

RUM PRICE GOES UP AS STILL SITS QUIT

Last Drop of "Corn" To Trickle From Distilleries Saturday Night.

John B. Booz, champion knock-out fighter of them all, will confine himself strictly to saloons after 11 o'clock Saturday night.

At that time the last drops of "red eye" will trickle from the country's distilleries, for, according to the terms of the recently enacted food bill, no whiskey will be manufactured in the United States during the war.

With the manufacture stopped, it will cost just about twice as much to "fight" old John B. as it formerly did.

"Two Bits" For Cheapest. Indications are now pointing to Richmond dealers, that the price will soon go as high as "two bits" a drink for plain "red eye" and thirty cents for the higher explosive variety.

Some dealers however are contemplating cutting down the size of the glasses.

The government is expected soon to place the war revenue bill into effect which means that every wholesaler and retailer must pay $2.10 for every gallon of whiskey or similar products, such as gin and wine which he has on hand, as taxes. This will mean that the price will be increased about $2.50 on the gallon it is believed.

INDIAN CAMP IN RICHMOND TODAY

A "Heap big Injun" camp was pitched in Richmond Friday.

It was the Buffalo Bill-Jess Willard Wild West show which pitched its tents at Athletic park.

Persons from throughout the county started waiting for the scheduled street parade at 9 o'clock in the morning and when the rain started to fall in the afternoon they raised umbrellas and continued to wait. That is, many of them did, but not all.

The show did not arrive in Richmond until almost noon, due to delay and a long trip from Marion, Ind. Despite the fact the two performances were to be given the same as usual, many of the Indians with the show have offered their services to the government for use in the great war.

A page from the history of what was once the wild and woolly west is depicted by the moving pageant under the "big top."

BRIBED OFFICIAL TO DISCHARGE SON

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 7.—W. R. Brown, of Summit, Emanuel county, was yesterday afternoon held for the federal grand jury under a bond of $2,500 charged with an alleged attempt to bribe Dr. D. D. Smith, of the county exemption board.

Dr. Smith stated Brown sent him word he would pay him $500 if he would declare his son physically unfit for service. The doctor concealed the sheriff in his office and had Brown repeat the offer. The arrest and preliminary hearing followed.

Pacifists Seeking Friendly Landlord

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The People's Council of America was reported to be looking for a combination of suitable offices and a friendly landlord today, following the notice served upon the organization yesterday that it vacate the premises on Fifth avenue where its present offices are located. The order to move is effective Sept. 12, and was issued by the land lord, it was said, following a notice from the police department that the law was being violated.

Blindly Aids Kaiser

MAXIM GORKY

Maxim Gorky, the famous Russian writer, who has been accused of unintentionally being the agent of the Kaiser by Vladimir Bourzef, the Russian revolutionist. "Maxim Gorky as a writer has always been our pride," says Bourzef, "but as a politician Gorky always has been blind. He has worked recently in accord with Lenin. Up to the present, Gorky has been too blind to see where Lenin was leading him and his party. He is too weak in character to sever himself from his friends."

Campfire Girls at Economy on Warpath

ECONOMY, Ind., Sept. 7.—Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock the Campfire girls are requested to meet at Jay Hollow, the home of Miss Jessie Sechrist and don their Indian paraphernalia for a hike to a woods somewhere in Perry township, where a weiner roast and a war dance will be indulged in after a few pale faces have been made into squaws by initiation.
