WHEAT STARTS WILD
ON WEATHER NEWS

CHICAGO. July 27.—General commission house buying and a rush of shorts to cover made the wheat market a wild one at the start today, with the result that prices covered a range of 4 1/4c. September started off at 4c over yesterday's close, and an advance of 3c in Minneapolis started heavy buying. Commission house selling, however, carried prices off 4c within a few minutes. Higher cables and increasingly alarming reports from the northwest and Canada also had an effect. Manitoba reports conditions worse than have been reported, and hot weather in the Dakotas all helped the flurry. One ticker service sent out a statement from the northwest that news is so sensational that commission houses are not giving it out. Corn advanced 1/4c over yesterday's close, but it was purely a weather market. Outside buying showed an increase. Oats showed only a slight advance.

Gains were shown in the wheat market of 3 1/4c to 4 cents. There was heavy profit taking on the highest levels of the session, and it caused partial setbacks. The sensational advances at Minneapolis and Winnipeg were the principal bullish helps at Chicago late in the session. Corn closed 1/4c to 1c higher and oats were 3/4c to 1c higher. Hog products showed but little change for the day.
