

WILLIAMS GETS $6,045 FROM 41 HEAD OF HOGS

Big Type Poland Chinas Bring Good Prices at Williamsburg Sale.

By WILLIAM R. SANBORN.
If you are a Big Type China fancier and were present at the Frank A. Williams Mid-Summer Sale, near Williamsburg, on Monday, you either arrived very early and secured a seat, or found the performers playing to standing room only. The new vitrified tile sales pavilion was packed to the doors before the sale opened, and a number of Big Type men were present from outside states, or were represented by the auctioneer and field men. $6,045 was paid for 41 head.

Jumbo Giants, dating from August, 1917, was the first to show, followed by Defender Maid, Giantess Clara, Miller's Maid and Victoria L. These five prime favorites being disposed of, the sale was on to a finish.

What Topliners Brought.
Jumbo Giantess, the first to find a new home, is not to leave Wayne county, Walter Fulghum insured that by paying $250 for her. Defender Maid will also remain in Wayne among her relatives in the Jones and Pike collection at Centerville; consideration $300. John Meeks, of Shelbyville, Indiana, invested $250 in Giantess Clara and $310 in Miller's Maid, and was therewith content.

Victoria L. was shaded a fraction by W. F. Parks, of Kitchell, Indiana, who secured his prize for $205. When Fairfield Maiden showed Jones and Pike went gunning for her at an expense of $310. These six were the topliners of the collection.
Numbers 39 and 40 to sell, twin girls, farrowed November 18th, looked so good to C. D. Keller, of La Crosse, Ind., that he bid $145 for choice and took both at the sale money. These were awaiting registry when the catalog was compiled.

Number 11, Fairfield Kate, a yearling, cost Porter Pike $195, while Leander Lass, also a yearling, cost W. G. Brawley, of New Paris, $170. J. L. Dyer, of Madisonville, Tenn., also spent exactly $70 for Fashion Queen, while J. A. Shelton, an Indianan, climbed up to $215 for Fairfield Queen, a full sister to Mr. Johnson's purchase.

Johnson Quigg, of Winchester, was among the high bidders, paying $250 for Fairfield's Lady and was also awarded Model Lady for just half that money. J. D. Woodward, of Jonesville, Virginia, paid $170 for Nancy Crow, his top purchase.

Side Lights on the Sale.
W. D. Brawley, of New Paris, was a persistent bidder and picked up three, Fashion Defender at $100 being the lowest in price.

Walter Fulghum said he was present to pick a few to match King Prospect, for which he recently paid Wood Ellison $1,000 at private sale, also to put in his own initial sale in October.

Col. Joe Fletcher, Dunkirk, Indiana, was auctioneer in chief, and was assisted by Colonel Tom Coniff, Richmond, and Oren Ross, of Winchester, in the sales ring. Porter Pike, of Centerville, was the efficient clerk of the sale and seemed to know every bidder in the pavilion. Frank Taylor, of the First National, was cashier.

LIMIT SCOPE OF INQUIRIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Commissioner Poper announced today that the Bureau of Internal Revenue would not answer inquiries relative to proposed business ventures, but would pass on completed transactions only. Many persons have been writing the bureau to know if taxable income would result from such-and-such plans.

Constipation Results When Hot Weather Stops Exercise

WHEN the system has become accustomed to a certain daily routine of exercise and food, health is quick to suffer if that routine is interfered with. The bowels are first to notice the change.

Different water is enough to constipate. Changes of food when traveling, much sitting by those accustomed to long walks will do it. It is especially true that when elderly people change their routine they quickly become constipated. Yet elderly people should be particularly careful to keep their bowels open, especially during the hot months.

A better remedy for the purpose cannot be found on a druggist's shelf than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin which trains the stomach-muscles to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. Only a small dose is needed, and unlike harsh physics and cathartics, it acts gently and without griping.

A bottle of Syrup Pepsin can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter the family size, or a free trial bottle will be sent on receipt of your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 460 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.
