GRAIN QUOTATIONS

WAGNER'S GRAIN LETTER

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Food raids have had a serious effect on the buying power in corn; in addition, hogs do not rally, closing from 50 to 75 cents lower. Foreign exchange is weak and the accord with signs that private credits to Europe are a certainty. This looks to be the most serious news of the season. It will cut the big exports that have run the United States credits up, which has been such a fierce boomerang, causing high United States costs and uneasiness. About 14 percent of the corn states received rain the past forty-eight hours. Oats sentiment is bullish but the corn feeling is mixed and uneasy. There are too many eggs, butter and cheese rales. Fine rains all around Toledo.
