PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH
Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night. Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable.—Adv.

Today's Poultry Lesson

LITTLE CHICKS AND BROODIES
By M. K. Boyer, Poultry Expert.
The sitting hen that gets off her nest daily for a short time will, as a rule, hatch a larger per cent of eggs than the persistent sitter that does not air her eggs so often.

Summer chicks command good prices in the late fall. They should weigh about five pounds per pair. Those hatched in the fall cease growing as the cold weather sets in, and are usually small but compact in appearance. Chicks fed mash should have a little powdered charcoal added. The mash should be moist enough so the charcoal will stick. The chicks will soon learn to like it and will eat the mixture as readily as plain food. As the youngsters grow older, feed the charcoal alone. Charcoal keeps them healthy; it is a corrective, preventing fermentation of the food in the crop and a great aid in warding off bowel complaint.

It does not pay to attempt to rear deformed and sickly chicks. The amount of extra care devoted to them will pay better if distributed over the entire flock. A chick that is sleepy and droopy is generally infected with head lice. It is sleepy because lice have kept it awake at night.

In hunting for lice make a careful search on the skins of the heads and necks of the chicks. Here is a good formula recommended by the government for a home-made chick food: Ten pounds cracked wheat, twenty pounds pin-head oats, seventy pounds finely screened cracked corn, ten pounds pearl millet, five pounds fine grit, shell and charcoal. A similar one is made as follows: Ten pounds cracked wheat seventy pounds cracked corn, twenty pounds oat flakes. The chickens should be kept apart from the older fowls until they are nearly grown. It is not good to have all ages and sizes together. At feeding time, under such conditions, the younger birds are ill-treated and prevented from getting their share of the food, often having but little to eat. It is difficult for them to grow and thrive under such circumstances. In the general scramble for food, the smaller chickens probably have to be content with the dirty trodden remains after the big ones have finished.

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parlmit (double strength), and add to it hot water and just a little sugar as directed in each package. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. YOUTH OF 16 IS SENTENCED TO DIE

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Paul Chapman, a youth of 16, was sentenced to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing state prison by a Supreme court justice today. Unless Governor Whitman intervenes by commuting the sentence to life imprisonment, the boy will die sometime during the first week in April. Chapman was convicted of killing a Brooklyn shopkeeper while attempting with two other youths, to rob his store. The court explained that while he had received letters from "well meaning women" asking clemency, the jury's verdict of first degree murder, left him no alternative under the law. Chapman, addressing the court before hearing sentence pronounced, said: "I know myself and my God knows that I did not shoot to kill anybody." He declared he would die with a clear conscience.
