BOND IS SATISFIED WITH RECRUITING

Richmond is one of the few larger cities of the state where a recruiting station for National Guardsmen is not to be maintained. Sergeant Bond of the United States army is very well satisfied over this arrangement. So far this month he has enlisted 12 men for the regulars at the local recruiting station, equalling his July record. He would not like to have competition with the National Guard.

The new law permitting the enlistment of boys 15 years of age or older without the consent of parents or guardians has greatly stimulated recruiting and we are getting more recruits now than we did when the war fever was at its height," the sergeant said today.

LUTHERANS TO RAISE MISSIONARIES' WAGE AT SYNOD SESSION

Lutheran missions throughout the United States and Canada, 110 in number, are to be put upon a firmer foundation and missionaries' salaries are to be increased.

The Joint Synod of Ohio and other states at Sandusky yesterday set aside $60,000 to be used for the purpose under the direction of the Board of Missions, headquarters of which are at Columbus.

So much routine business claimed attention today that action in the matter of Ohio missionaries barred from India by the British Government and awaiting instructions at Manila was postponed.

GREAT AUDIENCE HEARS ADDRESS BY MRS. CURRY

Mrs. Mabel Dunlap Curry, one of the best known campaign speakers for the cause of woman's suffrage in the United States, delivered the address last night at Ninth and Main streets under auspices of the Wayne County Franchise League. A crowd of several hundred persons, mostly men, furnished an enthusiastic audience.

Mrs. Curry spoke from a automobile decorated with yellow suffrage streamers and bearing a large "Votes for Women" sign. She was accompanied by Miss Esther Griffin White, Sixth District chairman, and Mrs. Nell Barnard, chairman of the Wayne County Franchise League.

Women are coming to their rights. Last night several girls who are camping at chautauqua followed the example which has previously been set by the boys and walked through the grounds, filling the air with "harmony."

The fair sex sure does fall for a man in uniform. Last evening, most of the Boy Scouts who are camping at chautauqua, were escorting pretty little lassies through the tented city.

Look what the chautauqua has done for Economy. The correspondent writes as follows: "Why is it that I don't send in more news? Because there is no one in town to write about, all are at the chautauqua in Richmond."

Virgil Cranor leaned too far back in his chair in front of a certain young woman's tent on Maple street, chautauqua grounds, last night. It went over.

WITH THE CAMPERS

Hawkins reports that the craze for swimming has hit the chautauqua campers. The cool weather was no hindrance to his business. Early morning swims are most popular.

Miss Maybe Beautiful, who is camping at chautauqua, reports that she has discovered a means of keeping one's nose from getting sunburned while one is acquiring tan.

All a girl has to do is to blacken her nose with burnt cork. The black prevents burning by keeping heat rays from the skin.

"Absolutely the only objection to this," she says, is the fact that the blackened nose seems to cause even more comment than a red one."

with him putting him on his back, heels in the air; the chair on top of him. But no one knew it was an accident. With rare presence of mind, he turned another summersault on the ground. Then all the other guests thought he had fallen out of his chair on purpose to entertain them.

What they are going to do after school starts is the principal subject of conversation among the young campers at chautauqua.

No slick floors are needed when a dance is pulled off at the chautauqua. The victrola is started on some suitable record and the rough and rolling ground as far as the music can be heard serves as the ball room floor. These impromptu dances are nightly affairs.
