

Here Are Blows Pastors Struck at Sin

CONGREGATION OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY OF PASTOR

Honoring the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Davis, the congregation of the Second Presbyterian church held a surprise dinner in the basement of the church after the morning service yesterday. The dinner was attended by between 250 and 300 persons.

The Rev. Mr. Davis and wife were escorted to the basement to the strains of a wedding march. During the course of the ceremony, the pastor and his wife were presented with a beautiful set of silverware. Omer Todd presided. Talks were given by Rev. J. J. Rae of the First Presbyterian church, by H. S. Weed and by Clayton Hunt. The services closed with the singing of "Silver Threads Among the Gold," by a quartet composed of Frank Walker, Elmer Hale, Oliver and Paul Overman.

TRESSEL SHOWS LUTHER'S PART

"The place of Luther and the Lutheran Church in the World-wide Distribution of the Bible," was the subject of Rev. Oscar J. F. Tressel's sermon at the evening worship of the Trinity English Lutheran church last night.

"Luther's work in the translation of the Bible is monumental in that it is the only instance in which a single man has translated the Bible into a living language which he himself created and Luther saw that the work of Christianity in the future ages would have a good foundation in the Bible in the language of the people."

The Rev. Mr. Tressel explained that over 300,000,000 copies of the Bible in over 80 languages have been distributed to provide the North American Indians with a Bible in their own language.

SERMON ON MOUNT FORMS CONSTITUTION OF HEAVENLY-HOME

"The 'Sermon on the Mount' was more than a sermon—it was rather a constitution of the Kingdom of Heaven to be established." This was a statement of Rev. L. E. Murray at the evening service of the First Christian church last night.

"It states in a general way the character of the Kingdom, the advantages it offers, and the condition of citizenship. Citizenship depends not on race or place or power, but on character. It is not a question as to who you are but what you are. The favored are not a kind of moral aristocracy, but the lowest and most fortunate have equal access to its privileges. Those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, who have aspirations partake of its blessings. If we should strive as earnestly to be what we ought to be as we do to get what we want, the earth would speedily become a moral paradise."

ONLY ONE VOLUME CONTAINS APPEAL TO HUMAN HEART

The Bible, as the only book that has an appeal to the human heart, was the subject of the sermon of Rev. Raymond Isley, pastor of the Second English Lutheran church Sunday evening. The service was held in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the formation of the American Bible Society.

"No matter in what language the Bible is translated," said Rev. Isley, "it has the same effect on the heart. It is the revelation of God to man."

MISSION FOR MEN OPENS AS SERVICE FOR WOMEN CLOSES

Mission of the Dominican fathers for women closed at the St. Mary's Catholic church at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon with Papal benediction. Services for men started at 7:30 o'clock last night and will continue every night and morning throughout the week.

Father Ripple had charge of the closing service for the women. He gave a general outline of the work and purpose of the Mission. The Mission here has been very successful according to Father Ripple, who complimented the women of Richmond for their zeal and earnestness. Every meeting of the mission was larger than the preceding one.

MURRAY ADVOCATES DAY FOR FATHERS

"I believe that in the near future Fathers' day will be celebrated just as Mothers' day is at present." This was an expression by Rev. L. E. Murray this morning.

He explained that the First Christian church had planned somewhat to observe next Sunday evening at Fathers' evening following the observance of Mothers' day in the morning but that such a celebration had been postponed until fall because few fathers get out to the evening church services in this kind of weather.

The Rev. Mr. Murray said that although Fathers' day might not receive the official attention that Mothers' day does that it would be eventually recognized. "The Y. M. C. A. movement to bring fathers and sons closer together is simply a step toward the observance of such a day. I believe that fathers feel slighted and they have a right to."

CHANGE CORNERSTONE

Because of changes in location of the corner stone of the West Richmond Friends' church, it will be impossible to lay the stone next Thursday afternoon as announced in the church service yesterday. Prof. E. P. Trueblood announced the foregoing this morning. The corner stone will be placed higher up on the building than was originally planned.

After "e" the most frequently used vowel in our alphabet, come "a," "i," "o," "u," respectively.

SOCIETY MOCKS CHRIST, SAYS STOVALL

Rev. W. O. Stovall spoke on "Mocking the Christ" at the evening service at the First Baptist church yesterday. He told how all grades of society united in the carnival of spite while Christ was on the cross. The crowd cried "Save Thy Self." The world looks in contempt at a man that looks after himself at the expense of his fellowmen. The Rev. Stovall pointed out the men who saved themselves in the Titanic as examples of this.

HOLDS CONFERENCE.

The quarterly congregational meeting of the Trinity English Lutheran church will be held in the church next Sunday afternoon. Rev. Oscar J. F. Tressel said this morning that only routine business was scheduled to come up before the meeting.

20 DEAF PERSONS SEE GOOD SERMON

Services for deaf mutes of Richmond were held at the First Christian church last night at 7:30 o'clock. They are conducted the first Sunday evening of each month in the basement of the church by a visiting deaf mute pastor. Rev. L. E. Murray said this morning about 20 attend the services and that they seldom miss a meeting.

OBSERVES BIBLE DAY

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning. In the evening, Rev. Harry C. Harman spoke upon the subject, "The Holy Bible." The sermon was an historical sketch of the composition of the Bible. The service was in observance of the centennial anniversary of the organization of the American Bible Society.

BIBLE LEADS ALL BOOKS IN LARGE CIRCULATION

Extracts from the sermon on "The World's Greatest and Best Book," by Rev. E. E. Davis, at the Second Presbyterian church are as follows:

Next to preaching from the Bible I like to preach about the Bible. Not that it needs my defense, but to help you to get out of your minds any false notions you may have, and come to see and appreciate the Book at its real value.

It has the greatest circulation, by far, of any book published. Since the art of printing has made extensive circulation possible, it has been sent forth in more than five hundred languages and dialects. Beside the Bible, if we can safely judge from its circulation and testimony of publishers and book-sellers, is constantly growing in favor. Of all the books that pour forth from the press about one out of three survives a three year term of life, while the Bible has not only survived through the centuries, but is constantly growing in favor.

It contains a revelation from God, to man, giving information no where else to be found. It inspires knowledge the world needs and has longed for. It does not give mere theories, about matters of vital interest, but facts. It gives knowledge concerning God, man, his duty and destiny, sin and its consequences, and God's remedy for sin.

BIBLE GIVES RULES FOR SOCIAL CONDUCT

"The Bible contains the principles of correct social life," said Rev. U. S. A. Bridge at the Grace M. E. church yesterday.

"No man liveth unto himself. There are social obligations on all. No one is free from responsibility. Society is an organism consisting of certain social units, social groups and institutions. These occupy certain places, perform certain functions and must work in certain relations. We are learning very much these days. We are discovering that the Bible is a social text book, an encyclopedia of social principles. So long it was thought of as a religious work only. We need to rub our eyes several times to make sure that we see aright, and we do. We are finding that its social deliverances are very close to religion. Indeed, there is no genuine religion without social applications."

MINISTERS PREACH ON POET'S THOUGHTS

Several ministers, following the suggestion of the Shakespeare Festival committee, used last Sunday as Shakespeare Memorial day. Dr. J. J. Rae is expecting to keep the poet's name before his people by using as a theme at each vesper service in May a phrase from the well-known lines of the banished duke in "As You Like It," "Tongues in trees, books in running brooks, sermons in stones, and good in everything." In a variety of ways, Richmond, in common with many other cities of the country, will do honor to the greatest name in English literature in this year, the three hundredth, since the poet's death.

CHURCH BOARD METS.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Sunday school board of the Grace M. E. church will be held Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock. Probable arrangements for children's day will be completed at this meeting. Rev. U. S. A. Bridge said this morning.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 502 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.
