CENTRAL'S START HINGES ON TERRE HAUTE'S ACTION

Six Club Circuit, Including Richmond, Is Planned at League Meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 4.—Whether the Central League is able to continue operations in a baseball way in this war-ridden year depends largely upon the actions of Terre Haute. If Rufus W. Gilbert can swing enough money into line to post the usual forfeit of $2,000 for the Terre Haute club, which will show that the club is in a position to go on through the chances are the Central League will swing into action as a six-club circuit. This was the sense of the league meeting, which was held at the Hotel Severin on Sunday afternoon.

Two of the Central League clubs have tossed the sponge into the ring and the circuit is unable to continue. Some changes may be made, however, which will enable the league to get under way. Definite action was not taken on a starting decision, this being put over until the next league session, which is scheduled for March 15. The meeting place will be decided upon later.

Fort Wayne's club felt as if it didn't care to make the start this year. The Fort Wayne people didn't see any ray of outlook for the national pastime this season and for that reason have backed out. Dayton is out of it. The league is holding the franchise.

Bloomington After Franchise.
Terre Haute and Bloomington both are after franchises. Bloomington is ready and aching for the start, it is said, and no doubts are being entertained regarding that club. Rufus Gilbert attended the meeting yesterday as a representative of the new club at Terre Haute and is of the opinion that he can swing the deal. If Terre Haute makes the grade, the league will most likely start with the following clubs: Terre Haute, Bloomington, Peoria, Evansville, Springfield and Richmond. Grand Rapids and Muskegon were not represented at yesterday's session.

No action was taken regarding a schedule of the length of the playing season. President Stahliker called the meeting to order and the whole time was taken up in discussing the conditions of the various clubs and the changes that might be made in order to keep the league afloat. Rockford, Ill., applied for a franchise, but it was not granted because the jumps would be too great with that city in the circuit.

Will Arrange Short Jumps.
With only six clubs in the league, the cities have to pair off in the schedule making, so that the jumps will not be too big. For that reason the whole situation hangs on Terre Haute. If Terre Haute puts a club in the league, it will pair off with Evansville and will form a compact loop. Without Terre Haute, Evansville would have no city close to it, and for that reason would have to drop out.

"It looks as if we will be able to make a start with six clubs," said President Stahliker, after the meeting had adjourned. "The whole thing hinges around Terre Haute, however. If Terre Haute gets the backing to place a club in the league, we ought to be able to get going all right. At any rate the whole thing will be thrashed out at a meeting on March 15."

Those attending the meeting were President Stahliker, representing the Evansville and Dayton clubs; Elmer Reddell of Springfield, John Ryan of Peoria, Elmer E. Eggemeier of Richmond, Carl Vandagilt of Fort Wayne, J. J. Hackett of Bloomington and R. W. Gilbert of Terre Haute.

EARLHAM FIVE DEFEATS BUTLER

The Earlham basketball team annexed the last I. C. A. L. game of the season Saturday night when it defeated the Butler quintet by 41-20 score.

The Earlham men outclassed the Butlerites. The passing and shooting of the Earlham squad was at its best. Franklin, which is claiming the I. C. A. L. pennant, defeated the Butler team earlier in the season by a 23-17 score when the team was not at its best. Earlham staged a walkaway thus gripping the I. C. A. L. pennant with a firmer grasp.

The first half ended 26-6. In the second half Carrey was substituted for Edwards and Titworth for Lawler. Coach Moew using all his men. During this period Jessup was put out of the game on personals and only four men finished the game on the Earlham lineup. They were able however to hold the Butler men down and in the last four minutes of play not a goal was made.

NEWS NOTES from MOVIELAND

BY DAISY DEAN

WASHINGTON

The second Fox Standard Picture in which the Lee Kiddies will appear is "Troublemakers," a comedy-drama written especially for them. At the Washington Tuesday.

Fannie Ward, whose first picture as a Pathe star—"Innocent"—will be at the Murray theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, was born in St. Louis, Mo., and is the daughter of the late John Buchanan. At an early age she began her theatrical career as Cypri in "Pipino." While on a pleasure trip to England she met George Edwards, the well known English stage manager, who was so impressed with her beauty and charm that he immediately engaged her for the "Shop Girl," in which production she made her first appearance at the Gaiety Theatre, London. Miss Ward had become one of the most popular actresses in London when she married Joseph Lewis, an extremely wealthy South African mine owner.

Stage experience is not necessary as a foundation to stardom in filmland. This is the theory of Miss Hazel Daly, starring in "Brown of Harvard" at the Murray theatre Friday and Saturday. And she has demonstrated it.

Miss Daly was born in Chicago. She entered motion picture work immediately she closed her school books. That was only a few years ago. She now is one of the foremost actresses on the screen.

Mollie King, one of the youngest stars of the screen (she is said to be not quite twenty), is now with Ivan Film and is starred in the new feature, "Human Clay," a scenario written by L. V. Jefferson and designed to give Miss King every opportunity for an expression of her interesting personality.

Miss King has had unusual experience for one of her years, having started her stage career with Maxine Elliott in "Her Own Way" while still in her school years. She understudied Elizabeth Brice in "The Winsome Widow" and played with Sam Bernard in "The Belle of Bond Street." She also appeared with her sister Nellie in vaudeville and showed herself to be a charming singer and dancer.

Since entering the movies Miss King has been with World Film and also been seen in Pathe productions. She declares that she has only been successful because she has worked hard and that a movie studio is a poor place for temperament.

MURRAY
One of the most remarkable and authoritative collections of gambling paraphernalia ever assembled figures in Triangle's new production, "The Gun Woman," to be shown at the Murray theatre tonight and Tuesday.

The collection is of historic interest, having been used in the early Western days. It includes faro layout, roulette wheel, poker and craps table. To obtain absolute realism in the depiction of a complete gambling hall scene in this story Triangle uses an entire glass stage.

Lazar and Dale present an Ethiopian travesty entitled "Joining the Union," which keeps the audience in an uproar of laughter from start to finish, while Bert and Pagie Dale, the young lady of which team is an exceedingly good looking, well groomed young miss, put on a classy singing, talking and dancing act the equal of which has not been seen here this season.

MURRETTE
Miss Edna Goodrich is splendidly suited in her new Mutual play, "Her Second Husband," at the Murrette today and Tuesday, which affords the young star opportunities for portrayal of intense emotion and which she regards as one of the best plays in which she has yet appeared for the screen.

The story emphasizes the folly of placing finance before love and illustrates the retribution that awaits him who neglects the real for the false.

On The Boards

At the Washington tonight F. Ray Comstock and William Elliott will present the fourth of the series of the New York Princess theatre musical comedy successes, "Oh, Boy" with the book by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse and music by Jerome Kern.

The tremendous success of "Oh Boy" is due to the delightful wit and satire as well as the dainty production replete with tinkly melodies interpreted by talented players.

In the special organization which Comstock and Elliott will send to the Leona, Thompson, Gertrude Waixel, Edward Forbes, Charles Knowlden, T. D. Leary, W. Fredericks, Eileen Powers, Helen DuBois, James E. Rome, Bobby Hale, Marjiam Hibbing, Laura Wells and a charming ensemble of boys and girls.

The prosperity of Greater Tokio City is shown by the increased taxes over last year, the average being 37 per cent.

SIXTEEN TEAMS WILL BE SEEN IN ACTION HERE

District Basket Tourney at Coliseum Friday and Saturday.

Sixteen basketball teams have entered the district tournament which will be in full swing Friday and Saturday at the Coliseum. The tourney opens Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Richmond high school team will start the ball rolling when it plays the Rushville basket shooters in the first game Friday morning.

Until last Friday Rushville was an unknown quantity to Richmond fans but the defeat of Rushville places the Richmond squad more to the front for the district basketball honors.

According to the arrangement of the schedule the Richmond basketball team will have the stiffest test of the tournament as it will have to play both Rushville and Liberty to cop the tournament and go to Bloomington for the state tourney.

There are many new entries for the district honors. The new teams to appear here for the first time are: Fountain City, Burney, Green, Farmland, Manilla, Connersville, Moscow and St. Paul.

Those that played last year are Liberty, Rushville, Hagerstown, Milroy, Cambridge City, Modoc, Union City and Sandusky.

Large delegations of rooters are expected to flood Richmond next Friday and Saturday as high school basketball is more popular this year than ever before.

Large Attendance Expected.
Richmond basketball games have always been well attended and with the added influx of the rooters the Coliseum probably will be packed at all the games.

Roy Thurman and William Webb will officiate Friday and Saturday in the tourney.

It is generally admitted that the chances of the Richmond quintet are stronger than those of any other school in the tourney. Coach Mullin's men are in excellent condition for the tournament and are full of fight and brimming over with enthusiasm and with the experience gained in playing some of the strongest teams in the state.

Three Richmond Men Will Referee Tourneys

Three Richmond men are numbered among the referees this year to officiate at the district basketball tournaments held throughout the state March 8 and 9.

James "Jim" Harrington will officiate at Anderson, Coach Ray B. Mow of Earlham has been scheduled to officiate at Greencastle, and Horace Parker will officiate at Hartford City.

Checker Tourney at "Y" Monday Night

Seventeen entries have been made in the checker tourney to be held at the Y. M. C. A. Monday night.

Many more are expected to enter the tourney before the games are played.

Clarence Chamness announced the rules of the tourney to be as follows: Each pair of players must play three games and one of the pair winning two games will play the winner of another pair. The semi-finals will be played as soon as the preliminary matches are played.

Richmond Volley Ballers Defeat Indianapolis

The Business Men's volley ball team edged the Indianapolis volley ball team out Saturday on the "Y" gym floor morning four games out of five.

The game was fast and the close covering of the floor won Richmond the games. The two teams were tied until Saturday night's game. Physical Director Schwan announced that a game probably would be booked with the Indianapolis team soon to be played at Indianapolis.

You Need Not Suffer from Catarrh

But You Must Drive It Out of Your Blood to Get Rid of It Permanently.

You have probably been in the habit of applying external treatments, trying to cure your Catarrh. You have used sprays, washes and lotions and possibly been temporarily relieved. But after a short time you had another attack and wondered why. You must realize that catarrh is an infection of the blood and to get permanent relief the catarrh infection must be driven out of the blood. The quicker you come to understand this, the quicker you will get it out of your system. S. S. S., which has been in constant use for over fifty years, will drive the catarrhal poisons out of your blood, purifying and strengthening it, so it will carry vigor and health to the mucous membrane on its journey through your body and nature will soon store you to health. You will be relieved of the droppings of mucus in your throat, sores in nostrils, bad breath, hawking and spitting.

All reputable druggists carry S. S. S. in stock and we recommend you give it a trial immediately.
