Just before high noon today, the wedding of Miss Alice Vogelsong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogelsong, 334 South Ninth street, and Mr. Hassal T. Sullivan, son of Mrs. Ellis Sullivan of Bloomington, was solemnized, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The service was read by the Rev. H. C. Harmon, pastor of the First M. E. church, in the parlor which was decorated with roses and ferns. Palms and ferns formed an altar at one side of the room. The mantle piece was banked with ferns studded with white rosebuds and Aaron Ward roses.

Miss Ellis Luring played the Mendelssohn wedding march for the entrance of the party. Miss Eleanor Surrendorff was bridesmaid and wore a pretty messaline gown of burgundy shade. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of Aaron Ward roses and ferns. The bride wore a gown of blue georgette crepe trimmed in bands of taffeta silk and embroidered in gold and blue. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies intermingled with the ferns and fastened with tulle. Dr. Glen McDaniel of Bloomington, Ind., was best man. The party was met at the altar.
