GRAIN OPENS WEAK; TRADING IS SLOW

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Despite stronger cables and the bullish government report all grains were weak on the opening of the board today. Wheat started with a rush of selling, 1/4c to 1/2c lower. Commission houses sold freely and there was only fair buying support.

Corn was weak and fractionally lower. Bears and pit longs made free offerings, which brought a break of 1/4c in distant futures at the start. There was only scattered buying on the break.

The pit element in oats was bearish and there was free selling at the start.

Provisions were steady to a shade off. This was an evening-up day in wheat with the long ahead of sellers, and the buying cautious, with net price declines of 2 1/2c to 2 3/4c for the day.

Corn closed 1/4c to 1/2c lower and oats were off 1/4c to 1c.

The market for hog products was quite irregular and unsettled. September pork closed 40c higher, while January was off 60c and October off 5c. Lard was irregular, with September selling 7 1/2c higher and the more deferred months 10c lower. Ribs showed a decline of 5c to 7 1/2c.

POLICE THINK DRUG WAS GIVEN GIRL

The young woman found wandering about the streets late Thursday night, dazed from the effects of cocaine, and taken to Reid hospital for treatment, has informed the police that her name is Anna Fisher, and that she has been a resident of Richmond several weeks, coming here from Indianapolis.

"I believe the girl was drugged," City Physician Huffman said today. "I believe the cocaine was placed in a glass of beer. I detected a slight odor of intoxicants on her breath. She has not told us very much about herself. She tried to give the impression that she can not remember distinctly what happened to her Thursday night. She says she remembers of being with two men and a woman. She also says she believes she had something to drink. I believe the girl took between fifteen and eighteen grains of cocaine."

BUYS STARR HOME FOR SANITARIUM

Purchase of the residence of W. F. Starr, 205 North Tenth street, president of the John W. Grubbs Wholesale Grocery company, by Dr. W. L. Misener, 201 North Eighth street, to be used as a private sanitarium which will be conducted by Dr. Misener, was announced today. The consideration was not made public. The residence is one of the largest in the city and one of Richmond's landmarks. "I will take possession of the property about November 8 and will conduct a private sanitarium, giving the Battle Creek treatments," Dr. Misener said. "The interior of the building will be remodeled and I will be able to accommodate about twenty patients at a time. I will be assisted by a graduate Battle Creek sanitarium nurse. I believe there is a need for such an institution in Richmond."

WORKERS THREATEN SYMPATHETIC STRIKE TO ASSIST CARMEN

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The Central Federated Union, representing approximately 750,000 men and women workers, today authorized the appointment of a committee with full power to call a general sympathetic strike in all trades if such action is deemed necessary to help the striking traction employees gain recognition of their union in the struggle with the Interborough Rapid Transit and New York Railways company.

This action was taken after an all-night session at the labor temple during which the traction companies were assailed for their threat to destroy the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electrical Railway employees.

vote in favor of the $180,000 appropriation for the new slanting structure." Mr. Bockhoff is reported to have told the commissioners.

The votes of Mr. Bockhoff and Jesse Druley killed the appropriations for both the Main street and South G street bridges when they came before the council this week.

One Follower Needed.

Gus Hoelscher, county attorney, informed the commissioners today that if these two men defeat the appropriations in emergency sessions, it will be necessary for them to secure one follower.

A. C. Lindemuth who was active all through the summer as an advocate of a level bridge today declined to indicate what course the level Main street bridge advocates will take now since the appropriation for a slanting bridge has been turned down.

In the fall election two commissioners will be elected. William Cheesman is a candidate on the Republican ticket for re-election. There are two candidates for the place on the board which will be left by Doddridge.

Support Is Promised.

Although he has made no open statements to the effect, it is reported that another candidate who will run against Mr. Cheesman is a level bridge man. It is also understood that the level bridge advocates have visited both the leading candidates for Doddridge's post with the understanding that the man in favor of a level bridge will receive the support of the faction.

Apparently level bridge advocates are merely postponing the appropriations for the Main Street bridge until the change in officials has been made. Definite action by the county commissioners on the Main street bridge proposition was postponed all summer because of various moves which the level bridge advocates made.

When the county council met this week, the level bridge advocates appeared before the members and asked them not to appropriate for the bridge until an expert had been brought here to investigate the situation. Had this petition been granted, it would have been several weeks before the appropriation could have been brought before the county council again. It is only eight weeks until the election.

Advocates Level Bridge

Mr. Cheesman does not accuse Mr. Bockhoff of being in league with the level bridge advocates in this proposition. However, Mr. Bockhoff is a level bridge advocate.

"If Druley and Bockhoff voted against the appropriation because they had conscientious objections to it, which from appearances they did, I honor them for it," said Cheesman.

Deputy Surveyor Horton said today that if it is the game of the level bridge advocates to postpone the passage of the Main street bridge appropriation until after the election, they have a difficult proposition on their hands for the commissioners cannot be delayed very long from calling for the special session.

Little was said about the South G street bridge today. It is the general supposition of the commissioners that as soon as the Main street bridge situation is settled, the South Side bridge will care for itself. The county commissioners have announced that they will not vote in favor of asking for the repair of the present structure. County Attorney Hoelscher has informed them that the interurban company cannot be prevented from running its cars across it and the bridge cannot be repaired strong enough for this.

SUES PILOT PLANT ON MOTOR CONTRACT

Damages of $400 are asked by Raymond A. Smith from the United Motor Car and Tire company. A. W. Sieglaff, Charles W. Knebel, Victor Drummond, Fay Sieglaff and the Pilot Motor Car company in a suit filed in the Circuit court today.

The plaintiff charges that he entered into a contract with the Pilot Motor Car company as an agent and promised to purchase a certain number of cars from the company during the summer season this year. He was required to deposit $400 with the company to insure the contract. This was to be returned to the dealer in case he filled his share of the contract. In June Mr. Smith claims to have ordered two cars from the company in accordance to the contract but claims that they were not delivered. This it is claimed broke the contract between him and the company.

COMMISSION

ule of rates, tolls and charges hereinabove set forth and orders and directs that said schedule of rates, tolls and charges shall be effective from and after September 9, 1910.

In part the commission's rate increase order reads as follows:

"Natural gas has been a continued menace and a destructive competitor of this property from 1899 to the date, except for the years 1910, 1911, 1912 and 1913. When natural gas had, as a witness says, again knocked at the city's gates, there was nothing to do but bid it enter. How long it will remain is not capable of definite determination. When it was found in Indiana in abundance, our people believed the supply was both constant and unfailing. Its subsequent behavior defied scientific prognostications. It vanished as it came, literally unheralded and unannounced. The West Virginia supply is being no doubt more intelligently husbanded. Yet no man can forecast the time of its duration.

"Those who have money invested in a utility ought not to be required to carry the entire hazard of an investment, that from time to time may be impaired as science unlocks the storehouse of nature. If this plant had been owned by the municipality the public's investment would have suffered the same distress as has the investment of the private citizens in this utility. If it had been built with the proceeds of the sale of bonds, the bonds would have been there and the city's credit would have been behind them.

In any event, whether this reasoning

GIVE HOWARD BENEFIT

For the benefit of Burton Howard, brother of Wesley Howard, who will enter Harvard University shortly, a musical and literary program will be given at the Bethel M. George Henderson is chairman of the committee which is arranging the entertainment.

be correct or otherwise, we are not disposed to throw all the loss arising from the situation on the investors. The producing artificial plant of the petitioner may be called into active service at any time. We have determined to regard it as a part of the property upon which the Company is entitled to a fair return.

The history of this plant shows that its unfortunate career is due in part, at least, to conditions over which it had no control. It may have sinned previously, but its sinning did not produce natural gas. Natural gas has been the millstone about the neck of this utility. It has had losses practically throughout its entire career that have never been compensated by excessive earnings. It is entitled, under any theory of the law to an allowance for going value. This we have fixed at $35,000.00. It is also entitled to working capital. Working capital, above material and supplies, is capable of an approximate determination. It ought to be allowed a working capital above material and supplies of about six weeks of its operating expenses for the year. We think $10,000.00 would be a reasonable allowance for working capital. An examination of all the evidence and of all the appraisements leads us to believe that the staff's valuation of this property is a fair and reasonable valuation. After allowing $35,000.00 for going value and $10,000.00, for working capital, we determine and by order fix the value of the property of the Richmond Light, Heat and Power Company, that is used and useful for the convenience of the public at $450,000.00. We also find that a proper and adequate depreciation account to be carried by the Richmond Light, Heat and Power company, and determine that such depreciation account can be reasonably required.

It is therefore ordered by The Public Service Commission of Indiana,

That the Richmond Light, Heat and Power Company, shall conform its depreciation account to the rate hereinabove ascertained and determined by the Commission.

Revenues Required.
We are satisfied that $102,000.00 is a sufficient allowance for operating expense, and that this Company should be permitted to earn 7% on the value of its property. It has competition with the municipal light plant for light service. Coal is abundant and reasonable in price. It can not be said to have a complete monopoly. Such rates are required as will yield the following sums of money:
Operating expense $102,000
Depreciation 9,600
Taxes 8,000
Return on investment $1,500

Total $150,500
The earnings for the year ending December 31, 1915, as found by our accountants were $125,505.15. This leaves a deficiency of about $25,000. An estimate of the earnings of an increased rate can be only a rough approximation. The results can be determined only by an actual trial of the rate as established. We have determined to order the Company to put in force the following schedule of rates and discounts.
