

GREATEST BLOOD ERA SINCE DAY OF BARBARIANS

Great Cost of Victory Urged by Englishman as Argument Against Leniency.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(Delayed)—(British Wireless Service)—The Times in discussing the casualties during the war calls upon the allied governments to compel the Germans to treat the prisoners in their hands without abuse. It says that the losses in the war are the greatest since Asiatic barbarians carried on wars of extermination.

"Now for the first time," the Times says, "we begin to learn officially at how great a cost the victory has been won. Our casualties on land amount to the enormous figure of 3,049,000. To judge the full sum of bloody sacrifice the casualties of our allies and the murders Germany has done must be added.

The Era of Blood.

"Since wars of extermination were carried on by the barbaric conquerors of Asia no such sea of blood has deluged the world. These published casualties are more than double the entire white population of New Zealand or of the union of South Africa. They are far greater than the population of any city in the world except London and New York."

"Even now, when the Germans are whining and clamoring for the modifications of conditions incomparably milder than those they forced upon Russia and Roumania, they show either pity or common prudence toward the helpless victims still in their power. The brutality they are showing our unfortunate prisoners almost exceeds belief."

Adrift With No Food.

"They already have reduced the numbers by systematic cruelty and starvation. They now are turning them adrift without food, warm clothing, or money to find their way across as best they can."

"It is time, and high time, for the allies to tell the Germans that this monstrous and inhuman abuse must cease promptly. They have the right to make the demand and the power to enforce it. Their own peoples will fiercely resent any hesitation in the exercise of either."

The Daily News urges that the names of commandants and all officers in the German camps which release prisoners in a helpless condition should be demanded at once "preferably by wireless," so that they may be made to answer for their behavior. It adds that the allied governments should establish at once who it is that now is responsible for the conduct of affairs in Germany and what is the exact position of the new government.

Chester, Ind.

Walter Kendall spent Sunday with Wilbur Bateman...Miss Carrie Boerner spent Monday in Richmond...Corp. Merrel Hudelson spent Sunday night and Monday with his brother Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hudelson and attended the funeral of his nephew in Richmond Monday. Hudelson is stationed at Camp Sherman, O....Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Martin were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Duke...Mrs. Michael Kendall spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Oliver Boerner...Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Ball Tuesday afternoon...Mrs. Edwin Crawford of Richmond is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kendall this week...Mrs. Martha Kendall received a letter Monday from her son, Herbert Kendall, written at Indianapolis, Sunday evening. Kendall said that he spoke to an audience of over 2,000 people at Crawfordsville Sunday afternoon. He started to his home in Kearney, Neb., Sunday night.

RANDOLPH COATS IN CITY.

Randolph Coats, a prominent Indiana artist, formerly of Richmond, who was awarded the 1916 prize at the exhibition of Indiana artists in Richmond, is in Richmond on his way to Canada, where he will paint a few months. He has been living in his studio in Knoxville, Tenn., where he conducted an Art school.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tell why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headache, dull and unsightly; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms putrid-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cracks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening effect upon the system.—Adv.

Scarcity of Turkeys for Thanksgiving Dinners This Year

It may be necessary to show your patriotism by eating chicken or duck at your Thanksgiving dinner this year, according to Richmond dealers. The great demand for turkeys for the boys in service has made the fowl a decided scarcity on the market, and it will be a case of doing your Thanksgiving shopping early, the dealers say, in order to get one of the few turkeys obtainable. What the market price of turkey will be this year has not yet been determined, but it will not run above 42 cents a pound, it is believed.

Even though the war is over, the Thanksgiving dinner will probably be a case of doing your Thanksgiving shopping early, the dealers say, in order to get one of the few turkeys obtainable. What the market price of turkey will be this year has not yet been determined, but it will not run above 42 cents a pound, it is believed.

Word has been received in this city that Will Meine, former gardener for William Dudley Fouke, is in a critical condition with pneumonia, at his home in Youngstown, Ohio. The pneumonia followed a severe attack of turnips. In the St. Mihel section, on the other hand, the Germans had biscuit made of white flour, compressed beef, butter and cheese. A part of these rations had come from Russia, having been sent originally to that country for the Russian army by the United States. In the French from Reims to Verdun, the food generally of the German forces was of better grade and greater in quantity than that of the men fighting in the north.

WILL MEINE ILL

King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the new name of the royal house and family to be "the house of Windsor."

July 17, 1917, King George announced to the privy council the