

News of Society

Miss Muriel Mashmeyer and Miss Marguerite Deuker entertained a large party of girls with a picnic supper last evening at the home of Miss Deuker. Following the supper the girls formed a theatre party and attended the Washington theatre. Those present were Miss Verna Swisher, Miss Rosella Elstro, Miss Iva McNutt, Miss Bernice Layman, Miss Agnes Letta, Miss Helen Hasty, Miss Vivian Harding, Miss Catherine Smith, Miss Irene Evans, Miss Helen Firth, Miss Henrietta Hovelmer, Miss Julia Von Pein, Miss Ruth Walters, Miss Fern Homan, Miss Marguerite Deuker, Miss Muriel Mashmeyer, Miss Norene Cheneveth, Miss Louise Marshall, Miss Lorene Shissler, Miss Frances Roser, Miss Mary Kirwan of New York City, Miss Lillian Genn, Miss Emily Parker, Miss Frances Owens, Miss Frieda Lohman, Miss Bertha Karcher, Miss Rhoda Porter, Miss Teresa Crabb, Miss Myrtle Ferrell, Miss Florence McManus, Miss Edith Hollingsworth, and Miss Mildred Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Barnes celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Tuesday at their home in Fountain City. Their granddaughter, Mrs. Elmer Burg arranged the celebration and was hostess during the day. At noon an elaborate dinner was served in the dining room, which was decorated with bouquets of golden glow and yellow daisies. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wooster and daughter, Myrtle, Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wooster, all of Fountain City, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Anne Moore and son Everett of Richmond, Mrs. May Kelley Long of Fairmount, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Taylor of Hagerstown, Will Heagy and family of Claypool, Ind., Mrs. Flora Heagy of Warsaw, Mrs. Etta Ridenbaugh of Pierceton, and Mrs. Kimble and daughter, Katherine, of Centerville.

As a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Davis, who leave soon for residence in Des Moines, Io., Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Smith will entertain informally this evening at their home on South Seventeenth street. A six o'clock dinner will be enjoyed and later a reception for U. C. T. members and their wives will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pullman and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Elstro and daughter, Cecilia, will motor to Columbus, O., where they will spend the weekend.

Miss Virginia Bates, of Indianapolis, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mettie Ratcliffe, on Northwest Fifth street, and other relatives.

The Senior Luther League of Trinity Lutheran church will meet this evening with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rosa at their home on South Tenth street. A full attendance is desired.

Miss Mildred Ramsey, of Columbus City, is the guest of Miss Mary Loring at her home on South Fourteenth street. Miss Ramsey formerly lived in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Victor Barth have returned here after a month's visit in Logansport.

Joseph and Carl Smith have returned from a bicycle trip to Indianapolis, where they visited their cousins, Frank Heeb. While there they enjoyed a number of picnics and swimming parties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Engelbert of Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wright of St. Louis, who were motoring through here Sunday, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Engelbert of South Sixth street and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Personette, on Boyer street.

The Junior class of the Whitewater Methodist church will give a negro farce "The Dispelling of Big Jim" at Laurel hall, Saturday evening. Following the play a musical program will be given an an ice cream social enjoyed. A small admittance will be charged and the public is cordially invited. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used for the centenary fund.

Mrs. Elgin Wood and children, George and Melba of Billings, Okla., Mrs. Daniel Habaker of Berne, Ind., and Mrs. Sol Mosier of Willshire, O., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Christman at their home on Kinsey street.

Mrs. Millard Warfel was hostess for a meeting of the Penny club yesterday afternoon at her home on South Tenth street. Following the business meeting, Miss Glenn Miller entertained the women with readings and violin selections, her mother playing her accompaniments. A two course luncheon was served. The club will meet two weeks with Mrs. R. J. Wigmore at her home on Ridge street.

Social No. 9 of the Pythian Sisters will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Huber at her home, 101 North Fourteenth street.

The McCashland-Shank family reunion will be held Sunday at Glen Miller park. A picnic dinner will be served at noon. All relatives are invited to attend.

The regular meeting of the Maumee Council of Pocahontas will be held Saturday evening. The social which was previously announced has been postponed for two weeks.

The Universalist Mission circle met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Whitley at her home on South Eighteenth street. Mrs. Rachel Owen was leader for the afternoon, the subject being "Should the Churches Unite?" The guest of the afternoon was Mrs. Harter and daughter of Maze, Ind. Refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by her granddaughters, Miss Ullum and Miss Harter. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Owens at her home on North Twenty-first street.

Miss Marie Kauffman has arrived here from Boston, Mass., where she has been taking a course at Sargent's Physical Training school. After a short visit here with her mother, she will return to Kenmore, N. Y., where she taught last year.

Miss Emily Fletcher who has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in France has finished her work and has been enjoying a vacation in southern France. Miss Fletcher has now signed up with the Friends' Reconstruction unit and will remain in France. She will be located at or near Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp will give their regular dance at Cedar Spring hotel tomorrow evening.

Miss Virginia Bates, of Indianapolis, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mettie Ratcliffe, on Northwest Fifth street, and other relatives.

The Senior Luther League of Trinity Lutheran church will meet this evening with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rosa at their home on South Tenth street. A full attendance is desired.

Miss Mildred Ramsey, of Columbus City, is the guest of Miss Mary Loring at her home on South Fourteenth street. Miss Ramsey formerly lived in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Victor Barth have returned here after a month's visit in Logansport.

Joseph and Carl Smith have returned from a bicycle trip to Indianapolis, where they visited their cousins, Frank Heeb. While there they enjoyed a number of picnics and swimming parties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Engelbert of Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wright of St. Louis, who were motoring through here Sunday, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Engelbert of South Sixth street and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Personette, on Boyer street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Valdois who have recently moved to their new home on South Sixth street were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by a party of neighbors and friends who came with baskets of lunch. The evening was spent in playing euchre at five tables, the favors going to Mrs. Howard Geier and Mrs. Joseph Stolle. Late in the evening an elaborate picnic supper was served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Siekman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Geier, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stolle, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Geier, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckshut, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Morell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farwig, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sostmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Calling, Mrs. Peter Geier, Mrs. Anna Weiss, Mrs. Martha Torbeck, and Miss Nord.

The Ben Hur Lodge will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in Vaughn Hall. Following the regular meeting a dance will be given for members and their friends. Special music will be provided for the dance.

Paul Price will leave in a few weeks for Los Angeles, Cal., to join his wife and little daughter in a visit with Mrs. Price's mother, Mrs. Alice Ellison. Mr. and Mrs. Price and daughter will return in September.

The Jolly Trolley club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Reigle. All members brought their needlework. A two course luncheon was served. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Clifford Thomas, Mrs. William Germon and her daughter Marguerite, all of Cincinnati, who are the guests of Mrs. Frank Brown.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

CZECHS SEEK AID OF U. S. DIRECTOR OF CHILD WELFARE

Miss Julia C. Lathrop.

Those who received the favors at the bridge party given yesterday at the Country club by Mrs. Walter Engle and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Magaw were Mrs. Robert Study, first; Mrs. Willard Carr, second; Mrs. Burton Carr, fourth; Mrs. Herbert Lahr, fifth; and Miss Anne Nicholson, consolation. At six o'clock dinner was served at small tables which were appointed with baskets of garden flowers. Covers were laid for fifty persons, the out of town guests being Mrs. Herbert Lahr of Evansville and Mrs. Erne Fliner of Chicago.

Miss Emily Fletcher who has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in France has finished her work and has been enjoying a vacation in southern France. Miss Fletcher has now signed up with the Friends' Reconstruction unit and will remain in France. She will be located at or near Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kolp will give their regular dance at Cedar Spring hotel tomorrow evening.

Miss Virginia Bates, of Indianapolis, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mettie Ratcliffe, on Northwest Fifth street, and other relatives.

The Senior Luther League of Trinity Lutheran church will meet this evening with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rosa at their home on South Tenth street. A full attendance is desired.

Miss Mildred Ramsey, of Columbus City, is the guest of Miss Mary Loring at her home on South Fourteenth street. Miss Ramsey formerly lived in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Victor Barth have returned here after a month's visit in Logansport.

Joseph and Carl Smith have returned from a bicycle trip to Indianapolis, where they visited their cousins, Frank Heeb. While there they enjoyed a number of picnics and swimming parties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Engelbert of Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wright of St. Louis, who were motoring through here Sunday, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Engelbert of South Sixth street and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Personette, on Boyer street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Valdois who have recently moved to their new home on South Sixth street were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by a party of neighbors and friends who

Franchise League News

The legislatures of Wyoming, Colorado, South Dakota, Utah, Arizona and California, will soon meet in special session for ratification of the federal amendment. These are all full suffrage states, where the political interests of women are of as much importance as those of men.

In order to secure ratification of the amendment before the next general election, special sessions of the legislatures of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Maine, Minnesota, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Tennessee, Vermont, Washington and West Virginia will be necessary, as these states have no regular session until 1921.

Mrs. Olive Belden Lewis has completed the organization of a new Franchise League at Danville, Ind. The high standing of the following officers, who were elected, bespeaks success for the new league: President, Mrs. W. A. King; first vice president, Mrs. J. W. Thompson; second vice president, Mrs. Alvah Hall; secretary, Miss Elsie McLane; treasurer, Mrs. John Taylor. Mrs. Joseph Ferree, of Danville, will continue in the office of Hendricks county chairman.

The Jolly Trolley club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Reigle. All members brought their needlework. A two course luncheon was served. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Clifford Thomas, Mrs. William Germon and her daughter Marguerite, all of Cincinnati, who are the guests of Mrs. Frank Brown.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by the Franchise League when Governor Goodrich had promised to call a special session of the legislature for this month or next, will proceed with their work, notwithstanding the governor's change of plans.

The Indianapolis League will hold a "Citizenship School" during the latter part of September. Mrs. Walter Greenough will be general chairman, acting in conjunction with Miss Sara Lauter, president of the Indianapolis League. Leagues from all parts of the state will send representatives to this school, in order that they may fit themselves to take up similar work in various parts of the state. A sort of normal course will be given, and the women taught ward and precinct organization, parliamentary law, methods of voting, etc. Special accommodations will be arranged in Indianapolis for the women attending the school who have no place to visit

for the school.

The "Citizenship Schools" planned for by