

Feature Films Movie Houses Offer for Next Week

Coliseum

MONDAY.

Opportunities for exceptionally beautiful photography as well as scenes of absorbing interest, have been taken full advantage of in "Should a Wife Forgive?" which is the next release on the Equitable program at the Coliseum theatre, and will be shown on Monday, May 1. There is a wonderful picture of a dance hall, where Lillian Lorraine as La Belle Rose, the star dancer, attracts the attention of a young business man, who is there with his two chums, one of whom is already in the meshes of the charmer. The manner in which the dancing girl holds the affections of both men is revealed in an exceedingly interesting series of illustrations.

TUESDAY.

When Father Harrigan could not cope with the vicious condition surrounding his flock in an Alaskan district, he sent to New York City for a true reformer. Hendricks went, only to find the place dominated by a woman he had been infatuated with years before in New York. She had a pretty niece who loved Hendricks and he loved her, too, but Myra was in the way. What was the outcome? See "Human Driftwood," a World Film five-part feature, starring the universally popular Robert Warwick, will be seen on the screen of the Coliseum theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday.

FRIDAY.

At the Coliseum theatre, Friday and Saturday will be shown the most noteworthy achievement in the history of motion pictures. But "The Battle Cry of Peace" is more than a motion picture. It is a great national propaganda dealing with the most important problem that has confronted this nation since the Civil war—the problem of America's unpreparedness.

If you have a drop of red blood in your veins, you will experience in witnessing this production a thrill such as you have never known before.

You will see the enemy approaching, the powerlessness of New York, the weakness of its forts and defenses.

You will see the havoc wrought by the enemy's howitzers, submarines, airships; by its shells, shrapnels, and bombs.

You will see the most beautiful skyline in the world in flames, the metropolis of the western hemisphere devastated.

You will see New York fall, the desecration that follows.

Theatorium

MONDAY.

One phase of our government that has always stirred our imagination is the secret service. So little is known about its mysterious workings it never fails to arouse our curiosity to the highest pitch. The dangers encountered by the secret service agents furnish thrill after thrill. In the stirring American-Mutual three-part drama, "The Code of Honor," shown at the Theatorium next Monday, the methods employed by the secret service agents in protecting the national diplomatic secrets are faithfully depicted.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

The lesson in "Protect Us," shown at the Theatorium Thursday and Friday is contained in the youthful experience of four entirely different types of girls.

The first of these is a girl who thinks her parents' ideas are old-fashioned, and who lives in a too strictly regulated home. She is full of youth and is naturally dissatisfied when she is compelled to get all her diversion in the society of her elderly parents. She makes a street acquaintance.

The second victim is the innocent girl compelled to work hard for her living and tiring of the horrible daily grind. Her youth cries out for some relaxation and pleasure, just a taste of the life which others more for-

Arcade

TOMORROW.

Charles Cherry, one of the best known leading men on the American English stage, will make his stellar appearance on the screen at the Arcade theatre tomorrow in the new Equitable five-part picture, "Passers By." This artistic and charming picture is the work of C. Madden Chambers, who also wrote the novel and play of the same name.

The story of "Passers By" deals with a young bachelor who lives in solitude and contemplates upon his shattered romance of some years before. He has been separated from the woman he loves through treachery and deceit. How the lovers are reunited through the benevolent intervention of a London fog, forms the charming and absorbing climax to a series of scenes of real dramatic power.

Lyric

TONIGHT.

With the opening of the baseball season not far distant, "Oh! What a Whopper," at the Lyric tonight, the Big U two-reel baseball comedy, written and produced by Sidney Goldin, with the New York Giants playing some of the principal roles, takes on added interest. The play was staged in New York at the Polo grounds and views of a real ball game with stars of the National league taking part, are a feature of the production.

TOMORROW.

Seldom have the professional reviewers been unanimous in the praise of a picture as they have been in the case of this Red Feather film, "Autumn," at the Lyric tomorrow, with the dainty little star, Violet Mercereau, Lieutenant Percy Richards, the "Man in White," as her leading man, and Clara Beyers and Paul Panzer in important roles. The story was written and produced by O. A. C. Lund, and he has certainly struck twelve. This is the first picture in which Lieutenant Richards, whose health fad of dressing all the year round in white flannel trousers, white silk shirt open at the throat, low white shoes and no hat, has caused him to be one of the most remarkable figures of the ever-changing pageant on the New York streets, has ever appeared. He is six feet four and broad in proportion, while little Miss Mercereau is five feet two.

Palace

TONIGHT.

Al. H. Woods, purveyor of feature drama to the Pathe Gold Rooster program, has contributed one of his most successful legitimate plays, "Big Jim Garrity," for current release. The picture will be shown at the Palace theatre tonight. George Fitzmaurice, the creative artist responsible for such film marvels as "Via Wireless," "At Bay," "New York," etc., has handled "Big Jim" in his most masterly way, and made of it a drama worthy of his name and the Gold Rooster program.

TOMORROW.

Of the several "hit" scenes in the Vitaphone feature film "The Hunted Woman," at the Palace tomorrow, the latest work of James Oliver Curwood, the land-slide that imprisons Joanne and Aldous in a mine required the most elaborate preparation. There was an explosion in the picture in which 100 pounds of powder were used to send a small hill scat-

ABOUT RHEUMATISM.

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply muscular rheumatism due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, which attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. Neither of these varieties require any internal treatment. All you need is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment with vigorous massage. Try it and see how quickly it gives relief. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

What Does Catarrh Mean?

It means inflammation of a mucous membrane somewhere in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, biliary ducts or bowels. It always means stagnant blood—the blood that is full of impurities. Left alone, it extends until it is followed by indigestion, colds, congestion or fever. It weakens the system generally and spreads its operations until systematic catarrh or an acute illness is the result.

PERUNA

Is the nation's reliable remedy for this condition. It restores appetite, aids digestion, checks and removes inflammation, and thus enables the membranes, through which our food is absorbed, to do their work properly. Forty-four years of success, with thousands of testimonials have established it as the home remedy—Ever-Ready-to-Take. Its record of success holds a promise for you.

SUSAN SYNDER, OLDEST PREBLE COUNTY RESIDENT, USES TOBACCO

EATON, O., April 29.—Despite claims of health experts that smoking is an unhealthy habit, Mrs. Susan Synder, who holds the distinction of having lived in the county longer than any other resident, is a user of tobacco. Mrs. Synder, however, does not smoke because it has become a habit, but simply because she believes it is beneficial.

This remarkable woman, a daughter of William and Elizabeth Muntz, pioneers of Preble county, was born ninety-one years ago on a farm just north of Zion Evangelical Lutheran church, five miles north of Eaton. She married Valentine Synder, July 25, 1845, and moved to a farm in the same neighborhood, where she has resided continuously for the last seventy-one years. After a county-wide search, her record stands unexcelled.

Her many years have not borne heavily and Mrs. Synder is as active as many women twenty years her junior. Her memory is remarkable and it is with interest that she recalls incidents when she was a girl. She declares she can hardly comprehend the developments that have been made in the county during the last fifty years. A stately tree standing near her home she recalls as a sapling under which she received the proposal of her husband.

Her husband died November 18, 1872, since which time she has gone through life alone caring for her family. Besides her, children she has looked to the care of two grand children. For these grandchildren and two sons she keeps house and does practically every family duty.

Her children are: Mrs. Ellen Monosmith, Mrs. Louis Lotts and Jacob Synder of Eaton; Richard, Thomas and George Synder, near Eaton; Levin T. Synder, of Holland, Mich., and Peter Synder of Dayton.

NEW PARIS LODGE HONORS BIRTHDAY

NEW PARIS, O., April 29.—The ninety-seventh anniversary of the founding of the I. O. O. F. lodge was observed Thursday night in a fitting manner by the local lodge. Rev. C. S. Grauser of Waynesville, Ohio, former pastor of the local Methodist church delivered the address of the evening and it was one of his best efforts. The great question of the world-wide war was his theme and his advocacy and plea for universal peace touched a popular chord. Home-made cakes and delicious ice cream were served for refreshments. The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and families were the guests and passed a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

TOUCH OFF BLASTS.

NEW PARIS, O., April 29.—The biggest blasts in the history of the Reinheimer Quarry company were touched off Friday. There were 150 pounds of the explosive placed in each hole and over twenty holes were drilled. Some excitement was caused in the afternoon and evening when the cannon-like explosions took place.

THIS MAN HIRES A GARDEN. Have you any perennials in your garden? I don't think so. Are the seeds very expensive?

Poverty may be a sure cure for dyspepsia, but the most of us would rather take chances with the disease than the remedy.

It's a good thing to have a temper if you know how to handle it.
