

Y. M. C. A. WORKER AIDS SOLDIERS AT FRONT LINE

FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., June 28.—The following letter was received from her cousin, Mrs. W. I. Kelsey, who has been doing Y. M. C. A. work in France:

"Your letter came this morning and I can never tell how I appreciate it. I love to think that you are praying for me and my boys, my soldier boys—those for whom and with whom I worked through those long days and weeks of cold and mud and waiting—who are now doing the awful drive. I can not find out who of them are missing. I have had some letters but they tell nothing.

"I am out of danger but I have an unutterable longing to be near so I can help them when they 'go over the top' and when they come back. All are fighting to make this the last great war.

"I have been to Paris again this week to get furniture for an officer's parlor. It is a hard journey of thirteen hours with two changes between midnight and dawn, and I must sit bolt upright in a crowded French train all night for two nights, then shop in a strange city two days hard as I possibly can, so I came in very tired this morning and was glad to find I was not expected to work in the canteen today. I have made and served with my own hands thousands of gallons of hot chocolate and hundreds of sandwiches. Many weeks I was alone in an army hut, no other women. The boys helped me—that was when we could get near each other in that intangible spiritual sense.

"I have served alone as many as 350 of the big army cups—holding about a pint of chocolate and more than 100 big sandwiches in one evening.

"I am now in southern France away back from the lines in a well equipped canteen, in a big stone building, where five other women are working.

"It is raining today and has rained a great deal of the time since we came to France. The boys laugh about 'Sunny France'."

Veteran Marines Wounded at Front

Major Frank Evans, reported wounded in the spectacular fighting of the marines in France, was formerly a New York newspaperman. He served fifteen years with the marines, was discharged, and then reinstated. He was in charge of a recruiting office when war was declared and obtained an overseas appointment.

NOW RAISES 600 CHICKENS

After Being Relieved of Organic Trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oregon, Ill.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which pulled me down until I could not put my foot to the floor and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens every year it made it very hard for me.

"I saw the Compound advertised in our paper, and tried it. It has restored my health so I can do all my work and I am so grateful that I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. D. M. ALTERS, R. R. 4, Oregon, Ill.

Only women who have suffered the tortures of such troubles and have dragged along from day to day can realize the relief which this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, brought to Mrs. Alters. Women everywhere in Mrs. Alters' condition should profit by her recommendation, and if there are any complications write Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

CHILDREN OF NEW GARDEN IN GOOD PHYSICAL CONDITION.

FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., June 28.—The government weighing and measuring test shows that the children of New Garden township are in fine physical condition. A few who were seriously ill during the winter have not yet gained all they lost. Thirty-one children fell below the average; 12 were of standard height and weight according to their ages; 49 were average varying less than two inches or two pounds from the standard measurements and 21 were above the average in both height and weight. Free government pamphlets on the care and feeding of children will be sent later. Mrs. Linn Reece, chairman township Child Welfare committee, and Mrs. O. N. Huff, township chairman

Woman's Section Council of Defense, were in charge of the test.
