

COMSTOCK PRAISED BY NOTED ATTORNEY AT GLENWOOD RALLY

GLENWOOD, Ind., Nov. 2.—Samuel D. Miller, well-known attorney of Indianapolis, who is the senior member of the firm of Miller, Dailey and Thompson, with which his father, the venerable Wm. H. H. Miller, former Attorney-General of the United States, was identified during the active years of his practice, addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here last night. Mr. Miller discussed the violation of American rights under the present Democratic administration, the enactment of the Adamson law, and the Democratic slogan, "He kept us out of war," but the feature of his address was a discussion of the merits of the Republican candidates for governor and United States senator. Mr. Miller also referred to the career of Judge D. W. Comstock, Republican candidate for congress in the Sixth district.

"There is a gentleman, who is your candidate for Congress in this District. I refer to Judge Daniel W. Comstock, a courtly gentleman, a man of ripe years, wisdom and experience, a high-minded, conscientious American, a fit man to represent this great District in the Congress of the United States. I am sure that you will do all that you can to insure his election," he said.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Benjamin Cadbury of Philadelphia, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Moore, College avenue, Miss Carolyn Carpenter gave an informal tea yesterday afternoon at her home, South Thirteenth street.

Halloween decorations in every conceivable design were used in arranging the home of Mrs. S. C. Markley, South Seventh street, Wednesday afternoon when she entertained members of Circle 5 of the aid society of the First Presbyterian church. Grinning pumpkin faces and jack-o-lanterns with candle light gave the rooms a weird appearance. Black cats, with witches on broomsticks were cut out and fastened on the walls. Dancing cats and witches were also in evidence on the mantle. At either side of the fireplace were cornstalks and pumpkins. Mrs. S. C. Markley attired as a witch met the guests. A ghost at the head of the stairs directed the guests. Miss Vera Zuttermeister was the ghost. After a short business session a social hour followed and refreshments were served. The guests were Mrs. Alice Ellason, Mrs. Wendling, Mrs. B. D. Welch, Mrs. Raymond Mather, Mrs. Ida Lemon, Mrs. Mather Kelsey, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. F. W. Markley, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Frank Bruffett, Mrs. Leslie Hart, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Ira Swisher, Mrs. Harry Shaw, Mrs. John M. Wampler, Mrs. Fred Miller, Mrs. Otto Krone.

A Halloween party will be given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Chrisman, Kinsey street, for members of the Ladies' U. C. T. social club and their husbands.

Miss Mildred Horr and Mildred Kuchebuch entertained with a class party at the home of the latter on Chestnut street. Games and dancing were features of the afternoon. The guests were Misses Reba Schell, Pauline Maher, Ruth Harrington, Almyra Stauber, Mary Meagan, Jeannette Schell, Genevieve McDonnell, Alice Hipskind, Mary Horr, Gladys Boyce, Mary McLaughlin, Margaret McNally, Martha Mitchell, Lillian McCann, Lucille Kuchebuch, Helen Reece, Dorothy Coyte, Mildred Horr and Mildred Kuchebuch. The guests came masked.

Beautiful in all of its appointments was the silver shower given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Lewis Hilt at her home, North Eleventh street, when she took this means of extending courtesy to Miss Grace Kelly, a November bride. The decorations in the dining room were in green and white. Clusters of white chrysanthemums with the greenery in addition to artistic statuary in the white made a pretty center piece for the table. Between satin ribbons fell in graceful lines and were fastened with bows of ribbons. The place cards were white and green parasols. Bon bon boxes in the form of wedding bells and filled with delicious confections were given the guests as favors. At each corner were small crystal baskets. On the buffet and serving table were vases filled with flowers. Places were arranged at the table for twelve guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp will meet their Married People's Dancing club Friday evening in the Odd Fellow's Hall.

A masquerade party was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, South Tenth street in celebration of the birthday anniversaries of Miss Maud Miller and Mrs. James Moss. The house was decorated with flowers and ferns. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Damon Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. James Moss, Mrs. Ross Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Ames, Mrs. Chappel, Mrs. Harvey Jordan, Mrs. Fred Minor, Mrs. Fannie Laffin, Mrs. Riblin, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. Emma Williams, Mrs. Agnes Waldron, Miss Fannie Williams, Miss May Campbell, Miss Maud Holcomb, Miss Maud Miller and Mr. Charles Moore.
