

YALE SAVANT TO DELIVER 8 LECTURES HERE

Announcement was made today by Charles O. Williams, county superintendent of schools that William Lyon Phelps, a professor of Yale university, will appear at the Wayne County Teachers' institute, which will begin its session at the chautauque on August 20, for a series of eight lectures.

Dr. Phelps was asked some time ago to deliver a series of lectures at the institute but refused to come. Last Friday, County Superintendent Williams received word that he would be willing to come.

Dr. Phelps is well known among the teachers of the county and his book, "Browning, How to Know Him," has been a part of the course of study for the teachers of the county for the last five years. A number of teachers heard his address at the state teachers' meeting last fall.

Lectures will also be given at the institute by Miss Emma Colbert of the Indianapolis Teachers' college and by Dr. Horace Ellis, state superintendent of public instruction. The institute will last for five days and will include fourteen lectures.

ARMED CITIZENS STOP STRIKE VIOLENCE

GLOBE, Ariz., July 5.—Rapid developments were expected today in the tense situation brought about in the Globe-Miami copper mining district by the strike of 7,000 miners belonging to the Metal Workers Industrial Union, an I. W. W. organization, and the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers.

Serious clashes between striking miners and 300 armed citizens who cleared the streets twice yesterday were averted only by appeals of Governor Thomas E. Campbell to the miners and the guards to disperse.

Governor Campbell admitted that the situation was fully as serious as represented before he left Phoenix and he expressed the belief that federal aid would be necessary to prevent trouble.

Carr-Kelly Unites to Scour Ohio River for Teuton U-Boats

There are U-boats in the Ohio river. Secret advice to this effect have been received here by Admiral Clement V. Carr, of the county sheriff's office, and plans are being made for an invasion of the river and routing of the submarines.

Admiral Carr and his aide, Commodore Kelly, of the clerk's office are making arrangements for the campaign and they intend to make a tour of the river from Louisville, Ky., to Cincinnati and "scour" the waters for hostile craft.

It is rumored however, that the real reason for the trip is to make pleasure out of business. Four men, sentenced to terms in the Jeffersonville reformatory, are to be taken to that institution by Admiral Carr soon and the two men, who are said to be reservists of the Swiss navy, will convey the prisoners and make the river trip on their way home.

The only trouble, according to Admiral Carr, is that "it can't be done."

KILLDEER (Oxyechus vociferus)

Length, ten inches. Distinguished by its piercing and oft-repeated cry—killdeer.

Range: Breeds throughout the United States and most of Canada; winters from central United States to South America.

Habits and economic status: The killdeer is one of the best known of the shorebird family. It often visits the farmyard and commonly nests in pastures or cornfields. It is rather suspicious, however, and on being approached takes flight with loud cries. It is noisy and restless, but fortunately most of its activities result in benefit to man. The food is of the same general nature as that of the upland plover, but is more varied. The killdeer feeds upon beetles, grasshoppers, caterpillars, ants, bugs, caddis flies, dragonflies, centipedes, spiders, ticks, crabs, earthworms, snails, snails, crabs and other crustaceans. Among the beetles consumed are such species as the alfalfa weevil, cotton-boll weevil, clover-root weevil, clover-leaf weevil, pine weevil, billbugs, white grubs, wireworms, and leaf beetles. The bird also devours cotton worms, cotton cutworms, horseflies, mosquitoes, cattle ticks, and crawfish. One stomach contained hundreds of larvae of the saltmarsh mosquito, one of the most troublesome species. The killdeer preys extensively upon insects that are annoying to man and injurious to his stock and crops, and this should be enough to remove it from the list of game birds and insure its protection.

The use of feters goes back to ancient times. Feters were usually made of brass and also in pairs, the ward being in the dual number. Iron was occasionally employed for this purpose.

"Ole Swimmin' Hole" Drew Holiday Crowd

It isn't only the boys of Richmond who like to splash in the "old swimmin' hole."

Over 100 men, women and children spent an afternoon of fun in the "swimmin' hole" just behind the new Morton lake dam, Wednesday afternoon. Most of the swimmers came in automobiles attired in their bathing suits and left the same way.

Some were bathing suits that would make belles at Atlantic City or Palm Beach envious while some wore nothing but overalls.

But the ones with overalls on didn't care. The water was too inviting and they couldn't resist.

Surgical Dressings to be Sent Next Week

Eight boxes of surgical dressings will be sent from Richmond Red Cross headquarters next week. Surgical dressings are in great demand on the front where the fighting is heavy now. All supplies made in the United States now are sent to France where the fighting is in progress.

An order recently sent out by the National Association says that the allies are badly in need of supplies. They ask for 650,000 hospital bed sheets, 450,000 suits of pajamas, 800,000 pair of socks, 700,000 handkerchiefs, 350,000 bath robes, 100,000 pair of bed socks and 300,000 shoulder wraps. The Richmond society soon will be ready to ship some of these articles. Thursday afternoon, Mary Hill W. C. T. U., and Monday Thimble club sewed at the headquarters.

ELZY SMITH FINED $10

A charge of shooting with intent to kill, placed against Smith Monday was dismissed.

TEUTON DYNASTIES MUST STEP DOWN, SOCIALISTS ARGUE

STOCKHOLM, July 5.—The Holland-Scandinavian Socialist committee publishes a long communication issued by the Belgian delegation in which the Belgians say that they do not believe a durable peace to be possible with the Hohenzollern and Hapsburg dynasties retaining their present power. They would not refuse to meet representatives of the Austrian and the majority of German Socialists, they say, if "renouncing their present errors they take sides openly and in a manly way against their emperors."

The communication says further that the basis for deliberations of such a conference would be anti-imperialism. The Belgians associate themselves with the resolution of the Russian council of workmen and soldiers deputies in favor of peace without annexations or indemnities, but they explain that the interpret these terms as follows:

Oppose Annexation.
"Annexation exists where a belligerent rules with force against the will of the inhabitants of all or part of the territory of its adversary. A classic example is the annexation of Alsace-Lorraine to Germany. Refusal of all annexation does not necessarily imply for us maintenance of the territorial status quo. Modification of a frontier seems legitimate when it conforms to the will of the inhabitants.

"Indemnity, we understand to mean compensation similar to that which Bismarck exacted from conquered France in 1871 or that which the Germans are continually imposing on occupied Belgium."

"The right of people to dispose of themselves implies that people have no master, either abroad or at home."

ARGENTINE STEAMER TORPEDOED BY U-BOAT

ROME, Tuesday, July 3.—The sinking of the Argentine steamship Toro last month by a German submarine was announced today in the following official statement:

"The Argentine steamer Toro laden with wool for Switzerland, was shelled by a German submarine on the Atlantic outside the barred zone on June 22. The Toro had the Argentine flag painted on her sides and before the shelling, showed papers demonstrating her nationality to the submarine commander."

A French steamer picked up an officer and 12 sailors. The captain and the remainder of the crew were landed on July 2."

The torpedoing of the Toro was announced in Buenos Aires on June 25. The Argentine foreign office declared a claim would be entered against Germany.

2 OIL INSPECTORS ASSUME DUTIES HERE

Orders to proceed with the inspection of oil in this district were received here today by Karl Meyers and John Taylor, local inspectors, from Marion Caldwell, supervisor of oil inspection. Meyers and Taylor were appointed inspectors by Governor Goodrich after the courts decreed that the law of 1881, giving the governor the right of appointment of inspectors was valid and the laws of 1891 and 1901, giving the state a part of the fees collected and the appointment of the inspectors to the state geologist.

Under the law of 1881, which is now in force, all fees collected by inspectors for inspection are kept by the inspectors. The rates for fees are made up by a schedule determined by law.
