ALL GRAINS LOWER AS MARKET CLOSES

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Wheat closed with losses of 1 1/2¢, corn was off 1/2¢, and oats were 1/2¢ lower. Sentiment was quite bearish, and this because of the general belief that wheat is piling up in all positions. The weekly receipts at primary markets were 1,900,000 bushels smaller than the previous week at 17,955,000 bushels, compared with 13,443,000 bushels a year. Cash sales here were 10,000 bushels, and at New York 240,000 bushels. Corn closed 1/2¢ lower and oats were off 1/2¢. Cash sales of corn here amounted to 50,000, and of oats 75,000 bushels. New York reported 240,000 bushels of wheat for export. Provisions were weak and lower.

May Succeed Hinkey

Speculation is rife at New Haven as to the man who will succeed Frank Hinkey as head coach of the Yale football team. That Hinkey will not be retained for next year is a foregone conclusion. At present Johnny Kilpatrick, one of the greatest ends ever turned out at Yale is being boomed for the job.

FRENCH TRANSPORT IS REPORTED SUNK

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The French transport Calvados with 800 French soldiers on board has been sunk in the Mediterranean by a submarine of unknown nationality. The loss of life is enormous. Fifty-three survivors were picked up by the Lady Plymouth. They were found clinging to wreckage. The soldiers were returning home after long service in the trenches.

T. P. A. ENTERTAINS WIVES OF MEMBERS

With the new members that have been secured during the past week, whose names have been sent to the state and national headquarters for approval, the membership of the local branch of the T. P. A. has reached 450 members. A membership campaign was conducted last Saturday and continued during this week with the result that twenty new members were secured. A reception will be given at the club this evening.

REFUSES TEMPORARY BRIDGE FOR DALTON

Alexander Abbott, trustee of Dalton township, was refused an appropriation by the county commissioners for the construction of a temporary bridge to be used while a bridge is being built in that township. Attorney Hoelscher ruled that because the county was building a bridge in the township on a township road, the county was under no obligations to offer relief during the construction of the bridge and that the township ought to stand the expense of a temporary structure.

BIDS ARE RECEIVED.

The Bethard Auto agency and the Bertach Brothers Auto agency of Centerville, were the only bidders for the contract to sell the county an automobile for the poor farm, and both bids were above the appropriations. Both bids were for a Ford machine with extra equipment. The bid of the Bethard Auto agency was for $457 and Bertach Brothers bid $452 for the same equipment.

POSTPONE HEARING

The hearing of the Pardeck road petition, asking the county commissioners to change the highway, has been postponed until December 6. The petition is signed by Homer Farlow and others. The attorneys for the petitioners are out of the city and could not meet with the board this morning.

NEGLECT CHARGES MADE AGAINST HIATT

On the complaint of his wife that he has refused to support her and her four children, Ed Hiatt, a plasterer, who has been arrested several times for drunkenness, was taken into custody after furnishing $300 bond. He will be arraigned in circuit court on a charge of failure to provide for his family. Hiatt alleges that he has paid her $100 during the past six weeks.

ODDITIES

The English language is spoken by 10 per cent of the world's inhabitants.

Birds of prey generally seek their prey in the daytime, while beasts of prey generally seek theirs at night.

The teeth of the badger are very peculiar, for, instead of resting on each other when the animal's mouth is closed, they fit into each other.
