

DOINGS IN FILMLAND

FILM FEATURES BAREFOOT DANCE

One hundred and fifty pretty girls dancing in diaphanous robes! That is just one of the startling and strikingly beautiful scenes in "Purity," the seven act art drama to be presented at the Murray theatre soon.

This regiment of dancers, employed at great expense and effort after a canvass of all the cities of the Western coast, was trained at the Santa Barbara studios where "Purity" was filmed, by Miss Geneva Driscoll.

MISS LOVE PLAYS IN FLOWER GIRL

Bessie Love will be seen at the Murray theatre, Sunday, in her new play, "Nina, the Flower Girl." In this drama written especially for her by Mary H. O'Connor, editor of the Triangle-Fine Arts scenario department, Miss Love has the part of a blind girl, who makes artificial flowers to eke out the scanty income of her grandmother, who cares for her. As a chum and protector she has Jimmie, a crippled newsboy.

DESMOND PLAYS IN DUAL ROLE

In "The Iced Bullet," new Triangle-Kay Bee drama, which will be seen at the Murrette theatre, Sunday, William Desmond appears in a double role, first as a scenario writer seeking to sell a script at the Thomas H. Ince plant in Culver City, Cal., and second as hero of his own drama, which he dreams he sees produced.

THIS FILM SHOWS AT PALACE TUESDAY

Tom Moore and Ethel Clayton in "Dollars and the Woman."

MYRTLE STEDMAN IN NEW PICTURE

House Peters and Myrtle Stedman will be seen at the Murrette on Wednesday and Thursday in the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Company's production of "Happiness of Three Women" adapted for the screen from Albert Payson Terhune's unusual story.

BEVERLY BAYNE SIGNS QUEER NAME

There is an unusually pretty young woman in the cast of "The Great Secret," at the Murrette today, the wonder serial in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are co-stars, who has a very peculiar name, considering the fact that she was born in Connecticut, of staid New England parents. The name to which she answers the roll call and which she signs on the pay slip is Chi Chester.

DICKEN'S STORY TOLD ON SCREEN

It is a long leap from the pages of Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen" to Charles Dickens' "Great Expectations," but Louise Huff and Jack Pickford are nothing if not versatile. So the fact that they have abandoned the twentieth century and reverted to the picturesque London of which the great novelist wrote need occasion no surprise to admirers of these two youthful Famous Players stars. "Great Expectations," which was directed by Robert G. Vignola, is the Paramount Picture at the Murrette theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

MARIE DRESSLER RETURNS AS TILLIE

Marie Dressler as Tillie. Also Johnny Hines as a hen-pecked husband. Also the best collection of fun-makers that could be obtained. Also the trademark of World Pictures, Brady-Made. "A word to the wise is sufficient." Here are several words—meaning words. Be at the Washington Theatre early on Thursday and Friday.

Yes, she played the same character—this time it was "Tillie Wakes Up."

BANKS SHOW DECREASE

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 31.—The statement of the actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week show that they hold $113,807,150 reserved in excess of legal requirement. This is a decrease of $28,958,210 from last week.

"SHE'S A DEAR," VERDICT OF STUDIO

"She's a dear!" This was the exclamation made by all the girls and women at the studio as little Madge Evans acted her part in "The Web of Desire," at the Washington Saturday. Work at the studio in all but this one company, stopped while Madge was acting, so anxious were all the movie people to see her.

PLOTS TO DESTROY PANAMA CANAL

One of the most thrilling scenes of Pathe's "Pearl of the Army" serial, which is being shown every Sunday at the Arcade Theatre, occurs in the thirteenth episode when the Silent Menace, plotting destruction of America, goes to the Panama Canal to blow up the locks so that the United States Fleet, practicing on the Pacific Coast, will not be able to reach the Atlantic in time to save the Atlantic Coast towns from destruction by the combined fleet of our enemies.

POLLY REDHEAD IS CLEVER FILM

Going to popular fiction for the subject of photoplaying, Bluebird brings to the Washington theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, a screen-version of Edgar Jepson's clever "Pollyooly" stories, with Ella Hall playing the role of two little girls so much alike that they are substituted one for the other when the domestic affairs of an unhappy couple are to be straightened out. "Polly Redhead" is the apt title that has been applied for screen purposes to Mr. Jepson's entertaining story.

JUNE GETS TRIAL IN THE BREADLINE

June Caprice, the little star of William Fox's "A Child of the Wild," at the Washington Sunday and Monday, has often wondered how it felt to stand on a breadline. She experienced the thrills of this method of feeding while on her way home from Tennessee where the exteriors of her new picture were taken.

There were 1,742,136 pounds of crude chicke, valued at $1,420,549, invoiced at the American consulate at Windsor, Ontario, for the United States during 1916, against 790,500 pounds, valued at $420,585, for 1915.

WOMEN ORGANIZE VOTERS' ASSOCIATION TO GET OUT VOTES

Announcement of the organization of the Woman Voters' association was made by Esther Griffin White last night at a meeting of the Second ward women. The meeting was held in the Morrison-Reeves library.

Miss White is chairman of the association, which was formed for the purpose of getting out the female vote in the constitutional delegate convention in September.

"A representative will be appointed in each ward and one in each precinct," Miss White explained. "Each precinct committeeman is to see five women in her precinct and each of these five is to urge five others to vote."

Dr. Zimmerman invited Dr. Zimmerman, whose home is in the Second ward and who had been invited to be present on that account, pointed to the importance of registration, stating that every woman ought to register and cast a vote so she could have a voice in adjusting civic affairs if they didn't suit her.

Dr. Zimmerman further stated that out of 600 families canvassed for another purpose 500 held women who stated they would vote.

Several Women Speak
Several women of the Second ward spoke briefly including Mrs. Clara Graves, Miss Carolyn Salter and Mrs. Margaret Fitzgibbons.

"I am glad I am going to get to vote," said Mrs. Fitzgibbons. "I have always had a burning desire to vote the Democratic ticket and now I have the opportunity."

John White, councilman from the Second ward, made a short speech in which he said while he thought the municipal light plant was a good thing, he didn't like the way it was bought.

"They went into the board of works room and locked the doors," said Mr. White, "and then came out and said it was done."

Oscar Williams, J. V. Schneider and J. J. Evans, candidates for council, and J. J. Burns, candidate for city clerk, were present and made short talks.

At a British Red Cross sale a pound of sausages was sold for £23.
