

REDS PLAY SIX GAMES IN THREE DAYS AT N. Y.

Lead is Strengthened When Cincinnati Wins and Giants Lose Sunday.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 11.—With one more game at home, and a five and a half game lead, the Reds will leave Monday night for New York, there to do battle in six games with the Proteas, John, and his slugging champions. They defeated the Phillies in the third straight game, at the local lot Sunday afternoon, after thirteen innings of hard play, in which Meadows and Ring did some mighty fine slab work. Twenty-two thousand fans collected at Red Park to witness the third downfall of the Phillies. Meadows pitched strong ball all the way through and in one inning only did he weaken to any great extent. His wild pitch in the thirteenth, would not have meant a run, had it not been for the ground rules, adopted because of the large crowd.

See Pennant in View.

With Sunday's victory, the Reds finished one of the most successful weeks of the season. They started the week, with barely a lead on their rivals, the Giants, but with John's crew skidding toward oblivion the Reds skimming along with victories, the lead has now assumed comfortable proportions, and with the same steady brand of baseball, the pennant should belong to Pat Moran's athletes.

Only twice during the entire week, did the Reds fall to come through with a good clean victory. Barnes gave the Giants their only victory in Cincinnati, and Lieut. Leon Cadore, took the Reds down for Brooklyn, later in the week.

The Reds scored 35 runs during the week, with fifteen runs scored by visiting teams against Pat's men. While they were scoring 35 markers, the Giants, on the other hand, could only manage to get away with 16, and gave 24 to their opponents. The Reds hit safely 64 times during the week, Brooklyn and Chicago having better records with 64 and 55, respectively.

Have Utility Men.

During their eastern trip, Manager Moran has safeguarded, as far as possible, his team's strength. Smith and Scheiber will care for any accidents in the infield, and See, with Barnes, can look after the extra garden work. Bresler is again on the Reds' pitching staff. The Reds will play six games against New York on this trip, with several other double headers, and Manager Moran is anxious that he have a full pitching staff as possible.

The next appearance of the Reds at home, after Monday's game, will be on August 31, when they stop off for one game with Pittsburgh, on their way through to continue the battle in the west. After the two trips, the Reds play the greater part of the remaining games at home.

Monday's game was brought forward from September 8, in order that the Phillies might have a chance on that date for a double bill with the Giants. Manager Moran has announced that he will use Hod Eller to open the contest, and Cravath will probably start with Eppa Rixey.

MINNER SHUTS OUT INDIANAPOLIS NINE; SCORE IS 6 TO 0

Pete Minner's delivery, ala Sheriff Slim Sallee, was too much for the Indianapolis All Stars, and the latter team was defeated at Exhibition Park Sunday afternoon, 6 to 0. Minner allowed the visitors to hit the ball when they wanted to, but he soon picked them off the bases.

Richmond put up a good stiff game on both offense and defense, and with the exception of the first and seventh innings, the All Stars had little opportunity to score. Minner allowed his opponents eight hits, but none of these were sufficiently bunched to prove dangerous.

The Quakers scored their first runs in the second on two hits, a walk and a passed ball, and in the next inning, added two more in exactly the same manner. The visitors weakened in the sixth, and with a pair of errors and a single, the Quakers scored two more.

The All Stars failed to show strongly against the Quaker ball tossers and many of the fans were disappointed with the poor exhibition given by the Indianapolis nine.

The boys were able to hit, but were unable to run when once they got to first. Five men were caught napping off the bags. The score:

FOOTBALL TEAM IS PLANNED FOR CITY

With enough men to form one team already signed up as willing to play, football enthusiasts in Richmond are planning to put a Quaker grid team in the field next fall, to compete for state honors.

A number of Richmond men received good training in football while in the service, and the backers of the team are anxious that these men try out, in case the plan is carried through.

Among the men already signed up are E. Ashinger, C. Taylor, E. Hale, W. Rainey, H. Clarke, J. Holmes, H. Logan, J. Logan, M. Sheridan, W. Webb, R. Reese, and O. Craycraft.

These men should form the nucleus for a strong team, and with the service men, Richmond should be able to organize an eleven that would go far in taking state semi-pro honors.

Men anxious to get in the game are requested to leave their names at the E. & E. Cigar store, with Taylor. A meeting will be called soon, for the purpose of organization, and to obtain financial backing.

The pressure of the water automatically shuts and stops a new electric pump for private plants.
