

BRINGING UP FATHER

DISHER FUNERAL
TO BE THURSDAY
IN LEWISBURG

Dead Man Well Known—Had Been Preble School Teacher for Years.

EATON, O., Aug. 20.—Funeral services for Leonidas Disher, 66, well-known former educator of Preble county, and a lifelong resident of the county, who died Monday at St. Elizabeth hospital, Dayton, following an operation, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Lewisburg.
Burial will be at Lewisburg.

Mr. Disher, who had been ailing for several days, was rushed to the hospital Sunday. Shock, following the operation, resulted in his death.

Mr. Disher was born near Lewisburg. For many years he was a school teacher, but retired some years ago and had been living more or less a retired life. Last year, owing to the shortage of teachers, due to the war, Mr. Disher taught in the public schools. It was expected he would teach the coming school term.

At one time Mr. Disher was superintendent of the Lewisburg schools and later was superintendent of schools at West Alexandria. He had been a member of the county board of teacher examiners.

Mr. Disher was a Mason and an Odd Fellow. Politically, he was a Republican.

Surviving members of his immediate family are his wife and daughter, Miss Leona. A sister, Mrs. Susan Fritz, lives in Lewisburg. Another sister, Mrs. Seymour Singer, resides in Dayton.

Aviators Land in City.
When their fuel supply gave out, G.
E. Coombs, accompanied by another aviator, both of Austin, Tex., were forced to land their airplane in a field on the farm of J. E. Bruce, adjacent to the city on the south, early Monday evening, and they passed the night in Eaton.

Aviator Coombs and his companion had visited Dayton during the day and had set out for Indianapolis, where they will make their headquarters while staging exhibition flights in the section of the country, they said.

Both aviator Coombs and his companion are ex-military aviation service men and have received their discharge from service and are touring in an airplane, their private property.

Previous to their departure for Indianapolis about noon Tuesday, the aviators gave Mr. Bruce, on whose farm they landed, an air ride of about a half hour's duration. He declared it a wonderful experience and says he enjoys it immensely.

It is understood that the aviators may be engaged to stage and exhibition flights in the county tobacco growers' picnic Friday at the fair grounds.

Miami Educator Speaks.

In addition to addressed by Dr. Hall-Quest, of Cincinnati, and Dr. Schmucker, of West Chester, Pa., regular lecturers for the week, Prof. W. S. Guller, of Miami University, and Miss Mabel Nichol, of Ohio State university, delivered addresses here today before the Preble County Teachers' Institute, which has been in session since Monday and will close Friday afternoon.

Prof. Guller spoke before the institutute on the subject of "Better Salaries for Teachers." Miss Nichol's address dealt with "School Lunches."

Dr. Hall-Quest's subjects for the day were: "Personality of the Teacher," and "Some Problems in English"; "The Toad and His Cousin," and "The Meaning of a Fruit," furnished the themes for Dr. Schmucker's addresses.

Dr. Schmucker conducted devotional exercises at the opening of the morning session. Miss Margaret Burke gave two readings as a part of the afternoon program.

Scheiser Made President.

L. F. Scheiser has been re-elected president of the Preble County Teachers' association, which meets quarterly each year at some point in the county. Zelma Roberts has been elected secretary and Walter Waggoner treasurer. Perry S. Potts, Arthur R.
Pletsinger and Clara Smith comprise the executive committee.

If the following testimonial is not genuine and unsolicited:

"Dear Sir—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write you recommending your Wonderful Ear Oil. My mother has been deaf for over 20 years, and she used two bottles of your oil, and yesterday, for the first time in over 20 years, she heard Berry's Band play in Hemming Park, here. Words are inadequate to express to you the thanks of mother and myself. I am a member of the theatrical profession and very well and favorably known here, and you can use my name in recommending your Ear Oil."

"Yours gratefully,

The Theatres

WASHINGTON.

Pauline Frederick's latest Goldwyn picture, "The Peace of Roaring River," presents the star in a role where no feminine star add to the sympathy which her tribulations arouse. The exquisite gown which Miss Frederick wears with such perfection of grace that they seem to be a part of her, are absent. The beautiful, stately carriage of the woman who knows only the finest and softest sides of life, nowhere intrude to softten the realities of "The Peace of Roaring River."

Only her superb ability as an actress carries her through one of the most difficult roles she has ever essayed.
That she acquires herself most admirably is evident to anyone who sees her at the Washington theatre, where her new Goldwyn production is to be shown today and tomorrow.

"His Bridal Night," a rollicking, breezy farce, in which Select Pictures presents charming Alice Brady as the star, will be seen on Friday and Saturday at the Washington theatre.

It is the story of Vi and Tiny, twins—in form and feature only. Tiny, to teach her flirtatious sister a lesson, runs off with her husband on their bridal night, much to the chagrin of Vi. Vi had thought that her husband was a bully and that she really did not love him until she found that she no longer had him. This picture has more action than a ship on a rough sea.

MURRAY.

Peggy Hyland knows enough about safes to realize that they are not safe at all.

"I wouldn't keep my money in a safe for anything in the world," declared the William Fox star. "Safes are too easy to crack, I know, because I have cracked a safe myself. Since then I have decided to stick to the hosier national bank." She swung her arms as she added: "You just let me see any burglar try to get at that!"

Peggy Hyland's safe cracking exploit was performed for "Cheating Herself," the comedy which is now showing at the Murray theatre.

MURRETT

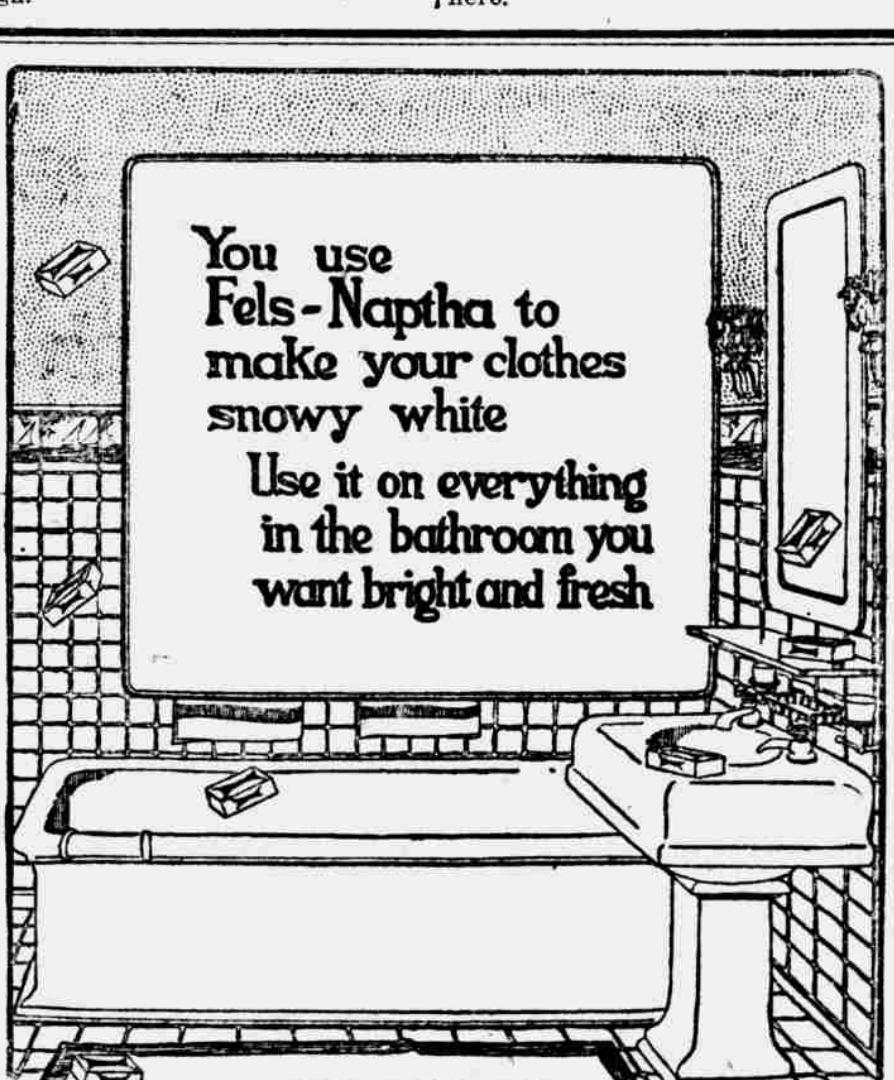

In her newest Paramount picture,
"You Never Saw Such a Girl," Vivian Martin is almost a feminine version of the Beloved Vagabond. As a little child she is left parentless with an old farming couple who later die and she, with an old maid school teacher, a dog, a cat and shotgun, starts forth in a dilapidated automobile to hunt for a grandmother. She finds instead, love, adventure, romance and riches.

This picture will be seen at the Murrette theatre today and Thursday, and it is certain to prove wholly delightful. Robert Vignola directed the production, which was adapted by Marion Fairfax from a novel by George Weston, "The Kingdom of Hart's Desire."

In the cast appears Harrison Ford, as leading man, with a fine company of players.
