

SEPARATION IS ASKED BY WIFE OF DAN G. REID

No Reason for Action Is Made Known—Couple Was Married in 1906.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Daniel G. Reid, the financier, of 907 Fifth Avenue, who is chairman of the Executive Committee of the Mayor's Committee of Welcome to Homecoming Troops, was sued in the Supreme Court yesterday for a separation by Mrs. Margaret M. Carrier Reid, his third wife, formerly an actress.

All facts concerning the ground for the suit were unobtainable yesterday because the only paper on file is a summons served on Mr. Reid at the Pennsylvania station on Friday. Mrs. Reid's lawyer, Robert H. Elder, declined to discuss the case before the court, and Mr. Reid could not be reached.

At Mr. Reid's Fifth Avenue residence it was said Mrs. Reid had not been there for some time and that it was not known where she was. She could not be found at the Reid country place, Richmond Terrace, at Irvington-on-Hudson.

Served at Station.
The summons filed yesterday bears an affidavit by Otto S. Bowling, a process server, who states that he met Mr. Reid at the Pennsylvania station on Friday at 2:05 p. m., when Mr. Reid was leaving the Washington Express. J. J. Loughlin, a former employee of Mr. Reid, pointed him out to the process server to make the identity certain.

"Mr. Reid was in company of a man I learned later was Dr. Stokes," said Bowling. "His arm was crossed over his chest, and I laid the summons on his arm. He looked at it and continued walking, and it fell to the floor. I told him, 'I have served you.' The paper is yours. I think you had better take it. It is nothing to me whether you do so or not."

The process server stated that Pennsylvania station usher followed Mr. Reid when he went to the street to enter his car, and handed him the summons, but it again fell to the sidewalk and remained there.

Miss Carrier became the third wife of the financier in 1906, two years after the sudden death of his second wife, who was Miss Clarice Agnew, also an actress. Mabel Carriero—as she was known on the stage—appeared in "The Chinese Honeymoon," "The Runaways," and just before her marriage in "The West Point Cadet," in which she had an important role. They returned from Europe where they had been seen together several months before. Mr. Reid admitted the marriage, but they came on different vessels, and would not admit the marriage at that time.

Mr. Reid's second marriage to Miss Clarice Agnew in 1900 was also contracted with great secrecy. His first wife died some years before that. His only surviving child, is Rhea Reid Topping, who became the wife of Henry J. Topping, son of John A. Topping, of the Republic Iron and Steel company in 1910. Mr. Reid transferred his city residence at 875 Fifth Avenue to his daughter in 1918. To the memory of the dead son Mr. Reid erected a hospital in his native city, Richmond, Ind., and also erected a church there in memory of his parents.

Mr. Reid's fortune is estimated at between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000.

Income Tax Slogans

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Slogans coined by the internal revenue bureau to stimulate early and full payment of income taxes reflect the changed conditions in which the taxpayer finds himself now that victory has been won and hostilities have ceased. The powers of autocracy have been defeated, but the monetary cost of the success still is to be met, largely by the taxes to be paid this year.

"Army of Occupation" sounds good but it needs your support," says one of the slogans. Then it asks, "Have you paid your income tax?"

Another classes an income tax receipt with a gold service stripe. Those who celebrated victory most loudly are reminded that "tooting a horn on armistice day did not end your part in winning a peace with victory. Paying your income tax makes more real noise than tooting a horn."

Persons who may be inclined to grumble at the increased rate of taxation are given food for thought in the following:

"If you think your income tax is a hardship, picture what you would have to stand up against had William Hohenzollern won the collectorship job."

Other slogans include: "You stand up for the National Anthem. Now stand up and pay your income tax."

There were no delinquents at Chattanooga, Tenn. Are you delaying the payment of your income tax?

"Don't try to fool your conscience by cheering the returning soldiers and forgetting to pay your income tax. An income tax evader hasn't much on any of the other pro-Germans."

"If you didn't serve over there you can serve over here by paying your income tax."

"When the boys come home they will ask what YOU have done. Show them your income tax receipt."

"When you pay your income tax you get a receipt from Uncle Sam. What would have William Hohenzollern handed you?"

"Uncle Sam still has a big job ahead of him. Help him by paying your income tax now."

ERNEST LEHMAN IS PRAISED FOR CARE OF WOUNDED MEN

The bravery shown by ambulance men in the war is lauded by Major C. E. McClelland of Columbus, now in France, in an article written by Harry F. Busey, foreign correspondent for the Columbus Citizen, in a recent edition of that paper.

Private Ernest C. Lehman, a Richmond boy, is mentioned for his efficiency in caring for the wounded in a street attack. The story is told by Corporal Lee Shouts, who was in charge of a little squad near where shells killed eighteen men of the 148th Infantry in a street in Orlene. He said: "We had to walk over the dead to get to the wounded. Private Ernest C. Lehman set up a dressing station when the regular station was overloaded in the Argonne, and handled 50 cases in an hour."

Lehman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lehman, 218 North Eighth street.

Patsy Sez:

Who'd a thot we would sell a ton of candy Saturday at our sale?

A ton is a whole lot of candy and nobody was as sorry as we when we ran out at 2 o'clock and had to disappoint hundreds, but honest, folks, we didn't look for so many of you.

Thanks for coming and while we ran out we know a lot of people are going to enjoy themselves today and next time we'll make two tons.
