RED CROSS SOCIETY WANTS MORE MONEY

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 12.—Three thousand members are to be sought for membership in the Indianapolis Red Cross society, William Fortune, president, announced today following an organization meeting last night. Each member will pay a fee of $1. The preliminary steps of organization were taken in response to a hurry-up call from the national headquarters of the society.

BUSHEL OF PEACHES WEIGHS 48 POUNDS

Typographical errors stated last night that a bushel of peaches weighed 38 pounds, when the correct amount required by law is 48 pounds to the bushel of peaches. Inquirer of Weights and Measures M. K. Kirby has urged that housewives in their purchase of peaches insist upon getting the full 48 pounds to the bushel.

BOILER ROOM BURNS.

A fire in the boiler room at the C. and W. Kramer company's saw mill, West Richmond, Monday proved a difficult blaze for the firemen to subdue, but the loss was very small. A spark from the boiler furnace started a blaze in the top of the room near the roof. The blaze did not get through the roof, however.

NOTICE TO ROAD CONTRACTORS.

STATE OF INDIANA, County of Wayne, ss:
Before the Board of Commissioners of Wayne county, Indiana, July term, 1916.

In the matter of the petition of John D. Nixon, et al., for the improvement of Highway in Center Township.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Commissioners of Wayne County, State of Indiana, at the office of the county auditor of said county and the court room of said board of said county, at the court house of Wayne county, Indiana, at the City of Richmond, thereof until eleven o'clock a. m., of Thursday, August 3d, 1916, for the improvement of highway petitioned for by John D. Nixon, et al., in Center township, Wayne county, Indiana.

Such construction shall be done only upon written contract being entered into of form as set out in Commissioners Record of date July 8, 1916, and all bidders must familiarize themselves with the terms of said contract before submitting bid, the same terms in part being additional to the other specifications of and for construction work. A full and detailed and complete description of the said improvement and the manner of making of the grade, of the draining of the cement surfacing and paving and construction as set out in the report of viewers and engineer and the plans and specifications and profile therefor being now on file in the office of the county auditor of said county as ordered and approved by the said board.

Bidder shall with and as a part of his proposal, state the price at which he will undertake and complete any additional work contemplated under the provisions of contract form referred to.

Bidders are further notified that at same time and place, bids are being received for four additional contracts for improvements of like character in immediate vicinity, and so located that work might progress on all at same time, and bidders are at liberty to, and are invited to submit as a part of proposal, propositions in amendment to original bid stating what, if any deduction or pro rate reductions will be made upon the proposal for this work, if additional contracts are awarded bidder.

The bidder shall submit with his bid his bond payable to the State of Indiana, in the penal sum equal to double the sum of his proposal with good and sufficient sureties to the approval of the Board of Commissioners, the same such bond being conditioned in strict compliance with the provisions of Section 74 of "An Act Concerning Highways," of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, approved March 8, 1905, and all acts amendatory and supplemental thereto, and also shall such bond be conditioned in accordance with the terms of "An Act Concerning Public Buildings and Public Improvement Contracts," etc., of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, approved March 4, 1911, and all acts amendatory and supplemental thereto.

The Board of Commissioners of said County of Wayne reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of Commissioners of Wayne county, Indiana, July 8, 1916.
