

WAR MAPS SECRET OF VICTORIES

Extreme Care Used in Marking Down Every Point Showing Strategic Places Envolved in Campaign.

BERLIN, Feb. 16.—In modern warfare, and especially in the present world conflict, accurate maps are the greatest auxiliary of the armies and they play a far more important part in the operations than the general public knows. Without them success is impossible.

These maps are worked out with the infinite care of special departments of the General Staffs of the armies of the different countries.

The first military topographical bureau was established by the General Staff of the Bavarian army nearly a century ago under the direction of General Von Nau, who also became famous as a mathematician and daring mountain climber. Other countries, however, were slow to follow the example of Bavaria. In Prussia an exact topographical survey of the country was not undertaken by the General Staff until 1862. About the same time the leaders of the Austro-Hungarian army became convinced that the maps then in existence were not sufficient for war. The Austrian Topographical Bureau was organized in 1863 under the direction of Capt. Julius von Payer, who later became famous as an Arctic explorer. France waited until longer and as a result, were badly handicapped in the war of 1870-71 by the lack of accurate maps. In this war it is said the French officers were supplied with maps of Germany but not of France.

During the last forty years all the countries are using the same system in the production of the General Staff Maps. The method seems complicated, but is simple enough. First the country is divided into triangles, the corners of which are marked by church steeples, high poles, trees and other landmarks. Every one of these triangles is surveyed separately and again divided up into smaller triangles. The corners of these subdivisions are marked by small square granite blocks which are sunk into the ground so that only their tops are visible.

After the subdivisions have been laid out and marked the officers entrusted with the work draw large maps of every one of them. These maps show the minutest details of the landscape and are then joined together and reproduced on a small scale by expert draughtsmen. In this manner an exact topographical picture of the large triangles, and finally of the whole country is obtained.

The General Maps speak a language of their own. This language is very simple, but must of course, be understood. Every object in the territory covered by the maps is shown by certain signs. Pine woods are marked by little sharp cones, other woods and trees by groups of small circles and dots, elevations by curves which show the heights of the hills, roads by double and foot paths by single lines.

There are certain signs for church steeples, mills, ponds and brooks, and isolated farm houses. Nothing is missing and a man looking at one of these maps and understanding it has the impression of flying over the territory and looking down upon it from a height.

Old Folks Need "Cascarets" For Liver, Bowels

Salts, Calomel, Pills Act on Bowels Like Pepper Acts in Nostrils.

Enjoy Life Don't Stay Bilious, Sick, Headachy and Constipated.

Get a 10-cent box now.
Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic.
And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets.
One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics.
Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store.
They work while you sleep.—Adv.

PANAMA TO OPEN EXPOSITION SOON

PANAMA, Feb. 16.—In the latter part of February the Republic of Panama will open a National Exposition. It commemorates at the same time the completion of the Panama Canal and the achievements of Vasco Nunez de Balboa, who discovered the Pacific from the Isthmus in 1513.

The army transport Logan and other vessels brought to the exposition the best part of the American government exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. William E. Tuttle of New Jersey and Col. Mahlon R. Margerum arranged the display here.

Spain, Cuba and all the Latin-American countries have exhibited in handsome buildings. The grounds are within sight of the heights from which it is said Balboa caught his first glimpse of the Pacific and the Canal can be seen, also. The exhibition will continue through the balmy season.

MAN 115 YEARS OLD WORKS AND SMOKES

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 16.—Claiming to be one of the oldest men alive John Daniel Coleman, senior member of the firm of J. D. Coleman & Son, is still actively engaged in work at the age 115 years. He is a resident of Victor, Fayette county, and always lived in the mountains. He says he was born in 1800. Notwithstanding his advanced age, Mr. Coleman spends most of his week days in his store, making sales and buying country produce. On Sundays he goes to church twice, and in the past seven years has missed only one Sunday on account of illness. A clay pipe is his constant companion. He says he has used tobacco since he was 15 years old.

RED BLOTTCHES DISFIGURED HEAD

Of Little Girl. Itched and Burned.
Caused Scales to Form and Hair

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My little girl's trouble began with red blottches on her head and master came out of these blottches which looked like perspiration. They itched and burned and when she scratched them they would bleed and it caused scales to form. They made her very cranky and at night she would keep me awake. The breaking out caused her hair to fall out and her head was disfigured.

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and then bought more. In less than three weeks her head was entirely healed." (Signed) Mrs. C. M. McCraney, 335 Fairview Ave., St. Paul, Minn., July 13, 1915.

PRIEST IN LONDON SAYS BRITISHERS WORSHIP CHAPLIN

LONDON, Feb. 16.—"Charlie Chaplin is more to some people than Almighty God," said Father Watt, a priest, who is recovering from wounds after a year spent on the battlefield, in a sermon at Alton.

"Although the best blood in the world is being split at the front, a nation here has gotten itself into the clutching hand of the cinematograph shows," he added. "Many people seem to know more about Charlie Chaplin than God. Chaplin is silly, but the people who want to see him are silly."

Meantime attempts are made here to stir a patriotic agitation against American films for the alleged purpose of saving $10,000,000 paid yearly for films imported. The leading film trade papers admit that if the government prohibits American pictures the majority of motion picture theatres will be obliged to close.
