

THREE IMPORTANT OBSERVANCES IN CHURCHES SUNDAY

Will Pray for U. S. Success and Also Observe "Conservation Day."

Protestant ministers of Richmond churches will have three important observances, Sunday. They are "Food Conservation Day," "Prayer for the Success of American Arms" and "Go-To-Sunday-School-Day."

In some of the Lutheran churches the Reformation will be celebrated. On account of the Quadri-centennial celebration of the Reformation at the Coliseum Sunday afternoon and night, First English Lutheran and Second English Lutheran churches will observe a prayer service at the morning hour.

Navy Recruiter Goldfarb received a letter Saturday from J. A. Ball, United States navy officer, retired, stating that as President Wilson has proclaimed Sunday, October 28, as "Day of Prayer" in all of the churches of the United States, services be held in the Richmond churches.

In view of the fact that twenty-eight men and one officer of the naval forces of the United States have already given their lives in defense of their country it is requested these men be remembered.

Special attention is called to the following paragraph which will be read in all the Richmond churches Sunday, in order that persons may see how the men on the Antilles perished:

"Very rough sea, intense cold. At noon after capsizing and being righted first and second boats in company sailed to eastward. During the afternoon the first boat capsized losing four men."

"Shortly thereafter the first and second boats separated leaving fourteen men in the first boat including Lieutenant Thomas."

"On the same afternoon between 4:30 and 6:30 o'clock eleven of the fourteen died and bodies were swept overboard among them Lieutenant Thomas and several other men."

7:30 p. m. Addresses by Manager James R. Garfield of the Lake Division and by a representative of the War Council.

The importance of the surgical dressing work being done by the women of the Red Cross throughout the country is very strongly emphasized by a cablegram received a few days ago by the Washington headquarters of the Red Cross from Major Grayson Murphy, the Red Cross Commissioner to France. Major Murphy says: "The Red Cross has direct responsibility of supply with surgical dressings, and nothing in the whole situation here is equally important. Red Cross standard dressings in millions must be sent over with all possible speed."

"If this is not done and done immediately a serious calamity and national disgrace is inevitable. The American women who compose the Red Cross Chapters' workers should prepare with all enthusiasm and speed possible, the dressings which are going to mean life or death to our own men. This whole situation deals with the most vital thing that women of America can do for the soldiers in this war."

KAISER'S PICTURE OUT

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Oct. 27.—A portrait of Emperor William of Germany, which had been hanging for many months in the government palace, has been removed by order of the Minister for Foreign Affairs. Its place has been taken by a painting showing the Portuguese recognition of Brazilian independence. The Emperor's picture was put in a store room.

FEWER FAILURES

LONDON, Oct. 27.—There was a considerable decrease in the number of bankruptcies last year, receiving orders being only 1,557 against 2,373 in 1915. Liabilities of debtors totalled $2,731,959, a decrease of £1,000,000 and the loss to creditors £2,396,654, a decrease of £955,809. The principal failures were among grocers, bakers and saloon keepers.

Men and women with scallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexions, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.—Adv.

Pan-American Lineup Against Germany is Nearing Completion

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Ten American nations are now joined with the United States in opposition to German autocracy and a Pan-American spirit is not far from complete. Since America's declaration of war fourteen neutral nations have severed relations with the Prussians and of these ten have been our southern neighbors.

Of the South American countries, Brazil, Peru, Bolivia and Uruguay are strongly pro-ally. Brazil broke off relations and handed the German minister his passports as early as April 10. A resolution was shortly passed revoking the nation's neutrality. The sinking of Brazilian ships by German submarines had roused popular and official feeling and German's trade course in Brazil had previously stirred great resentment.

As early as last February the press of Peru had been demanding the government's joining the United States in condemning the submarine warfare. Peruvian ships had been sunk and upon protest to the German government no satisfaction was offered. In August an ultimatum concerning the sinking of the Lorton was sent and as no answer came within the eight days demanded Peru promptly severed relations.

Bolivia follows U. S. Example. Bolivia's break with Germany came at the time of America's declaration of war. The Bolivian minister of foreign affairs was authorized last February to support the attitude of the United States in the German crisis. When Washington severed relations the Bolivian government sent some the German minister and sent with him a note declaring that the submarine warfare in which Bolivia had suffered loss and humiliation had become insupportable.

Uruguay also rejected the principles of the German submarine warfare as early as last February. Since that time the popular feeling of Uruguay has been distinctly pro-ally and in August the government issued an appeal to all Latin-American countries urging their support of the United States rather than Germany. The more recent circumstances of Uruguay's break are familiar.

Rumors of the German plans to sink eight German ships in the harbor of Montevideo moved the government to seize the ships and intern the crews. This act strained the already tense relations and brought on the final break.

The Central American countries Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras and Panama, ceased relations in April. Cuba declared war on Germany in the same month. Hayti acted in June.

Honduras Defies the Kaiser. Honduras broke relations with Germany May 18, declaring that all American nations should stand together for democracy in such a crisis. In September all German residents of Costa Rica parts were interned for abetting conspiracy against the government and on September 21 the Costa Rican government formally severed relations with Germany. Nicaragua's break came in May, and at the same time she offered the use of her territorial waters to the United States.

Immediately upon news of America's declaration of war President Menocal of Cuba advised congress to follow the example and with Cuba's severance of relations three German ships were seized and immediate preparations made to put the government on a war footing. On April 7 President Ramon Valdez of Panama signed a proclamation pledging Panama to the support of the United States in defending the canal and announcing officially that German residents would be interned if there was any sign of hostile intrigue. The Haytian congress passed resolutions of severance though not of war in June following the sinking of steamers plying between Hayti and Bordeaux, many of whose passengers were Haytians.

Among the South American countries still remaining neutral the anti-German feeling is rapidly growing and of Columbia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Chile, Argentina, Paraguay and Salvador it is most likely that Argentina will be the next to join the Pan American alliance. Argentina's legislature has voted for a break. The same sentiment is active in Chile. In all of the countries that have acted not only has all German intrigue been well suppressed, but embargoes are now effective against any shipping that is likely to benefit Germany directly or indirectly.
