

GRAY ATTENDS G. O. P. RALLY AT CONNERSVILLE

Elliott Says He's Sure to Win Since Opponent Has "Joined Our Forces."

CONNERSVILLE, Ind., June 19.—Senator Wesley L. Jones of Washington, first of the Republican advance guard to enter the Sixth district to work for the election of Richard N. Elliott as representative in Congress to succeed the late Daniel W. Comstock, was given an enthusiastic reception here last night. The senator addressed an audience estimated at 1,100 in order to accommodate the crowd a tent was pitched just outside the main business district and there a crowd collected between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock anxiously awaiting the arrival of the distinguished visitor. Senator Jones delivered a forceful oration.

The address was almost solely an educational one, the senator refraining from "mud slinging." He scarcely mentioned the name of Finly H. Gray, the Democratic candidate, but was loud in his praise of Mr. Elliott. After reviewing the work of the administration he dwelt on the need of a protective tariff after the war and urged the election of a man who would uphold such a policy and the administration now. He closed with a tribute to Elliott. County Chairman E. Ralph Himelick introduced the speaker.

Applause is frequent. Applause interrupted him many times. He was forced to rap for order when the crowd broke into mighty cheers. "Americanism and Republicanism" was his theme. The speaker handled his subject in a very able manner.

The event was one of the opening guns in the oratorical contest that will be waged in this district during the next eight days. That interest is aroused to a high pitch was shown in the fact that the audience was one of the largest ever attending a political meeting here.

Mr. Elliott attended the meeting and spoke briefly. Finly H. Gray, the Democratic nominee for congress, also was present, occupying a rear seat on the platform. Mr. Elliott facetiously called the crowd's attention to the presence of Mr. Gray.

"Joined Our Forces." Elliott said he had been confident of his election from the first but was now convinced that victory would be his because it appeared that his opponent had "joined our forces." The crowd laughed heartily.

Mr. Elliott stated that he had been over a great part of the district the last ten days and he had yet to visit a community where his candidacy had not received the heartiest encouragement, this being especially true in sections hitherto strongly Democratic.

SENATOR CURTIS SCORES GRAY'S RECORD IN CONGRESS

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., June 19.—Scoring the record made in the National House of Representatives by Finly H. Gray, Democratic nominee for the place again, Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, Republican, last night, fired the opening gun in the campaign here and made a strong plea for the election of R. N. Elliott of Connerville. The senator declared that Gray was not with the president in his preparedness plans while in congress and advised the election of a man who would work in harmony with the administration in the present crisis. The speaker also criticized President Wilson for not sending Col. Roosevelt to France at the head of a volunteer division. C. C. Dean introduced the senator to a crowd which filled Bell's hall to capacity. Many women were present. Senator Curtis will speak at Hagerstown tonight.

NERVOUS PEOPLE MUST KEEP BLOOD COOL IN SUMMER

Over-heated Blood is Dangerous—Causes Severe Nerve Strain—A Simple Home Remedy

"Phew! My blood feels as though it was boiling, my feet are so hot and swollen I can hardly drag one after the other, my head is ready to burst and my nerves are right on edge. I wish I could take off every stitch and hide in the shade till winter comes." Summer days are surely trying days for tired, fagged, nervous men and women. Overheated blood pressing on their delicate nerve centers just fairly takes every speck of ambition and vitality, making them so cross, irritable and peevish you can hardly get a civil word from them. Even night brings only uneasy, fitful sleep, which leaves them in the morning as tired as when they went to bed.

If summer heat is trying your nerves and making your existence miserable, just try the great new nerve remedy Margo for a few days and see what blessed relief it gives in even twenty-four hours. Margo cools your sluggish overheated blood, opens the pores of your skin and induces a gentle, cooling perspiration that draws all the puff, swollen feeling from your hands and feet, the dull heavy feeling from your head and makes your brain cool, clear and active. It calms, soothes and steadies the nerves and makes the day's work a real pleasure.

Margo is absolutely harmless. It contains no dope or dangerous drugs, but is a scientific combination of six of the best nerve vitalizing elements known to modern chemistry. Thousands of people everywhere are using it this very day and are enjoying the blessed relief from all nerve strain that Margo alone can give. Druggists all over Richmond are selling it fast these days and Thistlethwaite's Drug Stores are so confident of its value that they offer it to every buyer on their absolute guarantee of satisfaction or money back.—Adv.

NEGRO WOMEN TOLD HOW TO REGISTER; LINDLEY IS BOOSTED

A big audience of women was present at the meeting held Monday afternoon under the auspices of the Woman's Civic Council in the Ninth Street Baptist church to discuss registration and the coming elections in which the women of Indiana can vote. Mrs. M. F. McCurdy, the president, presided, and made a stirring address on "The Spirit of the Hour," which she designated as "preparedness."

With this as a theme Mrs. McCurdy pointed out the necessity of the women of her race being in position to exercise their new duties intelligently, citing the conditions following the Civil War as an example of the unpreparedness of the men of the Negro race to cope with their new citizenship.

Urged to Be Nonpartisan Mrs. McCurdy also urged the Negro women, in the coming municipal election, to be nonpartisan and vote for the "man of principle," rather than for the man of political party.

"We want the man of principle in public office," said the speaker, "and will not vote for him on any other grounds. Whether he is a Republican or a Democrat is of no moment. We want to know first if he is a man of unblemished principle. We must have a higher type of citizenship in public places."

Miss Esther Griffin White, chairman of the Women Voters' Association, spoke on registration, the constitutional convention and the necessity of voting for a delegate from Wayne County who was unalterably for suffrage.

Boosts Dr. Lindley. Miss White referred to Dr. Harlow Lindley of the Earlham college faculty as an ideal delegate for Wayne county.

"I have no knowledge as to whether or not Dr. Lindley would permit his name to be used but there is no one in Indiana who would be a finer representative. Dr. Lindley, while performing his civic duties, is removed from all considerations of political bias. He is a member of the state historical commission, an authority on constitutional law, a man of the highest probity and yet not a radical. Fair, just, authoritative, well balanced, he would be an ideal candidate."

Other speakers who made brief talks were Walter Dennis, and the pastors of the A. M. E. and Ninth Street Baptist churches who said they would do all they could to assist the women in registering and voting. Registration blanks were distributed and explained and a large number of the "New Constitution Text Book," issued by the Citizens' League sold.

Miss White read a telegram, received during the time of the meeting, from Mrs. Edward Franklin White, an attorney of Indianapolis, stating that the case brought in the Indianapolis courts to test the constitutionality of the woman's suffrage and new constitution law, was under advisement and that whichever way the decision went an appeal would be taken, indicating that an appeal would be made from any adverse decision to the two measures.

Mrs. E. M. Goins, secretary of the council, conducted the devotional exercises with which the meeting was opened and Mrs. Grace Ferman read the minutes.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Look Years Younger! Try Grandma's Recipe of Sage and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Year ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

A Duofold Suite Is Now a Necessity

This Duofold Will Last a Lifetime

The Frames Are of Golden or Fumed Quartered Oak

Latter-day "High Cost of Living" makes it no longer practical to keep a spare bedroom—a room used perhaps but a few months in the year. There is a less expensive way—a more convenient way. That is, to have the parlor or living room furnished with this Duofold suite.

There is no complicated mechanism to get out of order—a simple lift of the seat discloses a bed broad and long as the ordinary bed—not a small, makeshift arrangement. The upholstering is a leather imitation which really imitates the appearance and the wearing qualities of leather.

The panels in the sides of the arms of the pieces add massiveness to its appearance; all the pieces are out of heavy stock. The seats are upholstered over spring seats. All three pieces are ready to be delivered to you, for a small deposit. Pay a little at a time.
