CONSOLIDATION OF SCHOOLS WILL BE DECIDED OCT. 7

Jackson Township Voters Will Choose Central School or Present System.

Final vote on the consolidation of Jackson township schools will be taken on October 7, according to C. O. Williams, county superintendent of schools.

At this time, taxpayers of the township will decide on whether or not the present school system, with six district schools, will be supplanted by a consolidated school system with grade schools in Cambridge City and Pershing, and a junior high school, and high school in Cambridge City.

The majority of Jackson township residents are in favor of the consolidation, as it not only lessens the school expenses but adds to the efficiency of the teaching force, as the teachers may be paid higher salaries, and may specialize in particular work, said Williams.

The increased use of the automobile has been responsible for the steady decline in the number of district schools, according to Williams, who expressed the opinion Thursday that the time is not far distant when the district school will be a thing of the past and the entire county will use the consolidated system.

At present there are 32 district schools in the county, including about 15 in Wayne township. Districts are not so great, according to Williams, but that the school children could be taken to and from school in motor trucks, or automobiles in the same or less time than is required to get to and from the district schools now and the upkeep of the automobiles would be more than the lessened expense of maintaining the schools.

"I am particularly interested in the consolidation of Wayne township schools, with those in the city of Richmond, and I believe the time is not far distant when this consolidation will be effected," Williams said.

"With the building of two Junior High schools in Richmond, there will be no place in the township more than four miles from a school house, and with an automobile, this is a negligible distance."

Under the plan for the Jackson township schools, the junior high school plans are now being prepared and will be submitted to the school corporation this fall. The only portion of Jackson township that will not be joined with the consolidated system is the corporation of Dublin.

Lincoln Leaguers Will Hold Meet Next Month

County chairmen of the Indiana Lincoln league will hold a meeting some time this month, or early in September, for the purpose of forming plans for the next campaign, according to Clem McConaha, chairman of the Wayne county league.

Although the exact date of the meeting has been announced, McConaha said Thursday that he expected a call from the state committee this week, giving the date and place of the meeting.

GRAIN QUOTATIONS

WAGNER'S GRAIN LETTER
CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The grain markets remain narrow; hogs have been firm for two days. Corn crop news indicates a record crop in the north, though Kansas has been hard hit. The government's move to investigate food prices remains a check. Outside buying power is light. Oats particularly are held by the lack of export sales, and the cold, hard buying in Europe looks as if Europe will use her small credits for the purchase of wheat. Locals are friendly.
