

"Man of the Hour"

LORD & LADY NORTHCLIFFE

Next to Premier Lloyd George, Lord Northcliffe is the most dominant figure today in the British political crisis. He is not only looked upon as the "man of the hour," but as one who will undoubtedly play a most conspicuous part in the formation of the new Cabinet. Lord Northcliffe has refused to accept a berth in the new Cabinet, declaring that he prefers to sit in Printing House Square and Carmelite House and "watch developments." From Printing House Square, Lord Northcliffe publishes the Times, and from Carmelite House, the Daily Mail, both of which were instrumental in overthrowing the Asquith Cabinet.

WILLIAM BOND DIES AT FOUNTAIN CITY

FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., Jan. 22.—William Bond died at his home in the north part of town Friday morning at 4 o'clock. Mr. Bond was 82 years of age on the 13th of October and has been a resident of Fountain City for several years. He was stricken with paralysis about a year ago and has been in failing health since that time. The immediate cause of his death was pneumonia. Funeral services were held in the Friends' church Sunday. Mrs. Leannah Hobson officiating. Interment at Willow Grove cemetery. Elma Alexander was a shopper in Richmond Saturday. The Park Booster club which has been recently organized held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. G. A. Dwiggins Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Hobson recently returned from Mooreland where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

RATHER CHILLY OUT

EATON, O., Jan. 22.—Without shoes or stockings and clad in nothing excepting a V. D. and a pair of trousers, William P. Nay, printer, was arrested Saturday night by Officer Clear and made to walk to the city jail in the snow that covered the ground. According to Officer Clear, Nay was given opportunity to go into his room at a rooming house on South Barron street and comfortably attire himself for the trip to the lockup.

Life's Most Valuable Asset Can Be Yours

Mr. Jones of The United Cigar Stores, at Muncie Makes Interesting Statement and Advises His Friends to Use Sweet's VITALIS.

What is your health worth to you? Do you not consider it the most important thing to be taken care of? Without health you can neither earn a living or enjoy life the way you should. Read what this man who has been associated with the United Cigar Stores at Muncie has to say about the great reconstructive tonic VITALIS.

"For some time have been nervous, and could not enjoy my meals, felt tired, worn out and everything I ate seemed to sour on my stomach. This wonderful preparation VITALIS was recommended to me by a friend in Indianapolis and I decided to try it. I simply cannot recommend it too highly for it has cured me entirely. Can now eat and sleep well and enjoy my work. Would advise all my friends or anyone else suffering as I did to take Vitalis. Am on my second bottle and owe my recovery to Sweet's VITALIS."

(Signed) WILLARD JONES. VITALIS has grown in popularity and has shown such wonderful results that it has come to be called the universal tonic. It will improve your appetite and digestion and make you feel yourself again. A special representative from the laboratory is at the Quigley Drug Stores where he will gladly answer all questions and explain the merits of Vitalis to all who call.
