SOCIETY Clubs Teas Dances

St. Patrick's day was chosen for the opening of the beautiful new Country club on the National road, east. The merrymaking at the club house certainly did all honor to the patron saint. The committee which received the guests prior to the evening dance included Mrs. James A. Carr, Mrs. Howard A. Dill, with members of the house furnishing committee, Messedames Paul Comstock, Rudolph G. Leeds, Ray K. Shively in addition to Mrs. Wilbur Hibberd and Mrs. Harry Needham. The entire house is harmoniously and beautifully furnished. The large living room was brightened with Killarney roses. Roses and ferns with house plants were used in decorating the dining room. To the south of the club house is the tea room appointed with gray wicker furnished with old rose draperies and pens to correspond. Smith and Jelly furnished the music for the dancing. Coffee and sandwiches were served.

In the afternoon guests were received at the club from 2 until 5 o'clock. Punch and wafers were served. The following young women in pretty reception gowns, assisted at the tables: Misses Mary Clements, Eleanor Seidel, Anna Nicholson, Dorothy Land, Esther Coate, Josephine Wilson, Ruth Scott and Ruth Pennell.

The Hick's orchestra played during the hours of receiving.
