INDUSTRY CRISIS BEFORE GOMPERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, returned to America, Tuesday, to take charge of an industrial situation unprecedented in the ranks of his followers.

Events occurring during his absence in Europe have established him as the most powerful factor in the nation's industry. And when he stepped off the George Washington at Hoboken, today, he found himself besieged by representatives of many trades and besought by the government for guidance and help.

Reports from over the country show that more than 1,000,000 people today are affected seriously by strikes involving more than 300,000 workers. In addition, threatened strikes of 900,000 more are in the balance.

Over all of these Gompers may be expected to exert an influence which will carry tremendous weight and responsibility during the nation's present effort to reestablish normal conditions.

Mrs. Amelia Cromer of Richmond will spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison. The annual reunion of the Jordan family will be held at Pearce's lake near Economy. ## MAJOR SCOTT, LOCAL MAN, IS IN COMMAND ON 306 MILE HIKE

Major E. M. Scott, son of G. H. Scott, 24 South Eleventh street, is in command of the second battalion, 43d infantry, which is making a march from Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Texas, to Camp Travis, San Antonio, to stimulate interest in the army and to prepare for possible Mexican service.

The main column has ten trucks and one motor ambulance. The battalion is composed of 175 men, divided into four skeleton companies and into supply, headquarters and medical detachments.

Twelve recruits have been accepted for service since the battalion left Fort Worth, August 11.

Marching is done between 5 and 10:50 o'clock a. m. of each day that the roads are fit for hiking. The party is scheduled to reach Camp Travis September 10, although Major Wildman states that orders are likely to come at any moment to entrain for service in Mexico.

That this service seems possible is indicated by the punitive expedition which entered Mexico.

The Forty-third infantry has been designated as the regiment to take the place of the marines who were with the Second division at Chateau-Thierry.

The battalion's hike from Camp Bowie to Camp Travis is 306 miles. This distance is said to be the longest distance ever to be hiked by infantrymen in Texas. Recruits do not hike.
