STOPS HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO

Drives Away Rheumatic Pains and Reduces Swollen Joints Speedily—Splendid for Pleurisy, Tonsillitis and Bronchitis

You can't beat Begy's Mustardine. It's the original mustard preparation that doctors have been prescribing for 15 years and it is guaranteed by your druggist to do exactly as advertised or money back.

"Feels Like the Top of My Head Was Blowing Off"

Just rub it on and sore throat, coughs and chest colds go over night. A 25 cent box is equal to 50 blistering mustard plasters, yet Begy's Mustardine will not blister the tenderest skin. Use it for any ache or pain: for sprains, sore muscles, stiff neck, and sore, aching feet. It's the most marvelous popular remedy on the market today and your druggist will gladly show you a box. Ask him. Be sure it's Begy's Mustardine in the yellow box—25 and 50 cents.—Adv.

TEA ROOM ARRANGED AT ANTIQUE EXHIBIT

FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., May 19.—Mr. J. W. Shoemaker and wife were the guests of George Cockerel near New Paris the past week. The young people are taking advantage of the beautiful evenings. Among the several events was the camp supper south of town Thursday evening. The invited guests were Celia Barnes, Esther Brook, Reba Showalter, Gladys, Study, Zella Lacey, Echo Roland, Naomi Dwiggins, Naomi Edgerton, Katherine, Maria and Helen Pegg, Olive Hunt, Ada Alexander, Grace Brennan, Irma Thorp, Myrtle Wooters and Ruth Hunt. "Wake Up, America!" The Big Patriotic Song Success

AS stirring as a call to arms, bearing the message of "preparedness" with which the country is ringing today. Every red blooded-American will want this Columbia Record—especially with the coupled attraction of "Good Bye, Good Luck, God Bless You," Ernest R. Ball's latest hit, sung by the brilliant composer of "Mother Machree," himself.

Al Jolson's hit from the New York Winter Garden, "Where Did Robinson Crusoe Go with Friday on Saturday Night" and George H. O'Connor's comic song success, "Oh Joe, With Your Fiddle and Bow" are two other star performances from twenty great new popular hits listed among the

New Records for June

There is unusual variety in this month's list of records, ranging from sparkling light opera airs like "Kiss Me Again" from "Mlle. Modiste" to the solemn magnificence of compositions like the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah." These four records taken from the list, including by far the most perfect quartette recordings so far achieved, would make

New Recordings by Great Concert Artists

Graveure sings with poetic feeling Tom Moore's song "She is Far From the Land"; Kathleen Parlow plays Drigo's "Serenade" and Dvorak's "Indian Lament in G Minor" with insight and shining artistry; Marie Sundelius delights her admirers with two more lovely ballads; Henri Scott and Godowsky add four gems to their repertoire—a veritable feast of art.

Then there are eight rhythmic, swinging dance records ("They Didn't Believe Me," from "The Girl from Utah," is one of the best); the first records by H. M. Grenadier Guards, England's greatest band; accordion novelties; orchestral gems; comic, sacred and trio records (two of them by the Trio de Lutece)—altogether a list to make you eager to see your dealer this month.
