Profits Increased on the Farm.

M. A. R. Kelley, of the Missouri College of Agriculture believes in thrift on the farm. His advice to the farmers of his state has meant thousands of dollars added to the wealth of that commonwealth. In a recent communication he argues for the right kind of attention to farm implements. Here's what he has to say:

The harvest is over. Every machine and implement which is not in use should be under cover. The fall rains plant the seeds of rust, which are harvested by the manufacturers of farm machinery.

The average life of farm machinery in this country is short, entirely too short, and for years has caused an enormous annual loss to the farmers, and large profits for the manufacturer. The best machinery will wear out in time, but the life of any implement depends primarily upon the care it has received and the facility and ability of the farmer to do repair work.

The implements used on the farm represent a large investment, and this investment increases yearly. Every year that can be added to their life represents profit. This is the age of the "iron horse," and unless we take care of our machinery the annual loss is going to increase enormously.

Every farmer should study his machine and see where he can increase its efficiency. Oil is cheaper than repairs and new tools, and when properly used will reduce the friction and increase the life of the machine.

If the binder has not already been housed, it should be done, as soon as possible. During a trip across the state last winter, the writer counted seven binders out in the field within a radius of fifty miles, and some of them were new machines. Under such treatment a binder will not last more than three years. Then the total yearly loss on these machines, whose cost was about $900, would amount to $33. This is more than the yearly profit on some farms. With proper care the same machines could have been made to last ten or fifteen years.

A high polish on the moldboard is of far more value than that acquired in high society. When you are through with your plow this fall cover the moldboard with any heavy grease that will keep the air away from it and put it away. This will keep the plow from rusting and can be easily removed. The same treatment to the disc harrow and cultivator shovels will protect them.

The farm machinery is only used for a short period, but must work continuously when being used. Hence it must be in good running order and properly adjusted.

When buying a new machine keep in mind these four words: Simplicity, Reliability, Durability and Accessibility. Then if the machine is given proper care, long life and greater profits are insured. Use plenty of oil and grease.

With the Reel People

The Moroso Photoplay Company could not find the type of Italian fruit and grocery store that they needed to suit the requirements in their latest production "Pasquale," at the Murrette tomorrow, and so they built a complete store.

When moving pictures are taken at the studios they are designated by the name of the director and the number of the picture before a title is fitted to them. After filming each scene an assistant holds before the camera a slate on which is written in white this designation.

This was done in "Under Two Flags," the new Fox picture which J. G. Edwards directed, at the Murrette tonight.

When the rich American women purchased the castle and estates at Longueval the French peasants were terrified, in fear that their means of a livelihood would be closed. But when Mrs. Scott and her sister Bettina arrived they were so gracious and liberal that they won every heart. Bettina in particular made the conquest of an humble heart—a man too modest to speak. Titles galore were thrown at Bettina's feet—but "Bettina Loved a Soldier," and under this caption there will be a Bluebird photoplay exhibited at the Washington theatre tonight, which will offer a most delightful entertainment imaginable.

O'BRIEN COLLECTS HIS BEST TALENT IN LATEST SHOW

Coming to the Washington Wednesday night, Oct. 4, will be Nell O'Brien and her Great American Minstrels, now recognized as the leading organization of its kind in this country, with an entirely new production this year and with novelties in every department. This will be the fifth season of Mr. O'Brien with the organization which bears his name and both he and his manager, Mr. Oscar F. Hodge, promise that all previous efforts will be outdone.

MRS. MAY'S LETTER to WOMEN

More Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a bad case of female ills. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and I took about six bottles. It fixed me up all right. The common symptoms of such a condition—pain when walking, irritation, bearing down pains and backache, nervousness and disordered digestion—soon passed away. I look much better now than I did before, and I recommend the Compound every time for female troubles, as it did for me all it is claimed to do. You have my permission to publish this letter." Mrs. J. MAY, 3545 S. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill.

If you have any of the symptoms mentioned in Mrs. May's letter, remember what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and try it yourself. It is a good old-fashioned medicine, made from roots and herbs, and it has helped countless numbers of women.

If you need special advice, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by woman, and held in strict confidence.

—after you clean them.
You will find, in all probability, an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding between the crevices. YOUR DENTIFRICE does not FULLY CLEAN! Loss of teeth is caused usually by one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or decay, both of which develop, as a rule, only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.
SENRECO, the recently discovered formula of a dental specialist, is two-fold in its action. First, it REALLY CLEANS embodying specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Second, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Yet it is perfectly safe, containing neither injurious chemicals nor hard grit.
Avoid Pyorrhea and decay. Get Senreco from your dealer. In large tubes, 25c. Send 4c to Senreco, 304 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, for liberal-sized trial package.
