

FIRE MARSHAL PROBES BLAZES

EATON, O., Aug. 8.—Investigation has been started by Deputy State Fire Marshal Sizer of Dayton, to determine the identity of the person who applied torches to a house belonging to Mrs. Ed. Loughecker, of Richmond, Ind. Fire had been started in three separate places in the house. In view of these facts, officials believe the fire which destroyed the barn in the rear of the house was also of incendiary origin. Deputy Fire Marshal Sizer came to Eaton shortly after noon Thursday. He made an investigation of the property and the materials used in starting the blaze. Later in the afternoon he went to Richmond....Mrs. Frank R. Christman, North Barron street, and her guest, Mrs. J. W. Moyer, of Columbus, suffered many bruises when an auto they occupied struck a telephone pole on the Dayton pike east of West Alexandria. Miller approached a policeman in the latter city and inquired if he could cite him to a buyer. He confessed the theft, police say....Sale of the farm owned by the late Marion Christman will be held Saturday, August 11, at the courthouse. The farm contains 234 acres and is located about three miles northeast of this city. The land is sold on order of partition in the case of Frank R. Christman against Doss Christman and others.

SAYS TANLAC HAS BROUGHT BACK STRENGTH

System Was All Run Down Before Woman Tried Tonic.

"I'm a great deal stronger and feel as well as I ever did in my life since I've been taking Tanlac," said Mrs. H. Klenworth, of Crawfordsville, Indiana.

"My system was all run down before I started taking Tanlac," Mrs. Klenworth continued.

"I was so nervous that I couldn't sleep well and often would lie awake at night for hours. Then when I got up the next morning I'd feel all tired out and it would be about all that I could do to drag around the house. The slightest noise would put me on edge."

"And besides, I was having a lot of trouble with my stomach. Nothing I ate agreed with me."

"Well, as I said, Tanlac has improved me so much that I'm really feeling strong now. My nerves have been strengthened and built up so that I sleep soundly every night."

"My stomach is back in good shape, too, and I don't have trouble after meals like I did before."

"Yes, Tanlac is a fine preparation and I want to recommend it for others."

Don't let your system get run down. Weakness is dangerous. If you are not feeling right get Tanlac today. It has helped thousands of run down men and women and it will do for you what it has done for others. You can get Tanlac at any of Clem Thistleton's drug stores—Adv.

The height of efficiency and pleasant to take which is a great blessing to the afflicted.

NA-TU-RA

For all forms of catarrh. It treats the cause—it's nature's way.

Rosie Baldwin of Martinsville, Ind., says: I have been using your remedy Natura for a very bad case of running catarrh, which I had since a child. I had become a physical and nervous wreck; had had nervous prostration twice. I had run down in weight to 114 lbs. I had stomach trouble for five years, could not eat anything without suffering; I lived on a light diet for six months, with no results. My kidneys and bladder were badly affected and gave me great distress. I was habitually constipated, was continually taking laxatives and cathartics to get relief and had severe headaches. My condition was such that I was not able to work; was given up by five physicians to die of tuberculosis in six months. I have now been using Natura for two months and I am feeling like a new woman; no stomach trouble, am free from constipation, no headaches and kidneys are doing fine. My nerves are strong again. I can again sleep and rest and I now weigh 145 lbs. I have unbounded faith in Natura for the cure of all forms of catarrh.

AMEXES ARE WELL

village washhouses erected along running streams, the villagers washing on one bank and the soldiers on the other.

At several company kitchens the American commander interrogated the cooks closely.

"Do you get enough to eat and to feed the men?" he asked one veteran cook who has been in the regular army for a number of years.

"Yes, Sir," Says Cook

"Yes, sir," replied the cook, standing at respectful attention.

"Do you get any vegetables?" asked General Pershing.

"No, sir."

"Don't you get any potatoes?" asked General Pershing, with some surprise.

"Oh, yes, sir," was the prompt reply.

"And onions and tomatoes?" questioned the general further.

"Yes, sir."

"And beans?"

"Yes, sir."

"Then what do you want?"

"Nothing, sir."

General Smiles, Satisfied.

General Pershing smiled and moved away, satisfied that that particular company was doing very well in war time and in the war zone.

At another company kitchen the cook said the only complaint he had to make was that the company's share of canned salmon had not been forthcoming regularly.

"What do you get as a substitute?" asked the general.

"Well, of course, sir, we get bacon," replied the cook, somewhat subdued.

"Any other complaint?" the commander inquired.

No Other Complaint.

There was none and again the general passed on, completely satisfied with prevailing conditions.

Many troopers saw General Pershing for the first time. His visit was so unexpected at certain points of the far-flung training area that the soldiers speculated at first whether he was Pershing. Several times they referred the dispute to the correspondents accompanying the officer.

"I knew it was Pershing all the time," boasted one old trooper, "because I saw his picture in the paper, and he looks just like it."

Many Are Rookies.

General Pershing gave orders looking to a little smarter set-up of the men in the future. A great majority of the troops now in France are recruits in the regular army and many of them are learning the art of soldiering for the first time.

They are doing remarkably well, but being plunged into actual war time all at once they naturally have learned some smaller details that seem unimportant to the uninformed.
