

LIBERATION OF TURK SUBJECTS AIM OF ALLIES

British Embassy States Oppressed Peoples Must be Freed From Turk Rule.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Complete and final liberation of the peoples of the Eastern Mediterranean countries from the oppression of the Turks and the establishment of governments deriving their authority from the free choice of the native population are the aims of France and Great Britain.

This announcement is made in a formal statement issued today by the British Embassy by direction of the British Foreign Office in conjunction with the French government.

"The aim of France and Great Britain," said the statement, "in carrying on in the Near East the war let loose by German ambitions is the complete and final liberation of the people so long oppressed by the Turks and the establishment of governments and administrations deriving their authority for the initiative and free choice of the native populations."

"In view of following out this intention France and Great Britain are agreed to encourage and help the establishment of native governments and administrations in Syria and Mesopotamia actually liberated by the allies and in the territories they are now striving to liberate, and to recognize them as soon as effectively established."

"Far from seeking to force upon the populations of these countries any particular institution, France and Great Britain have no other concern than to insure by their support and their active assistance the normal working of the governments and institutions which the populations shall have freely adopted, so as to secure just impartiality for all, and also to facilitate the economic development of the country in arousing and encouraging local initiatives by the diffusion of instruction and to put an end to disorders which have too long been taken advantage of by the Turkish rule."

"Such is the role that the two allied governments claim for themselves in the liberated territories."

"FLU" CAUSED COAL DECREASE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Fuel Administrator Garfield announced that only careful use of anthracite coal by householders will prevent suffering this winter, production having been reduced about half million tons by "flu."

Honored for Bravery

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Commander in chief of the American expeditionary forces, in the name of the President has awarded the Distinguished Service Cross to the following officers and soldiers for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after their names:

First Lieutenant Joseph C. Raible, Jr., A. S., 147th Aero Squadron, for extraordinary heroism in action, near Chateau Thierry, July 5th, 1918. Lieut. Raible and three other pilots, at an altitude of 4,700 meters, attacked an enemy formation of eight battle planes flying at an altitude of 5,000 meters. The German machines dived on them and Lieut. Raible engaged two in combat. In a hard fight, lasting five minutes and finishing at an altitude of 3,000 meters, he shot down one of the attacking party and drove off the other. Home address: J. C. Raible, 2102 Chestnut street, Hannibal, Mo.

First Lieutenant Arthur H. Alexander, A. S., 6th Aero Squadron, for extraordinary heroism in action on September 4th, 1918, while on a bombing expedition with other planes from his squadron, Lieutenant Alexander engaged in a running fight over hostile territory, with a superior number of enemy battle planes, from Friauxville to Lamorville, France. He was seriously wounded in the abdomen by machine gun bullet and his observer was shot through the legs. Although weak from pain and loss of blood, Lieutenant Alexander piloted his plane back to his own airfield and concealed the fact of his injury until after his observer had been cared for.

Home address: Mrs. Stella H. Alexander, Box 105, Wellesley, Mass.

First Lieutenant Donald B. Warner, A. S., 96th Aero Squadron, for extraordinary heroism in action with other planes from his squadron, Lieutenant Warner engaged in a running fight over hostile territory with a superior number of enemy battle planes, from Friauxville to Lamorville, France. During the combat he was severely wounded, high in right thigh being badly shattered. In spite of his injuries, he continued to operate his machine guns until the hostile formation had been driven off and one plane shot down burning. Home address: Mrs. C. E. Warner, 175 Humphrey street, Swampscott, Mass.

First Lieutenant Alfred A. Grant, 27th Aero Squadron, for extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France. On July 24, 1918, with several other officers, Lieutenant Grant encountered an enemy patrol of nine planes. During the combat he became slightly separated from the other American machines and was attacked by three of the enemy. By skillful maneuvering and good marksmanship he destroyed one machine and drove off the other two. Home address: Alfred A. Grant, father, 88 Syracuse street, Denton, Texas.

First Lieutenant Charles W. Drew, deceased, 13th Aero Squadron, for extraordinary heroism in action near Flierey, France, August 15th, 1918. Lieutenant Drew operated one of a patrol of four machines which attacked four enemy battle planes. In the fight which followed he attacked in succession three of the enemy ships, driving one of them out of the battle. He then engaged another machine at close range and received ten bullets in his own plane, one of which penetrated his radiator, while another pierced his helmet. It spite of this, Lieutenant Drew followed the German plane to a low altitude within the enemy's lines and shot it down in flames. During the latter part of the combat he courageously refused to abandon the fight, although he had become separated from his companions and his engine had become so hot because of the leak in his radiator that there was imminent danger of its falling him at any moment. Lieutenant Drew has since been killed in action. Next of kin, Mrs. S. E. Drew, 246 West Seymour street, Philadelphia, Pa.

PERFECT HEALTH IS YOURS IF THE BLOOD IS KEPT PURE

Almost Every Human Ailment is Directly Traceable to Impurities in the Blood.

You can not overestimate the importance of keeping the blood free of impurities. When you realize that the heart is constantly pumping this vital fluid to all parts of the body, you can easily see that any impurity in the blood will cause serious complications.

Any slight disorder or impurity that creeps into the blood is a source of danger, for every vital organ of the body depends upon the blood supply to properly perform its functions.

Many painful and dangerous diseases are the direct result of a bad condition of the blood. Among the most serious are Rheumatism, with its torturing pain; Catarrh, often a forerunner of dread consumption; Scrofula, Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas and other disfiguring skin diseases; Malaria, which makes the strongest men helpless, and many other diseases are the direct result of impure blood.

You can easily avoid all of these diseases, and rid the system of them, by the use of S. S. S., the wonderful blood remedy that has been in constant use for more than fifty years. S. S. S. cleanses the blood thoroughly, and routes every residue of impurity. It is sold by druggists everywhere.
