GUARDING AUTO TRANSPORT IN MEXICO.

The refusal of President Wilson to accede to Carranza's request for the withdrawal of American troops has created much hostile sentiment below the border and the punitive expedition under General Pershing is liable to be attacked at any moment.

RECRUITING AIDED BY WAR PROSPECT

"I expect this Mexican trouble to prove quite a stimulant to recruiting," said Sergeant Bond at the local recruiting station today. "About a dozen young men inquired about the service this morning, and I believe that at least half of that number will sign up within the next few days. It will take some time for them to get their personal affairs straightened up. "All men who are taken will be sent to the front as soon as they can be whipped into shape at the Columbus barracks. Six weeks should be the maximum required of a man at Columbus during these times of excitement."
