WHEAT PRICE HIGH AS MARKET OPENS

CHICAGO, March 31.—The wheat market was strong at the start today and prices were $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ c higher. Profit taking was on after the initial rush, and the market reacted sharply. Crop reports continued to be unfavorable, though a few reports showing improvements have come from Illinois. Corn was firm with opening prices $\frac{1}{4}$ c higher. Buying in the corn pit was induced by the upturn in wheat but later eased off when wheat prices dropped. Oats were $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ c lower caused by selling by commission men. Provisions were weak and lower.

With the exception of corn, which closed at advances of $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ c, the entire speculative list ruled lower. By taking of wheat by foreigners in all position in the United States and Canada was estimated at one to two million bushels.

LETS ROAD CONTRACT

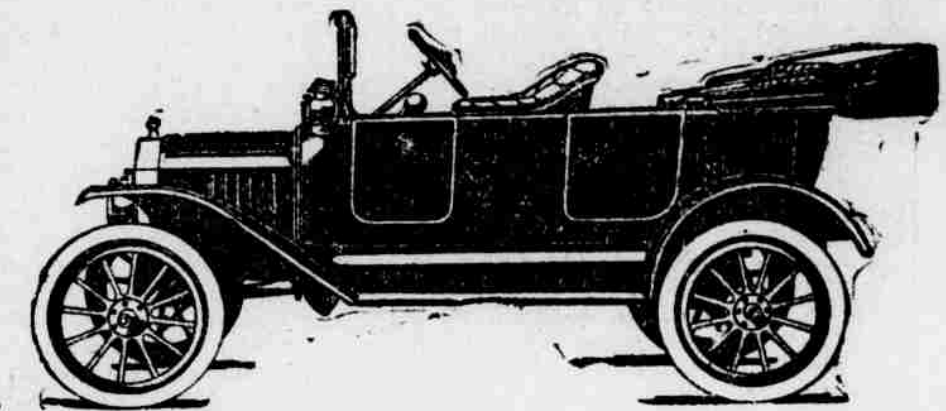

County commissioners will let contract Monday for driving piling in the roads on the Caleb Harvey farm in Center township and on the Kerlin farm in Washington township. The rains and thaws of early spring have made the roads practically impassible. The work of driving the piling was formerly done by jail labor under the direction of road superintendent Jones, but the commissioners have found that this is not satisfactory.
