TOOK 375 PRISONERS WITH TWO SHOTS

Sergt. Harry J. Adams.

Three hundred and seventy-five German prisoners with two shots in the war record written after Sergt. Harry J. Adams' name. He performed that feat at Bouillonville in the salient of St. Mihiel. His lieutenant had taken eighty prisoners and ordered Adams to see if there were any more in town. He saw a German run into a house, and dashing after him, entered just in time to see the fugitive go through a trap door in the wall. Sergeant Adams had only two shots in his automatic. He fired them both through the door and ordered the German to come out. The Boche came, and after him, one lieutenant colonel, eighteen staff officers and 355 soldiers. This story is from the official records which recommend Sergeant Adams for the Croix de Guerre. He was among the first 700 American soldiers to arrive in France. His home is in Rochester, New York.

SOCIETY ATTENDS WEDDING OF U. S. GIRL AND ITALIAN COUNT

The most fashionable wedding of any consequence which has stirred the four hundred recently is that of Miss Edith Mortimer and Conte Mario Pancia di Zoppola of Italy. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mortimer of Roslyn, L. I. Many society leaders were present to congratulate the couple. Among some of the more prominent were Mrs. Morgan Belmont, Jr., who was formerly Margaret Andrews, and Miss Leonie Burrill. Miss Burrill is seen smoking on the lawn, after the ceremony, which seems to be a custom which American society is copying from the British.
