An auspicious social function in club circles for Friday was the luncheon given at 1 o'clock at the Arlington Hotel for members of the Athenaeum Literary society and a few guests. This was the initial meeting of the year and proved to be one of the most charming and pleasant events in the history of the club. The tables were beautiful with decorations of fall flowers and ferns. Candles capped with dainty shades were also used in the appointments. Luncheon was served to forty-four guests. Mrs. N. S. Cox, the retiring president, made a few brief remarks previous to the luncheon and during the courses several toasts were given. Mrs. Francis Ancombe and Mrs. Garwood Iredell made brief talks. After the luncheon Mrs. Cox presented the gavel to Mrs. John H. Johnson, the new president. Mrs.

Johnson made a splendid talk after the luncheon and discussed the plans for the year's work. In the absence of Mrs. Belle Baily, Miss Fannie Horrell gave several readings. The guests were Mrs. George Ballinger, Mrs. W. A. Bond, Mrs. S. Edgar Nicholson with her sister, Mrs. Frank Helms of Attica, Indiana; Mrs. Frank Coffin, Mrs. N. S. Cox, Mrs. W. L.
