A RICHMOND INTERVIEW.

Mr. Morris Tells His Experience. The following brief account of an interview with a Richmond man over seven years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

J. W. Morris, proprietor meat market, 421 Main street, Richmond, says: "I suffered from backache for several years, the attacks at times being so severe that I could hardly straighten up. I was told it was lumbago. The kidney secretions were sometimes profuse and then again scanty in passage, making it plain that my kidneys were affected. I began doctoring, but it was not until I had taken several different medicines without success that I chanced on Doan's Kidney Pills. I used three boxes and was cured of my backache."

The above statement was given on Dec. 12, 1908, and on Sept. 15, 1915, Mr. Morris said: "Since giving a former recommendation for Doan's Kidney Pills, I have had but few occasions to use them. When I have, they have never failed to relieve me."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't imply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Morris has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.

Teaching a Camel How to Hurdle

TEACHING A CAMEL TO JUMP.

Hundreds of these sturdy animals have supplanted horses as mounts for the British and Indian troops in the Egyptian campaign. They are trained along the same lines as are cavalry mounts, the work in this respect being left entirely to the Indian troopers, recognized as the foremost riders of the world. The photograph shows a camel taking a hedge, one of the initial "stunts" of the "breaking in" procedure.

BOWMAN NAMES TEMPORARY CHAIRMEN

L. S. Bowman has turned over his duties as Republican county chairman to George Matthews and Paul Comstock until after registration, October 9. As auditor Mr. Bowman has about all that he can care for getting things arranged for the registration.

Registration supplies have arrived and they were distributed to the various inspectors today.

Soap is 33 cents a pound in Germany.

NAME NEW INSPECTORS

For the fall election it will be necessary for the county commissioners to appoint new inspectors. The general opinion that the same officials who act at the registration, October 9, will also act at the election is wrong.

WAYNE SIMMONS, 5, FINALLY GETS HOME WITH HIS MOTHER

Herein related are some of the recent experiences of Wayne Simmons, aged 5.

When his mother, the divorced wife of Carl Simmons, this city, went to live with a family in Urbana, O., they promoted her marriage with a man named Offenbacher, previously influencing the woman to send little Wayne to live with his great-grandmother, Mrs. G. Hilling of this city, fearing that Offenbacher might terminate the romance if he learned that his intended bride was a mother. Later the marriage occurred.

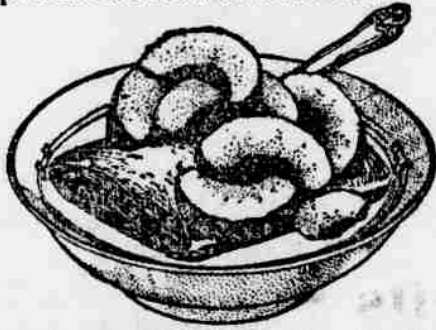

Then Mrs. Offenbacher came to Richmond and took her young son to live with her mother, Mrs. Cora Hilling, Ft. Wayne avenue.

One day this week while young Wayne was playing in the yard of his grandmother's home his grandfather, Ed. Hilling, described by the police as one of Richmond's most "worthless" citizens, who is divorced from his wife, Mrs. Cora Hilling, put in an appearance. He took Wayne in his arms—then took to flight. The kidnapped five-year-old and his grandfather were next heard from in Rushville, where Hilling was arrested on a charge of taking a child away from its parent. He is now in city jail awaiting trial. Young Wayne has been restored to his mother.
