

"What it Takes to Beat New Castle, We've Got" --- High School

PEP INJECTION PRODUCES OLDEN TIME ENTHUSIASM; AXES OUT FOR NEW CASTLE

"What It Takes To Beat New Castle, We Have Got."

The above effusion done in bold face type and adorning the business page of "The Register" the Richmond high school news sheet, represents the attitude of the R. H. S. students body relative to its coming game with New Castle. The big game of the year will be played at the Coliseum Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 29.

Preparations for the New Castle game under way for the last three weeks are rapidly nearing an organized state. Indications point to the largest evening of basketball in the history of high school basketball in the City.

All For New Castle Benefit.

The New Castle game will see the come-back of R. H. S. spirit noticeable by its absence in the Spiceland game. The R. H. S. band, the drum corps and the Noise Associations have completed their initial bow for New Castle's benefit. Director Dickinson, of the "harmony eleven" promises to have his charges in the pink of condition. Harold Norris and Ben Rost have re-mobilized the Noise Association. Altogether it should be a husky evening for R. H. S. and New Castle.

MIAMI MAKES $1,000 IN DENNISON GAME

OXFORD, O., Nov. 22.—It was today announced at Miami University that Miami's share of the Dennison football game, recently played in Dayton, is something over $1,000.

MILLS IN LINEUP

Elden Mills, giant fullback of the Earlham football team, out of the Wittenberg game because of injuries, probably will start the Wilmington finale on Reid Field, Saturday afternoon. Mills is the punch of the Quaker offensive and to put over a victory in the last game of the year Earlham needs this punch. Hunt, the sub-half, who played consistently in the Wittenberg game will be given another shot at the halfback position.

FIX MATCH SERIES

Art King, Karl Meyer, Frank Young, Roy Miller and a fifth man unnamed at the present, will represent Richmond in a match series of games with a representative Indianapolis team at the city alleys Monday evening. This will be the first inter-city bowling contest of the year for the local pinmen. Later the Richmond five will play a return series.

ULRICH LEADS SEEDER TEAMS

Individual averages of the American Seeding Machine company League show Ollie Otten topping the list at the husky mark of 163 for six games. John Ulrich, who has participated in twenty-one games, is the real leader, however. Ulrich has a batting average of .162. Harry Haner, with 157 is given third money. The averages:

YANKS TAKE TWO

Americans, 2; Kentucky, 1. After mudding the first one, the Americans of the Amseco League became "organized" in the second and final installments with the result that two of the three games went to the Yanks in the "Y" alley program last night. A blind score of 204 upset the Colonels in the second one. In the third Lane of the Kentucky clan, fell down miserably and the American profited thereby. The scores:
