

SALLEE MAY BE CHOICE AGAINST RUDOLPH TODAY

Reds Fall Back Half a Game, Although Winning, When Giants Take Two.

RED-GIANT STANDING.
 Reds 74 L. 585 638 679

 BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 21.—Pat Moran and his driving Redlegs proved themselves to be no respecter of persons in the opener with the Braves here Wednesday afternoon, and after pounding Casey and Demaree for all the hits they needed, they relented and allowed the Braves two runs in the ninth, the game ending 10 to 3. Every man on the Cincinnati team got a hit, and Roush led the procession with a home run and a triple, in four attempts.

Walter Ruether was pitching in his best form, and the Braves were helpless after the second inning, when a scratch hit and sacrifice fly scored one run. Walter held the Braves until the ninth, then he relented a little, and allowed the Braves to get in two runs. Only six hits were made off him.

Rudolph vs. Sallee.
 Thursday, the Reds open the second contest of the final series here, and Manager Stallings, of the Braves, has announced that he will send in Dick Rudolph against the mighty swat-smiths of Redville.

Manager Moran will either use Sallee or Fisher, depending on whether or not, Sheriff Slim is sufficiently recovered to start the game. Ray Fisher has turned in shutouts in the last two starts he has made, and unless the Sheriff of Higginsport feels equal to the occasion, Ray will probably be Pat's choice.

In this way Manager Moran hopes to have Jimmie Ring ready for the opener at Philadelphia, and then he will be able to start his first stringer through the mill again in regular order.

A large delegation of fans from Fitchburg attended the game Wednesday in honor of their native son, whom they believe will pilot the National league champions through the world series. Wednesday's scores at New York and Boston:

St. Louis Fans Order 200 Seats for Cincy Series

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 21.—Prominent St. Louis sportsmen are no certain Cincinnati will win the National league pennant. They have requested Garry Hermann, president of the Reds, to reserve 200 seats for them for the world series, and have opened negotiations with the railroads to charter a special train for the contemplated trip.

Says Pat to McGraw, "Haw, Haw!" Pennant Not Won Yet, But Reds Are so Far Out in Front Only Miracle Can Beat Them Now

If the city on the Ohio river walks off with the National league gonfalon this season John McGraw will stand out as the most generous gent of the season. For he can then be given credit for having given away a pennant.

Last spring President Baker of the Phillies decided that he could get the maximum added interest in his club this season for the least money if he just fired Pat Moran and hired somebody else as manager.

The fact that Pat Moran won a pennant for him in 1915 with Grover Alexander, Wade Killifer and seven other uniforms was forgotten. He just told Pat to leave the key to his locker at the clubhouse.

Pat went home for a few days and then looked around for something to do this summer. McGraw had several young pitchers that needed tutoring, so he hired Pat as coach of the rookie hurlers.

Garry Makes Pat Offer
 Then one day Garry Herrmann, president of the Reds, asked Moran to come to the city of forlorn hopes and lead the Reds.

So Pat packed up again and hit the trail—for oblivion, most folks thought. Cincinnati laid down their hammers, handy by, and gave Pat a chance.

Now the Cincinnati club has the inside track on the pennant. And, giving due credit to the players of the club, it has been namely Moran's personality, his all-round baseball ability and his keen leadership that has put the Redlegs where they are.

While many rabid fans around the National league circuit and even in the American league are giving the pennant to Moran now, the Cincinnati fans and sport writers are taking a very sane view of the situation and have not conceded the flag to their club.

How Cincinnati Fans Feel

land when he says:

"It is much too early to begin erecting the flagpole at Redland field. The fans all have complete confidence in Manager Moran and his men, but the games must be won on the diamond and not in the lobbies of hotels or other public places. The Reds still have games to play with the Cubs, who think they have a possible chance for second place. Our boys will therefore have to keep on going at a fast clip and that is their intention and ambition. The team may well inspire confidence, for it is well handled and all the boys are keyed up to a winning notch."

The Giants are still a dangerous contender. But the boys have a lot of confidence in their manager and in one another, which means a great deal in a hard struggle like this.

If the team can hold its own for the next two weeks and come home in first place or within a game or two of that admirable position, it is reasonably sure to make a powerful finish, for the skill, speed and courage are there and will not be denied.

VETERAN WITH EXPERIENCE VS. YOUTH WITH STRENGTH, WHEN JACK MEETS MIKE

Jack Britton, cleverest of world's champions, and Mike O'Dowd, rugged slugger with a punch, are to meet in the ring at Newark, N. J., August 22. The impending bout has reopened the fight fans' favorite discussion as to the respective merits of scientific boxing as opposed to awkward but powerful slugging.

High Cost of Sports Is Added to H. C. L., 25 Per Cent Increases in Effect

Sporting goods, not to be outdone by other living necessities, have made a general advance in price of about 25 per cent over last season. Football suits and equipment are up 25%. Polo balls have increased 35% and polo sticks about 30%.

Basket balls, basket ball suits, football supplies and sweaters, have all made about the same general advance in price of about 25%, while ice skates and roller skates have contributed a 15% increase to the high cost of sports. Top on basket balls this year will be $12.00.

Rifles, shotguns and ammunition have made only about 10% increase.

LEADERS OF S. A. L. CLASH SATURDAY FOR LAST CONTEST

SCHEDULE FOR SATURDAY

A. S. M. vs. Stars.
 Swayne-Robinsons vs. Wayne Works.

For the fourth (and perhaps the last time of the season) the leaders and runners-up of the S. A. L. league will clash in the first game Saturday afternoon at Exhibition park.

So far this season the Seeders have had the best of the argument with the Stars, having won two and lost one, while one argument was interrupted by rain.

The Stars claim that they are going to even up the score this time and hand the Seeders a good trimming, and there is gloom in the A. S. M. factory, for their star hurler, Rus Hawekotte, is out of the game with an injured arm and will be unable to pitch any more this season.

This leaving the pitching to Fitzgibbons and Runnels. Munner and Sturm will hurl for the Stars.

A good battle is expected in the second game, when the Wayne Works and Swayne-Robinsons, the cellar chumps, meet for the last time this season. Madge, who has been pitching good ball lately, will be on the mound for the Wayne Works, and Garthwaite will pitch for the Swayne-Robinsons.

CHILLY CLOUDS HOLD NO TERRORS FOR THESE SCANTILY CLAD WATER NYMPHS

Lieut. Walter Hinton, pilot of the NC-4, about to take two sea-nymphs for a joyride over New York city.

Lieut. Walter Hinton, who was pilot of the NC-4 on the epoch-making trans-Atlantic flight, recently enjoyed a new adventure. He flew over New York city with two of Mack Sennett's bathing beauties. The "Seagull," in which the flight was made, is to start on a tour of the states for the purpose of making maps of the U. S. waterways. These water nymphs look as if they thoroughly enjoyed the thoughts of a sojourn in the air.

HEFTY LINE-UP TO FACE AMERICANS IN SUNDAY'S CONTEST

In preparation for Sunday's game with the strong Dayton Americans, Manager Sam Vignar of the Quakers, announced that he had secured the services of Hill, the heavy hitting outfielder, who played with Richmond earlier in the season to play right field.

John Logan, the star second baseman of the locals, will be out of the city Sunday, but his brother, Herbie, will hold down second, with Cy Fitzgibbons on short.

Reddinghaus, who has been out of the game for sometime, will be back on this base, and with an infield composed of Holmes, Logan, Fitzgibbons and Reddinghaus, with Dehner in left field, Cooney in center and Hill in right, while Pete Munner is showing the ball across the plate for Gray to receive. Vignar says to bring on the Americans!

The Richmond Exhibition company, announced that the diamond at Exhibition park will be in splendid shape for Sunday's game and all traces of the recent carnival had been removed.
