

TREES PRODUCE UNUSUAL CROP OF FINE FRUIT

CAMBRIDGE CITY, Ind., Oct. 4. The orchard of Howard Whitley south of town, where the Purdue experiments have been made for several years, is furnishing an almost unprecedented yield of apples this season. The fruit comprises all the leading varieties and is of excellent quality. Mr. Whitley uses the most approved methods in the selection and care of his trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Harrison of Richmond, visited relatives here Thursday.

The Misses Mamie, Lora and Mildred Bowers of Centerville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lundy Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patton are spending several days with relatives at Columbus and Seymour.

Miss Irene Murphy of Kokomo, is visiting her uncle, Frank Ebert, in Cambridge City.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Williams went to New Castle Sunday to celebrate the fiftieth marriage anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cory.

Miss Helen Dyke of Indianapolis, is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dyke.

Gives Thimble Party.

Mrs. B. W. Gentry gave a thimble party Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother-in-law. Mrs. Alice Gentry of Martinsville. The invited guests were Mesdames Walter Krone, Charles Eichior, Joe Moore, Will Austin, Charles Woods, Will Hunt and Forest Danner.

Miss Bertie Lafever has returned after a fortnight spent with relatives at Indianapolis.

Walter Gibson has moved into the Lester property on Pottawotomie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Ferguson have returned from their wedding trip to Southern Canada, and will take up residence on their farm near Milton.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a rummage sale in the basement of the church, October 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Emma Hodskin of Richmond, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doney will be the guests of friends at Indianapolis over Sunday.

Miss Alma Hull is acting as substitute governess at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' home at Knights- town, during the month of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber Reigle are moving into the E. F. Drischel property on West Main street.

Mrs. Anna Hoemig of Paris, Ill., is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. W. Marson and Mrs. J. L. Manlove.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirkwood of Kannard, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller on Wednesday.

R. R. Watkins has sold the Cambridge City Laundry to C. J. Bowles of Indianapolis. Mr. Watkins will give his entire time to the clothing and cleaning business.

Miss Marie Knox, who has held a position in Chicago, during the last year, has, on account of failing, returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Knox.

Mrs. R. D. Steele after a wee's visit with her daughter Mrs. Bertram Berger at Kokomo, has returned, accompanied by the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Wilson were the guests of friends at Pendleton on Wednesday.

Frank Morgan of Yorktown, spent Wednesday with friends in Cambridge City.

William H. Doney has sold what is known as the Shutes farm, south of town, to Kersley Huffman for $4,350.

There was an unusually large attendance at the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Charles Shultz, pastor of the Christian church. The burial services were conducted by the Masonic lodge.

Mrs. J. W. Marple is spending two weeks as the guest of friends and relatives at St. Louis.

Mrs. C. W. Joselyn, who has been spending the month here, left for Chicago on Thursday evening to join her husband from where they will return to their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. James Dennis came from Knightstown on Wednesday to attend the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. She was the guest of Mrs. George Robey.

Mrs. Charles Smith was the guest of Hagerstown friends on Wednesday.

Miss Bertie Lafever has returned after a fortnight spent with relatives at Indianapolis.

Walter Gibson has moved into the Lester property on Pottawotomie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Ferguson have returned from their wedding trip to Southern Canada, and will take up residence on their farm near Milton.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a rummage sale in the basement of the church, October 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Emma Hodskin of Richmond, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doney will be the guests of friends at Indianapolis over Sunday.

Miss Alma Hull is acting as substitute governess at the Soldiers' and

Laurels' Orphans' home at Knights- town, during the month of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber Reigle are moving into the E. F. Drischel property on West Main street.

Mrs. Anna Hoemig of Paris, Ill., is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. W. Marson and Mrs. J. L. Manlove.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirkwood of Kannard, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller on Wednesday.

R. R. Watkins has sold the Cambridge City Laundry to C. J. Bowles of Indianapolis. Mr. Watkins will give his entire time to the clothing and cleaning business.

Miss Marie Knox, who has held a position in Chicago, during the last year, has, on account of failing, returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Knox.

Mrs. R. D. Steele after a wee's visit with her daughter Mrs. Bertram Berger at Kokomo, has returned, accompanied by the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Wilson were the guests of friends at Pendleton on Wednesday.

Frank Morgan of Yorktown, spent Wednesday with friends in Cambridge City.

William H. Doney has sold what is known as the Shutes farm, south of town, to Kersley Huffman for $4,350.

There was an unusually large attendance at the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Charles Shultz, pastor of the Christian church. The burial services were conducted by the Masonic lodge.

Mrs. J. W. Marple is spending two weeks as the guest of friends and relatives at St. Louis.

Mrs. C. W. Joselyn, who has been spending the month here, left for Chicago on Thursday evening to join her husband from where they will return to their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. James Dennis came from Knightstown on Wednesday to attend the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. She was the guest of Mrs. George Robey.

Mrs. Charles Smith was the guest of Hagerstown friends on Wednesday.

Miss Bertie Lafever has returned after a fortnight spent with relatives at Indianapolis.

Walter Gibson has moved into the Lester property on Pottawotomie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Ferguson have returned from their wedding trip to Southern Canada, and will take up residence on their farm near Milton.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a rummage sale in the basement of the church, October 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Emma Hodskin of Richmond, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doney will be the guests of friends at Indianapolis over Sunday.

Miss Alma Hull is acting as substitute governess at the Soldiers' and

Laurels' Orphans' home at Knights- town, during the month of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber Reigle are moving into the E. F. Drischel property on West Main street.

Mrs. Anna Hoemig of Paris, Ill., is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. W. Marson and Mrs. J. L. Manlove.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirkwood of Kannard, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller on Wednesday.

R. R. Watkins has sold the Cambridge City Laundry to C. J. Bowles of Indianapolis. Mr. Watkins will give his entire time to the clothing and cleaning business.

Miss Marie Knox, who has held a position in Chicago, during the last year, has, on account of failing, returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Knox.

Mrs. R. D. Steele after a wee's visit with her daughter Mrs. Bertram Berger at Kokomo, has returned, accompanied by the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Wilson were the guests of friends at Pendleton on Wednesday.

Frank Morgan of Yorktown, spent Wednesday with friends in Cambridge City.

William H. Doney has sold what is known as the Shutes farm, south of town, to Kersley Huffman for $4,350.

There was an unusually large attendance at the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Charles Shultz, pastor of the Christian church. The burial services were conducted by the Masonic lodge.

Mrs. J. W. Marple is spending two weeks as the guest of friends and relatives at St. Louis.

Mrs. C. W. Joselyn, who has been spending the month here, left for Chicago on Thursday evening to join her husband from where they will return to their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. James Dennis came from Knightstown on Wednesday to attend the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. She was the guest of Mrs. George Robey.

Mrs. Charles Smith was the guest of Hagerstown friends on Wednesday.

Miss Bertie Lafever has returned after a fortnight spent with relatives at Indianapolis.

Walter Gibson has moved into the Lester property on Pottawotomie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Ferguson have returned from their wedding trip to Southern Canada, and will take up residence on their farm near Milton.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a rummage sale in the basement of the church, October 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Emma Hodskin of Richmond, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doney will be the guests of friends at Indianapolis over Sunday.

Miss Alma Hull is acting as substitute governess at the Soldiers' and

Laurels' Orphans' home at Knights- town, during the month of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber Reigle are moving into the E. F. Drischel property on West Main street.

Mrs. Anna Hoemig of Paris, Ill., is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. W. Marson and Mrs. J. L. Manlove.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirkwood of Kannard, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller on Wednesday.

R. R. Watkins has sold the Cambridge City Laundry to C. J. Bowles of Indianapolis. Mr. Watkins will give his entire time to the clothing and cleaning business.

Miss Marie Knox, who has held a position in Chicago, during the last year, has, on account of failing, returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Knox.

Mrs. R. D. Steele after a wee's visit with her daughter Mrs. Bertram Berger at Kokomo, has returned, accompanied by the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Wilson were the guests of friends at Pendleton on Wednesday.

Frank Morgan of Yorktown, spent Wednesday with friends in Cambridge City.

William H. Doney has sold what is known as the Shutes farm, south of town, to Kersley Huffman for $4,350.

There was an unusually large attendance at the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Charles Shultz, pastor of the Christian church. The burial services were conducted by the Masonic lodge.

Mrs. J. W. Marple is spending two weeks as the guest of friends and relatives at St. Louis.

Mrs. C. W. Joselyn, who has been spending the month here, left for Chicago on Thursday evening to join her husband from where they will return to their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. James Dennis came from Knightstown on Wednesday to attend the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. She was the guest of Mrs. George Robey.

Mrs. Charles Smith was the guest of Hagerstown friends on Wednesday.

Miss Bertie Lafever has returned after a fortnight spent with relatives at Indianapolis.

Walter Gibson has moved into the Lester property on Pottawotomie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Ferguson have returned from their wedding trip to Southern Canada, and will take up residence on their farm near Milton.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a rummage sale in the basement of the church, October 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Emma Hodskin of Richmond, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doney will be the guests of friends at Indianapolis over Sunday.

Miss Alma Hull is acting as substitute governess at the Soldiers' and

Laurels' Orphans' home at Knights- town, during the month of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber Reigle are moving into the E. F. Drischel property on West Main street.

Mrs. Anna Hoemig of Paris, Ill., is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. W. Marson and Mrs. J. L. Manlove.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirkwood of Kannard, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller on Wednesday.

R. R. Watkins has sold the Cambridge City Laundry to C. J. Bowles of Indianapolis. Mr. Watkins will give his entire time to the clothing and cleaning business.

Miss Marie Knox, who has held a position in Chicago, during the last year, has, on account of failing, returned to the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Knox.

Mrs. R. D. Steele after a wee's visit with her daughter Mrs. Bertram Berger at Kokomo, has returned, accompanied by the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Wilson were the guests of friends at Pendleton on Wednesday.

Frank Morgan of Yorktown, spent Wednesday with friends in Cambridge City.

William H. Doney has sold what is known as the Shutes farm, south of town, to Kersley Huffman for $4,350.

There was an unusually large attendance at the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Charles Shultz, pastor of the Christian church. The burial services were conducted by the Masonic lodge.

Mrs. J. W. Marple is spending two weeks as the guest of friends and relatives at St. Louis.

Mrs. C. W. Joselyn, who has been spending the month here, left for Chicago on Thursday evening to join her husband from where they will return to their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. James Dennis came from Knightstown on Wednesday to attend the funeral of Lyman U. Dill. She was the guest of Mrs. George Robey.

Mrs. Charles Smith was the guest of Hagerstown friends on Wednesday.

Miss Bertie Lafever has returned after a fortnight spent with relatives at Indianapolis.

Walter Gibson has moved into the Lester property on Pottawotomie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Ferguson have returned from their wedding trip to Southern Canada, and will take up residence on their farm near Milton.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a rummage sale in the basement of the church, October 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Emma Hodskin of Richmond, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Doney will be the guests of friends at Indianapolis over Sunday.

Miss Alma Hull is acting as substitute governess at the Soldiers'