

RESUMES ACTIVITY

EATON, O., Sept. 25.—With the appointment of L. T. Stephen to the position of humane officer, the Abner L. Haines Humane society announces that new activity will be taken on. Without such officer the society has been handicapped to a certain extent, but in various parts of the county its influence has been exerted with gratifying results. The society was organized three years ago. Mrs. S. E. Reynolds of this city, is secretary.

AUCTION OFF SEATS

EATON, O., Sept. 25.—Seats in the chair section of the grand stand at the fair were offered at auction today. The seats sell regularly for $1.00, but in former years the premium given has exceeded that amount. The sixtieth annual fair of the county agricultural society will be opened Tuesday.

PASTOR LEAVES POST.

NEW PARIS, O., Sept. 25.—Local friends of Rev. H. R. Bixel and wife are sorry to know that they will soon leave their present charge, the New Paris Christian church, and enter the work at Bethesda, O., where the membership is 200 and the Sunday school numbers 100 more than the church membership. Rev. Bixel tendered his resignation at the church board meeting Tuesday evening to become effective October 3.

RECOVERS WATCH

NEW PARIS, O., Sept. 25.—John G. Auld is congratulating himself on the recovery of his gold watch and fob, which became entangled in a load of brush trimmed from the trees in front of his home, and was jerked from his watch pocket. Drayman Frank Miller, when carting away the brush, discovered the watch in the bottom of his wagon in the nick of time to save it from being thrown into Whitewater creek, where the refuse was being dumped.

SCHOOL PROGRESSES.

NEW PARIS, O., Sept. 25.—Work on the new school building is progressing rapidly. Brick for the building is arriving daily, and at present there are twenty-two "imported" brick layers employed on the building, all the men being union laborers, hailing from the Southland. A. M. Frye of Piqua, is the contractor.

WILL PAY OFFICER 27 CENTS PER DAY

EATON, O., Sept. 25.—In reasoning to determine what has prompted three candidates to seek the office of marshal at Camden, some have advanced the opinion that it is a desire to wear a blue uniform and a shield of the law. Others say a sense of true citizenship and a desire to uphold the town's morals are responsible, but all are agreed that it is not the salary, which has been fixed at twenty-seven cents a day. The marshal's salary has been cut from $300 to $100 per year. The candidates for the office are W. E. Mackey, Lon Overholts and the present incumbent, Robert H. Marshall.

W.C.T.U. OPENS ROOMS AT FAIR

EATON, O., Sept. 25.—Observing a custom inaugurated a few years ago, members of the Preble County W. C. T. U. will establish a rest tent at the fair grounds during the fair, which will be opened Tuesday. All conveniences will be provided for visitors.

In the interest of the health of the baby, the Women's Civic League is planning to locate a tent on the grounds. Miss Barnard, county visiting nurse, will deliver lectures and tell how to properly feed and care for babies.

Postmaster Gale will arrange a parcel post exhibit at the fair grounds and give instructions to the public, explaining the rates and uses of the system. How to prepare packages for transmission through the mails will also be demonstrated.

NEW PARIS, O., Sept. 25.—Horace Wenger met with an auto accident Wednesday, running off an embankment on the road between New Paris and Richmond. Slight damage was done to his machine.

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blotches, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health) Unightly eruptions, pimples, boils, blotches, sallow or mucky skin, usually arise to the stimulus of a hot meal, a bowel movement or a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish in such cases to resort to outward applications, which are only temporary in their results. If more people only knew it, there is a very simple remedy, to be found in any drug store, which is effective as it is simple and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, which has been put in tablet form, and at such small cost no one need be deprived of its wonderful benefits.

"Sentinal tablets"—that is the name given to these tablets, as they are the hair-forming ingredient. You need only get about a dime's worth and swallow one at bed time to get rid of the trouble. It is good for the person. The action in the morning is so easy, so soothing, and instead of a weakening after-effect, you find yourself more alert and energetic. Sentinal tablets are not only the finest remedy known for constipation and torpid liver, but offer the easiest, most sensible treatment for complicated difficulties of the character mentioned.

EATON WAR VETERAN DIES WHILE SITTING IN CHAIR ON PORCH

EATON, O., Sept. 25.—While seated in a chair on a veranda at his home on East High street, Henry C. Hill, 83 years old, died suddenly about 10 o'clock Friday morning when he suffered a stroke of apoplexy. He fell from the chair, but was found soon afterward by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Maria Schaffner, with whom he lived. During the last two months Mr. Hill's health has been declining.

Mr. Hill was a veteran of the Civil war, having served a three-year enlistment. He was born in Maine, but for many years resided in Eaton. He was one of the oldest members of the local Masonic fraternity. His wife, a sister of Captain Peter O'Cain, died many years ago.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, conducted by the Rev. T. A. Cooper, of Barron Street Church of Christ. Burial will be according to the ritual of the Masonic order.

In several New York city districts there is still doubt whether one or two delegates will be allowed under the present rules of the Republican national committee.

This body will meet here and also decide when and where the convention will be held and also pass finally upon all questions of representation.

Each state will be represented in the convention by four delegates-at-large; two delegates for each representative-at-large in congress; one delegate from each of the congressional districts and an additional delegate from each congressional district in which the vote for any Republican elector, in 1908 for the Republican nominees for congress in 1911 shall be found to be 7,500 or more.

Here are some of the names leading in the discussion of politicians here as available presidential timber: John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts; Eliza Root, of New York; Hiram Johnson, of California; William Hale Thompson, of Illinois; Lawrence Y. Sherman, of Kansas; Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio; William Alden Smith, of Michigan; Charles S. Whitman of New York; Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana; Albert C. Cummins, of Iowa; William H. Taft, of Pennsylvania; Frank G. Brumbaugh, of Ohio; William E. Borah, of Idaho; James R. Mann, of Illinois.

TO GIVE BENEFIT.

To secure finances sufficient to defray the expenses of Rev. Esther Frame in her trip to El Paso, Texas, where she will make her future home with her daughter, a supper will be given this evening in the church parlor of the meeting house on East Main street by the Indiana Yearly Meeting of Friends.
