

WILLIAMS WILL RENDER PROGRAM IN ALL-ENGLISH

Great Tenor Will Renew Acquaintance with Two Richmond Men.

The Evan Williams concert Friday night at the Coliseum promises to be the most interesting of the People's Music Course series of five as it will be the closing one.

The great concert tenor is expected to arrive in Richmond Thursday night and will be quartered at the Westcott hotel.

He will renew acquaintanceship here with Walter B. Fulghum and Reverend Elmer E. Davis, both of whom he has known. He met Fulghum when the latter was connected with the Victor Talking Machine company at Camden, New Jersey.

When he met Rev. Mr. Davis he was not the celebrated concert singer he now is. He was then just at the beginning of his famous career. It was at a Sunday school convention in the little Welsh church in Williams' hometown, just out of Akron, more than 20 years ago.

Williams had been away on one of his first concert trips and on his return was urged to sing at the convention. He complied with the request and his appearance brought out a tremendous crowd. The Richmond minister was pastor of a church in a neighboring village and was president of the Sunday-school association. He later met Williams several times and he expects to renew his friendship with the tenor here.

The program to be given Friday night will be the first all-English program ever given in Richmond by a great singer and will be doubly pleasing because every word will be understood.

Dr. Charles Barker, health lecturer, will make a patriotic speech before the concert, which begins at 8:15.

This concert will be the last of the series of five given by the People's Music Course, every one of which has been a tremendous success. Plans for next season probably will be made after this concert.

The admission fee has been placed on the popular 50-cent basis which prevailed for the Efrum Zimbalist concert and reserved seats are ready at Fulghum's Music Shop.

Says Coc. Shortage Will Be Worse This Winter

EATON, O., April 18.—Declaring that in a meeting of fuel administrators the consensus of opinion was that the coming winter will see a greater fuel shortage than last winter, Griffith E. Rensman, chairman of the local county fuel administration, has issued a statement urging domestic consumers to lay in their supplies for next winter at the earliest possible time.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley claims that three women can do the same work as two men and do it as well.

Free Examination, Free Consultation, Free Treatment until you are entirely well—such is the generous offer made by the Inter-State Doctors to all patients accepted for treatment before May 1. The only charge that will be made to anyone is for the medicine, which must be paid in cash. To the very poor medicine will be furnished free.

The object of the Inter-State Doctors in making this grand offer is to demonstrate the remarkable curative powers of their new system of treatment; even in all long standing cases which are incurable by the old methods of treatment.

The treatment used by the Inter-State Doctors is non-surgical. They never use the knife. Only the best and purest drugs and chemicals are used by these specialists, their motto being that every sick person is entitled to the best medicines that are to be found in nature, regardless of cost. To obtain pure drugs they prepare their own medicines in their own laboratory and every patient is thus assured a pure medicine, the best obtainable, regardless of cost.

The expensive and elaborate instruments used in diagnosis, and the extreme care used in securing pure drugs and preparing them especially for each case, make the treatment used by the Inter-State Doctors more expensive than ordinary treatment, yet makes it possible to place the price of treatment within the reach of all.

This is really a very remarkable and generous offer by these great specialists. It is an offer of free treatment until well, regardless of the length of time. This offer is good only in cases accepted for treatment before May 1. After that date full fees will be charged to all.

Consultation and examination is free to all, but only curable cases will be accepted for treatment. If your case is incurable you will be told so and not one penny of your money accepted. However, many cases that are incurable by old methods can be quickly cured by this wonderful new treatment of the Inter-State Doctors.

The Inter-State Doctors' Institute is located on the second floor of the Starr Building. Working men have been busy in this part of the building to make it suitable quarters for the Inter-State Doctors' Institute. The opening of the institute is set at 9 a. m., Monday morning, April 22.

Mrs. Milla M. Young of Logansport was treated by these specialists at the Logansport institute and is so well pleased that she writes the following letter for publication:

"Logansport, Indiana
"Inter-State Doctors:
"I want to tell you how much you have done for me. I could not sleep for over a year—I would get up a dozen times a night and cough and spit and take all remedies to relieve myself, even eat raw potatoes, took olive oil and drank coal oil so could get my breath. I would seem to fill clear up to my ears.
"Every few days would get sick at my stomach and throw up whole basin of phlegm. I doctored with four of the best doctors in Logansport and one sent me to another city to see a famous specialist and when he saw me he wanted me to go to the hospital.
"Hearing that the Inter-State Doctors would have an institute here soon, I decided to see your specialist. He examined me thoroughly and gave me great encouragement and that I surely would notice benefit soon, which I have.
"I sleep all night, seldom waking, do all of my own work and advise all to go to the Inter-State Doctors and get a thorough examination and be told just what is the matter and how long it will take to be benefited as I have been.
"I will gladly tell anyone what you have done for me. I had my stomach washed for weeks till hemorrhages set in and I could not stand it any longer. No one knows what I have gone through. My heart would pain me so that I would scream and my left arm seemed just like I had hit my crazy bone. The doctor said it was my heart and he would relieve me with heart tablets. I would bleed terribly and be very weak next morning."

¶ One incident among General Pershing's early experiences on his arrival in Europe marks the stamp of greatness of the man.

¶ General Pershing and his staff were present at the tomb of LaFayette in honor of the anniversary of the great Frenchman whose assistance meant so much to us in the days of our greatest need. Hours of oratory could not have given more complete expression to the occasion than the five simple words our General spoke: "Well, LaFayette, we are here."

¶ A man of heart and of vision, a man of few words and great deeds, is our General Pershing, in command of America's forces abroad. The success of our cause and the welfare of our men could not be in better hands.

Corn, Out All Winter, is Poor for Seed Says Preble Agent

EATON, O., April 18.—New corn that was out all winter in very poor for seed, according to County Agricultural Agent Swift, who has just issued a statement to that effect. Agent Swift has operated a seed corn testing station for some time for the benefit of local farmers.

He says that old corn which was in cribs all winter is not good enough without testing; that it is not yet too late to test every ear of corn to be planted, and that corn which is at all doubtful as to strong germination should not be planted until the ground is very warm, as the amount on hand for replanting is very limited.
