

Ministers Call Richmond to Give Thanks For Peace

GREATEST REASONS FOR THANKSGIVING IN ALL HISTORY

REV. O. T. F. TRESSEL
Trinity Lutheran Church.

Few have been the times in the history of our nation when there has been such reason for rejoicing and true thanksgiving as at present. We of this generation, who only a few years ago thought that we would perhaps live through no more stirring times than those of the Spanish-American war, have been privileged to see a day that will mean as much in our national history as 1776-1812-1865. For what we did for ourselves in those glorious times of the past, we have now helped to do for others in a self-sacrificing fight for an ideal fondly cherished by our hearts that has been the marvel and inspiration of the world.

True thanksgiving must have as its basis a deep sense of sin and unworthiness. Never before has God shown so forcibly to all nations and peoples their transgressions as during the past four years. Our own beloved nation is guilty of many sins and transgressions that are festering as a cancer on the body politic. What better time is there for a national repentance from center to circumference than when God has shown us such mercy and loving kindness? With Jacob of old we ought all to be able to pray, "I am not worthy of the least of all mercies, and of all the truth which thou hast shown unto thy servant."—Gen. 32:10.

But true thanksgiving must go far further than sincere repentance. Our whole heart must be on fire with gratitude to God who has done such marvelous things in our midst. With the Psalmist we should say and sing: "O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever." Ps. 118:1. He has blessed our fields and orchards once more with an abundant harvest. He has brought to an end the world war. He has crowned our arms with victory. He has crowned the supreme sacrifice our boys have made with the dawn of a new day for all nations of the earth. Why should we not be thankful? And why should not our hearts break forth in expressions of true, heartfelt gratitude to Him?

But a thanksgiving that is worthy of the name must issue in lives and deeds of thankfulness. We must incarnate the thanks that we feel and express in deeds of lovingkindness. And what a glorious call and opportunity awaits just this. Just as God used our arms and our food supplies at the critical time to cause right to triumph, so now that peace has come, He would use our surplus food supplies to save the starving nations of Europe and Asia. Millions of hands stretch out across the sea to us and say, "Give us bread or we die!" With the glamour of war ever before one, and the martial spirit in our blood, we rose as one man to win the fight. With these things lacking, shall we go down in defeat when the call to fight with hunger and disease, where there will be no booming of cannon or creak of shell, but where the munitions of war will be provided by the noble and generous self-sacrifice of a truly thankful people? If we go on in emperate eating our sacrifice will mean the saving of many useful lives, and such sacrifice will not only help to build our moral fibre, but will also be acceptable as a thank-offering and a sweet-smelling savor by the Lord our God.

"For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."—Matt. 25: 35, 36, 40.

PRAYERS FOR MEN IN SERVICE URGED

REV. F. W. ROHLFING
St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Forget not to meekly bow the head in humblest supplication and at the same time with most gladsome thanksgiving before the altars of Almighty God and sing His everlasting praises for all His tender mercies his Thanksgiving day. Pray for our older boys far away in foreign lands and in the training camps at home. The home fires are still burning to welcome them back to their native land and to their beloved homes and to their loved ones who are waiting for them. How eagerly we are listening for their tramp, tramp, tramp, homeward to their own beloved shores. What glad fathers and mothers, sisters and brothers, friends and sweethearts, that will mean. God bless you, older boys, and guide you safely through temptation and keep you from all harm and danger until you shall see and enjoy your native haunts again. Pray for the starving, the despairing, the dying in foreign lands. This is no time for exorcism, but for blessing and thanksgiving. Who has not made mistakes in worshipping false gods and false ideals? The master said to the old self-righteous Pharisee, with a halo of mockery about their heads, but without one drop of holy unction in their un-anointed souls, "Let him that is ruthless cast the first stone." The challenge still stands as a stern rebuke to the character full of pride and variety, who is always ready to point with haughty scorn to the false gods of others, but whose inner religious consciousness is so stunted and sometimes even so profane and immoral that he cannot see his own false gods and correct his own petty faults and more grievous mistakes.

Gratitude For Men Who Have Won Should Govern Thanksgiving

REV. R. L. SEMANS.
First Methodist Church.

Psalm 150: 1. "Praise ye the Lord." This is a thoughtful Thanksgiving day. America has not stood aloof, but has cast in her lot with peoples struggling for freedom. We have not been deaf to the voice of God calling us to service. We are no longer an isolated nation. From this day on America's destinies are bound up with those of every nation on the earth. We have achieved a victorious and righteous peace. Before us lies the work of reconstruction. Literally it will not be a reconstruction, not a social fabric patched and mended, but a new garment of brotherhood and good will for humanity. The tasks of today will be guided by no precedent. We enter a new era in the development of human society.

"New occasions teach new duties; Time makes ancient good uncouth. We must upward then and onward, Who would keep abreast of truth."

While these problems occupy our minds I suggest that we thank God for wise men who are devoting themselves unselfishly to the plans for the new and better world. Give thanks for great leaders in the war, men like

Pray for the sorrowing parents and relatives, whose soldier boys can not come back to their loving eyes and waiting arms. They are gently sleeping fathers and mothers, sweetly resting in foreign tombs marked by lonely wooden crosses; but the glad day will come, when you shall behold them, when loving arms shall embrace them evermore. "Eye hath not seen, ear hath not heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things that God hath prepared for them that love Him."

GRANDMOTHER WAS THE DRUGGIST

In the early days of our country grandmother was the druggist, and her drugs consisted mostly of roots and herbs gathered from the fields and forests. There was peppermint for indigestion, mullein for coughs, skullcap for nervousness, thoroughwort for colds, wormwood for bruises and sprains and so on. They were successful remedies, too. It was from a combination of such roots and herbs that Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., more than forty years ago, originated her now famous Vegetable Compound; and during all these long years no other remedy has ever been discovered to restore health to ailing women so successfully as this good old-fashioned root and herb medicine. —Adv.

Poch and Pershing, who were not seeking honor and personal advantage and whose unselfish spirit we should emulate.

Give thanks for the brave boys who themselves, but died that the new day might dawn. Give thanks for all the men and women, boys and girls who deemed themselves and with patriotic zeal contributed to the victory by their industry, their frugality and service. Thank God for the loving hearts and willing hands that have labored under the Red Cross. All these are worthy to be citizens in the new era.

Let us be more personal, and give thanks for our own home folks. To-day I am privileged to be at the old home and enjoy a regular Thanksgiving dinner with all the fixings. But that which makes the feast is not the food, but the love in the home. Very tasteless it would all be in an empty house. We are building a world where all homes are safe and sacred.

There is one alone worthy to lead in the building of this new government. He belongs to us all, citizen of the world and brother of men. He is wise and brave and kind and should be in every home and every heart on this Thanksgiving Day: "Not the Christ of our subtle creeds, But the Lord of our hearts, of our homes."

Of our hopes, our prayers, our needs. The brother of man and blame. The lover of women and men. With a passion that puts to shame All passions of mortal ken."

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after-effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

PLAN CONGRESS FOR UNITY OF CHURCH

A congress for church unity is to be held in Philadelphia December 3 to 6, attended by more than 100 representatives of leading Protestant denominations throughout the United States. This congress is the result of action taken by the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. through its general assembly at Columbus, O., that "We do declare and place on record our profound conviction that the time has come for organic church union of the Evangelical churches of America."

The aim of this movement is to make one federal church out of all these denominations, and the plan as unanimously adopted by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church carried with it the proposal of an inter-denominational council to map out the details. The various denominations were asked to cooperate and to send delegates to such a council, and the congress called to meet in Philadelphia for the purpose of formulating a plan of organic church union is the result. The movement had its inception in overtures made by various Presbyteries to the general assembly, showing, as Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, chairman, stated, "an earnest desire for church unity growing in power in the hearts of many, and a determined effort put forth to accomplish the same."

Ohio Corn King Raises 101.93 Bushels to Acre

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 28.—James B. Appel, of Lucasville, is Ohio's 1918 corn king. The College of Agriculture of Ohio State University announced that Mr. Appel is the only person to be elected this year to the 100 bushel Corn Club of Ohio. He raised an average of 101.93 bushels of corn to the acre on 10 acres.

WOUNDED IN FRANCE

OXFORD, O., Nov. 28.—David T. Parrish, engineer of the waterworks, yesterday received word that his son, John W. Parrish, U. S. Marine Corps, had been wounded in France. The young man's condition is not believed to be serious.

FLU AFFECTS TOWN

OXFORD, O., Nov. 28.—Influenza has broken out to an alarming extent in the village of Darrtown, five miles east of here. More than half the people in the town are afflicted, and there are many cases in the country roundabout. The village schools have been closed.

Thanksgiving

With the ending of the terrible struggle and days of strife that have darkened the world for four long years, every heart overflows with sincere thankfulness.

Let us give thanks that victory is ours—that our sacrifices have not been in vain—that our nation has been blessed with valorous sons—and for the boys over there, let us offer a prayer that ere another Thanksgiving dawns they will be safely home.
