FINAL AND LAST CALL

This Old Established Store Bids You Its Last Farewell---Good-bye Forever!

I am positively going out of business, the entire stock and all fixtures must be sold by Saturday, April 12th--this store will pass out of existence

One of the oldest established stores in the State of Indiana is soon to "pass from your midst" and become a closed chapter in the history of retailing: The Railroad Store will close its doors forever on Saturday, April 12th. To our army of loyal friends I say "Good-Bye" with personal regrets but proud in the knowledge that I have never betrayed the confidence you have at all times so unhesitatingly given us. This is an absolute bona fide going out of business sale and it will eclipse anything ever attempted by us, or any other merchant in the country, for it is only under a like condition that it is possible to practically give goods away. The personal and intimate relations that exist between a live store and its hosts of patrons is the hardest link to break when this store goes out of business. The friends our merchandise and low prices have made for us are not easy to part with, but I am going out of their midst with a bargain celebration that in the future will bring back fond memories.

I will close my career in Richmond with extreme gratitude by offering everything in the big store at positively the lowest prices ever known for the business must be wound up by Saturday night, April 12th. It is a wholesale slaughter, such as has never been attempted before. I have sold you goods, reliable merchandise, cheap for the past three years, and now I ask your assistance in the hour of need. I am on my knees begging you to exchange a dollar for $2.00 to $5.00 worth of merchandise, in spite of a high market and high prices. A DYING MAN WILL GRASP AT A STRAW—I only have ten days to dispose of my entire stock and extreme radical measures must and will be adopted. I will guarantee every transaction absolutely, for I want to leave Richmond with a clear record. The example that I have set in Richmond for the past three years I am grossly proud of. It is with much regret and disappointment that I make this announcement. Scan the prices quoted in this advertisement carefully—use the good common sense with which nature has endowed you—then decide whether in justice to yourself and family, you can miss this golden opportunity by attending this final and last call of this Going Out Of Business Sale.
