Great Joffre Sends His Personal Card to Richmond Boy, Author of Poem

Vernon E. Spaulding, 12 years old, is the happiest boy in Richmond. He is happy because he has been honored above other boys by the great Marshal of France, General Joffre.

Vernon has the Marshal's personal card, bearing the words "Sincerest Congratulations," written in French, in the Marshal's own hand. The card was sent to him by the Marshal as a mark of appreciation for some verses written by the boy and handed to the general when he stopped in Richmond a week ago last Tuesday.

The card was sent from Columbus, Ohio, which was the second stop, east of Richmond, made by the French party. Following is a copy of the verses:

We love you, General Joffre,
Your colors are so true;
They are the same dear colors
As our own Red, White and Blue.

The Red, it stands for love;
The White, it stands for peace;
The Blue, it stands for true friendship,
Between us it must never cease.

We love you, General Joffre
Because we know you're right;
So we will all stand by you
'Til we end this awful fight.

We love you, General Joffre,
The mother and kiddies, too.
There is nothing this side the pond
We would not share with you.

God speed you on your journey
Across the briny deep;
You'll be watching for submarines
When we are fast asleep.

Vernon lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spaulding, 216 North Twelfth street. He is a student at Garfield junior high school.

The boy comes from a long line of fighting men, according to his father. His great-great-grandfather fought in the Revolution, his great grandfather in the War of 1812, and his grandfather in the Civil War. All of them were Spauldings.
