ARCHBISHOP HANNA TO BE CARDINAL

Dr. Edward J. Hanna, archbishop of the diocese of San Francisco, was born in Rochester, N. Y., on July 21, 1860. He entered the American College in Rome in 1879 and completed his course there in 1886. The next year he returned to America and was given a place at the Rochester Cathedral. In 1893 he was appointed to the chair of dogmatic theology at St. Bernard's Seminary, just opened. Pope Pius X, in 1912, created him auxiliary archbishop of San Francisco with the title of Bishop of Agatopolis. On May 29, 1915, he was appointed archbishop by Pope Benedict XV.

MISSION DOES GOOD

NEW PARIS, O., Oct. 24.—The mission held the past week at St. John's Catholic church by Rev. Finnerty, Dominican Father, was well-attended and resulted in much spiritual good for the local parish, of which Rev. Father Joseph Hyland is parish priest. Services were held daily at 5:00 a. m., 8:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The papal blessing was given Friday evening by the missionary as well as receiving the vows of the men of the parish who joined the Holy Name Society, the young ladies and the married ladies who joined the two sodalities for church and parish service.

RETURNS FROM SCHOOL

NEW PARIS, Oct. 24.—Miss Carrie Whitaker, who is teaching in the Hollandburg, Ohio, schools, spent from Friday till Sunday at her home here. She is well pleased with her position there and speaks highly of the people.

Food Souring On Stomach Causes Indigestion, Gas

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated— just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if you food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.

Here Are Both Sides of National Campaign

BY VANCE C. M'CORMICK,
Chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

President Wilson's strength with the farmers is one of the wholesome and reassuring evidences that makes certain his re-election next month. His personal popularity and the popularity of his administration is general among the farmers of the nation. It is non-sectional, and extends throughout the length and breadth of the Republic. I was impressed with this fact upon the occasion of my recent visit to Chicago.

In my conferences with National Committeemen, State Chairmen and local leaders, I made it a point to inquire carefully and investigate thoroughly the basis of the President's strength. I learned that his tremendous following in the industrial centers is reflected in the rural districts.

What is the philosophy of Mr. Wilson's strength with the farmers? I have been asked in discussing political conditions.

Wilson for Them.
I can answer the question in a sentence: The farmers are for Wilson, because Wilson is for them.

It is not difficult to understand the reasons for the President's strength with the farmers when you stop to analyze conditions in the rural districts and the underlying causes for these conditions. The farmers are enjoying boundless prosperity. Never before have they received such fine returns for their labor and their produce; never before have they been so contented. They have received more genuine, helpful recognition from the federal government, under the Wilson administration, than ever before.

BY WILLIAM R. WILCOX,
Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

In the midst of the windy interviews from Democratic campaign managers which claim a wholesale national sentiment for the Democratic candidate without producing a single demonstrable fact to support the claim, there is concrete documentary evidence of desperate effort to get cash for that campaign by methods which approach the illegal.

We have had proof of several. One is the frank warning to postmasters that they must conceal the crime they are asked to commit. They are also promised reward or punishment according to their aid given or refused to the Democratic shakedown of Federal officeholders for the benefit of the Wilson campaign.

More Wilson Desperation.
Now, we have proof of more Democratic desperation in a printed letter under the heading of the "Finance Department of the Democratic National Committee, Thirty East Forty-second Street, New York," with the names "Wilbur W. Marsh, Treasurer," and "Henry Morgenthau, Chairman," at the top of the sheet. The printed signature is "Robert N. Harper, Chairman" of this committee for the District of Columbia, seat of the National government.

This letter has been sent to the homes of employees of the Federal departments in Washington. The only way to obtain a correct list of the names and addresses of those employees is through the office of the chief clerk of each department. Each clerk must take oath to support the laws of the United States.

REV. BOND STRICKEN

CHESTER, Ind., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Lydia Barker of Huntington, Ind., has been visiting her brother Leander Bunker. Miss Nellie Morrow spent the last week-end with friends in Richmond. Rev. Willis Bond, a former resident of here, who has for several years been pastor of the Friends church at Knightstown, Ind., was stricken with apoplexy recently. Scott Lichty is on the sick list. Miss Carrie Boerner spent a few days last week with Misses Rosa and Edith Bond in Richmond. Quite a number from here attended the Centennial in Richmond last week.

IT SAVED HIS BABY'S LIFE
Some years ago, in a letter to the manufacturers, H. G. Vines, Arispe, Iowa, stated that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had saved his baby from dying with the croup. This is a favorite remedy for croup with many mothers, and is pleasant and safe to take. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Days of Youth Recalled By Richmond Salesman; Sleeps Like Child Now

Among the hundreds of statements being made daily in connection with the celebrated new preparation, Tanlac, none is more interesting than the one made on October 17, by E. L. Drum, a Richmond salesman known by hundreds of residents of this city. Mr. Drum describes, "the Tanlac man told inquirers at the Sixth and Main streets drug store of Clem Thistlethwaite yesterday. 'Statements similar to the one given by Mr. Drum are being made every day all over the country by people who have found Tanlac beneficial for stomach, liver, or kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness and the like.' Tanlac is now being introduced in Richmond at the Sixth and Main streets drug store of Clem Thistlethwaite where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. It also may be obtained in Richmond at Thistlethwaite's other stores, 914 Main, 8th and N. E. 8th and S. E. and 16th and Main.—Adv.

NEW GLOBE HOT BLAST

WINNER IN OVER 8000 TESTS

In seven years the GLOBE HOT BLAST HEATER has been put to over 8000 severe street demonstrations all over the U. S.

These demonstrations were in competition with other makes of Hot-Blasts specially constructed to burn the fuel most plentiful in each locality. The GLOBE, manufactured by the Globe Stove & Range Co., of Kokomo, Ind., was declared the winner of every one!

The reason: Its peculiar and distinctive method of heating the entering air, which is then jetted through slots into the fire, causing it to burn from the outside inward, cooking the coal ahead as it burns. This causes a continual blast of blazing gases, as the warmed outside air rushes in and mingles with the gases.

The makers guarantee the New Globe Hot Blast to burn any kind of fuel economically.

Come in to our store today and see the greatest Hot Blast Heater on Earth!

GLOBE HOT BLASTS are made in 3 sizes and 2 styles at
