$125,000 Worth of Foodstuffs Stolen From Naval School

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Three petty officers and five civilians are under arrest today in connection with charges of the theft of more than $125,000 worth of foodstuffs from the Great Lakes naval training station at Lake Bluff, thirty miles north of here.

Those under arrest are: H. L. Korner, petty officer in charge of the commissary, George Gowen and C. C. Mohr, petty officers assistants to Korner; Edward and William Koo, sausage manufacturers at Kenosha, Wis.; Anton Dudek, who had a contract for the garbage at the naval station; Gustave Gehl, an alleged "fence," and Philip Levandowski, at whose farm much of the stolen property is said to have been stored.

The alleged conspiracy is said to have been disclosed to the federal authorities by the manager at Kenosha for a packing house, who said he was told by customers that his products could be obtained at prices below those charged by him.

Mrs. Harry Welsenborn and daughters Misses Ruth and Maxine, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jehu Boren and family. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clabaugh and daughter, Harriet, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Harlan. Chester Anderson of Dayton, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anderson. Several neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Josie Skinner gathered at their home a few days ago and cut several cords of wood for them. Mr. Skinner is at a hospital in Indianapolis where he has been some time for an operation. He is improving some, and thinks he will be able to come home in a couple of weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore and son Wendell, and Mrs. Anna Moore of Richmond, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Coffield. Raymond Knoll of Whitewater spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. Henry Knoll. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thomas spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Corrie White of near White-water. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Thompson entertained Sunday afternoon, Dr. Chaffin and Inez Hershburg.
