

KAISER ACCEPTS RESIGNATION OF VON KUEHLMANN

Hintze, Former Minister to Mexico, May Succeed Man Who Said "Can't Win."

PARIS, July 10.—The German Emperor has accepted the resignation of Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, according to a Basel dispatch to the Havas Agency. It is expected that Admiral Von Hintze, the German minister at Christiania and formerly minister to Mexico, will succeed him.

Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann became foreign minister August 6, 1917, succeeding Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, whose retirement closely followed the exposure of his plot to involve the United States in war with Mexico and Japan in the event that this country showed any inclination to join the entente allies. Dr. von Kuehlmann's conduct of the foreign office appeared to be more than usually successful until June 24 when he appeared before the reichstag to discuss the political aspects of the situation facing Germany. During his address he said:

"In view of the magnitude of this war and the number of powers including those from overseas, that are engaged, its end can hardly be expected through purely military decisions alone and without recourse to diplomatic negotiations."

Causes Consternation. This statement, which flatly contradicted speeches by the German emperor, who only a short time before had referred to peace being won by "the strong German sword," was received with consternation in the reichstag and with sharp criticism by the country. It was later reported that Dr. von Kuehlmann's word had been approved by Gen. Ludendorff, the German commander on the western front. This brought to notice rumors of friction between Ludendorff and the German crown prince and his coterie, who comprise the radical pan-Germanic elements in official circles.

Soon after the address in the reichstag, it became common knowledge that Dr. von Kuehlmann's retirement from office would be forthcoming. Some reports were to the effect that his address was intended to inform the German people that their armies could not win the war, and was delivered with the cognizance of the emperor, who, when he saw what a storm had been stirred up, resolved to make Von Kuehlmann the scapegoat.

Have You Killed Your 15?

The Rat census just made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture says:

"There are 15 rats to every family in the United States. "Rats destroy $200,000,000 worth of food annually. "The labor of 200,000 men is required to feed the rats. "On many farms rats and mice eat and waste enough to pay a farmer's taxes."

RAT MUM Kills Rats

RAT MUM is the efficient rat poison—it destroys without odor—dogs and cats will not eat it—doesn't have to be spread on food thereby running the chance of humans eating it by mistake. A gust of wind cannot blow it into foods as is true of poison in powder form. RAT MUM comes in a cake. Simply crumble it and put it where the rats will get it. It is the simplest, easiest way to rid your place of rats.
